INTRODUCTION

By James Mason

Within this convoluted tale of the National Socialist Liberation Front – making up probably the smallest file to date in this series of the history of the American Nazi Party – we need first to outline our reasons why any such “splinter” group should appear here to the exclusion of all others.

The criteria was one of philosophy and, moreover, one of strategy.

While all other splinters – and there were many – represent but disgruntled local units having broken away from the parents group at Arlington, Virginia, and still sharing the same basic outlook as to both the problem and its solution, the N.S.L.F. adopted a radically different stance toward both. In evolutionary terms, this was a genuine step forward and not merely sideways as with all the rest.

The documents reproduced herein are quite capable of speaking for themselves and so we'll deal in these few pages with that which might not be so readily apparent.

The criteria for legitimacy for any NS group, as far as I'm concerned, is that of action, not talk. As it was for Hitler, so it was for Rockwell and now for Joseph Tommasi. This young recruit to the A.N.P. had been born in 1951 in Delaware. Some of his early exploits on the streets of Los Angeles can be seen and read about in the final issue of The Stormtrooper Magazine, the two-part set with which we opened this series.

But as to the conception of the name, National Socialist Liberation Front, we must turn to Dr. William Pierce, who had joined Commander Rockwell in the mid-1960s as a young academic. Following Rockwell's assassination in 1967, Pierce made up one-third of the corporate triumvirate which went on to maintain Arlington as the center of the movement.

Pierce, although a dedicated National Socialist, was never convinced that serious headway could ever be made with the open use of the Swastika. And, although a firm pillar of the national organization, he was ever on the lookout for possibly useful front groups. For the sake of perspective, so had been Rockwell in his own time. One outfit that Pierce ran across the time stemmed from one of George Wallace's tries at the presidency and had called itself the National Youth Alliance, later shortened to the National Alliance. Here turned out to be truly a front which ultimately outdid its parent. At approximately the same time, that is 1969, Pierce – a college man – imagined he could co-opt a little bit of the Left's thunder on the seething campuses of Vietnam-era America with a title like National Socialist Liberation Front. The christening of that effort is well documented in the two-disc set on the NS Bulletin, also part of this series.

In short, Pierce's N.S.L.F. fell flatter than flat. It had been perhaps ineptitude or naiveté which led him to believe that anyone could have been able to cash in on the evil wind which was then blowing across the academic circles of the West. These people had been fooled once – poisoned, seduced – by the Jews into their vile Marxist-Liberalism. They could never be thus coaxed back out of it.

And so all that printed matter – cards, stationery, etc. – most of which I myself had printed up at Arlington, was left lying there, dead. That was until the year 1974.

Los Angeles Party Headquarters

As was given among my reasons for not delving too far forward with our reproductions of the NS Bulletin, things after 1970 in the N.S.W.P.P. parent group quickly began to take on a circular motion. For any political organization, a development of this nature spells effective death. 1970 so happened to have also been the year in which William Pierce was alienated from the group. His next move was as easy as it was logical: Fully over and into what would become his National Alliance. Again, the rest – as they say – is history.

The rest of us waited and watched throughout the early Seventies. It did seem as though progress was being made right up into 1973 and the climax of that year's Fifth Party Congress, held in Cleveland, Ohio. We were mostly excited at the prospect of Joseph Tommasi and his men of the Los Angeles unit appearing to swell the ranks of the march down Euclid Avenue.

However – much to our dismay – Tommasi was there practically alone. This was odd and disturbing. As we later learned very sketchily from Tommasi himself during the course of the week-long Congress, Tommasi was being effectively court-martialed by a Party tribunal during those evenings.

Incomprehensible! He was our best!! Here was the point of no return in the pattern of the national headquarters betraying and alienating the local units around the country. "Girls at the headquarters", "marijuana", "financial irregularities", etc. Balderdash, in other words.

Previously, Tommasi quite on his own had purchased the very building in El Monte – a suburb of Los Angeles – which had first been occupied by A.N.P. Captain Ralph Forbes and used as the L.A. unit headquarters. (This is documented in the 1966 run of The Rockwell Report.) Soon thereafter, Tommasi dutifully handed over its ownership at the request of the national leadership at Arlington. And soon after that came the so-called "court martial". Here was a very disturbing pattern.

But whereas the others who had similar such experiences went on to launch their own "Parties in the shadow of the parent – some to notable success – Tommasi did something unique: He parted with any pretense to legality. Once more, the documents presented here will speak for themselves.

I was just entering upon a six-month jail sentence for a racial assault conviction at this time, that is, late in 1974. Tommasi's new leaflet, "Political Terror", was just then reaching my hands. Here I was going into incarceration and I was fed up. I've told the story of how my mind-set then was of, "Now's the time to either quit this or to get serious about it." Tommasi, in that one simple leaflet, had shown the way.

The long and short of Tommasi's brief career leading the N.S.L.F. was that they had the Reds running to the police begging for protection. Then came August 15th, 1975. Tommasi was shot and killed in a confrontation with young recruits of the parent group. Right in the very doorstep of the headquarters building he had first secured and then faithfully signed away.

The L.A. centered group continued on for a short time under a new leadership until a routine arms bust put an effective end to that. However, as always in cases like this, the dynamism was already gone. Some of us weren't quite ready to hang it up and determined to go on to develop and sow the revolutionary, new philosophy. I made my own contribution to this idea, first using my own front name and then, after Tommasi's death, as a direct continuation of the N.S.L.F. from Ohio.

Numerous legalistic "over ground" groups, similar to Rockwell's scrupulously straight-and-narrow A.N.P., are still on the scene. They seldom appear in the news, unlike the way Rockwell used to do. But throughout the Seventies, Eighties and Nineties, groups much like the "underground" N.S.L.F. of Joseph Tommasi were making BIG news.

William Pierce and Joseph Tommasi were two diametrically opposite personalities. Word even had it that they, in life, mutually despise one another. No matter.

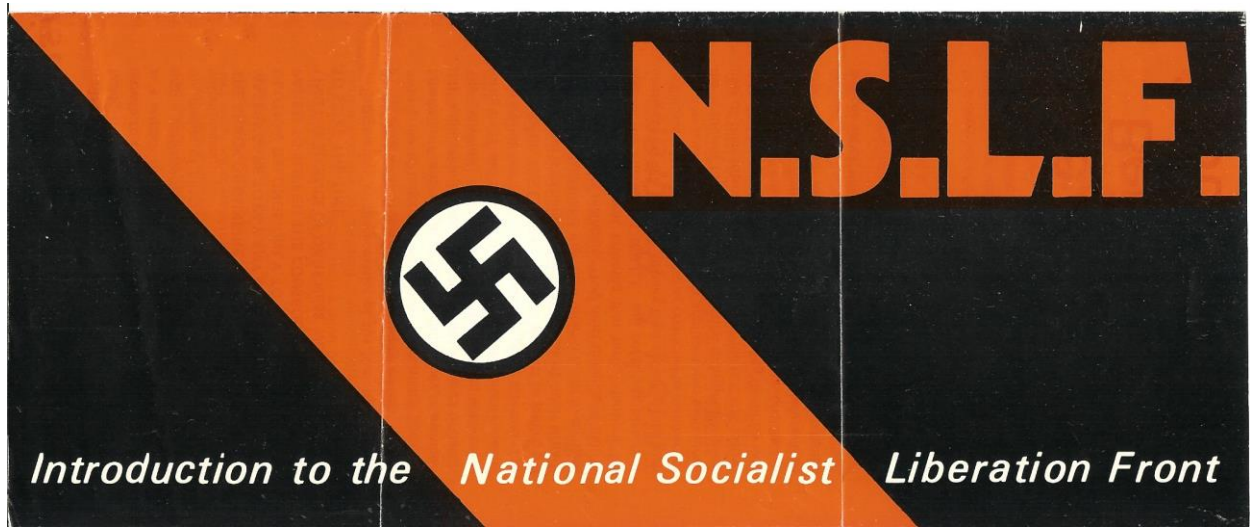

The irony of it is that actions which set the System on its ear – The Order and Oklahoma City, as but two prime examples and the first instances of so-called "terrorism" in the homeland – all followed in the pattern of Joseph Tommasi's N.S.L.F. but they all carried in their pockets the blueprint as penned by William Pierce in his novel, "The Turner Diaries".

And now?

Things appear ominously quiet.

The System maintains full sway, unopposed. The fabric of what was once the nation continues to erode at an ever-increasing pace. One can watch it falling apart, physically, visibly, from year to year now. It is as though that most enigmatic of all of Saint Paul's prophecies was even now playing itself out: That of the Mystery of Iniquity.

The National Socialist Liberation Front

As an alternative to the lack of any pure education on the National Socialist World View to members of the National Socialist Community, we have established the National Socialist Liberation Front.

The primary purpose of the N.S.L.F. is to fill in this void by educating a select group of white persons already committed to the National Socialist World View in the hopes that they will gain a better understanding of Adolf Hitler's National Socialism in relation to today's contemporary political situation.

Not being a part of a "mass Movement" organization and not attempting to build a mass movement will allow us to put forth our efforts only to those we feel will benefit from our teachings. This is necessary in so much as it will give us a higher quality of person with which to work with. It will be from those people from which we will choose who we wish to join us in taking up arms in a guerilla war that will surely have to be waged against the system and certain other enemies of the National Socialist Revolution. We will choose those who will associate with us. This organization is NOT open to "anyone". We are clandestine National Socialist guerillas. We realize what is wrong in America and we realize what has to be done. But first we must learn all there is to learn about ourselves and our enemies. Without this knowledge all attempts at waging war shall end in our defeat.

N.S.L.F. Program

Members of the N.S.L.F. tend to be the more radical and better educated among those involved in the National Socialist Movement.

Because of the nature of those in N.S.L.F. there is no need to fill illusions of governmental takeovers and world domination. The primary theme of thought in N.S.L.F. is to face the many political realities in America and analyze them. Our conclusions will determine our strategy and tactics.

N.S.L.F. has four primary purposes:-

1. The maintenance of a political book store dealing primarily in National Socialist thought.
2. Militant radical workshops and the training of a cadre of dedicated, well educated National Socialist revolutionaries will be the end product of an intensive program by which ALL members will gain a thorough understanding of what National Socialism means and how best to serve the National Socialist Movement through the vehicle of the National Socialist Liberation Front. Radical, militant "street action" aimed at bringing the system and it's bosses to their "knees" is the final goal. This policy of confrontation politics will be achieved by any means necessary.
3. The maintenance of a "Radical Hot Line" telephone message service.
4. The dissemination of our propaganda.

The N.S.L.F. will grow but that growth must be based on facing the political realities of today. We must allow our growth to be organic and must not view our lack of growth as a setback but rather a primary and necessary tactic for such a unique effort as ours. We must strive for quality, not the masses of idiots which would only drag us down into insignificance.

THE CRACK OF GUNFIRE IS THE ONLY REALITY THE MASSES CARE TO PAY ANY ATTENTION TO. THE REVOLUTION BELONGS ONLY TO THOSE WHO ARE PREPARED TO SUFFER THE CONSEQUENCES OF DISRUPTING THE SILENCE OF DARKNESS. WE MUST PREPARE TO SEIZE THE TIME.

Participation in the activities of the National Socialist Liberation Front is limited only to members of the N.S.L.F.

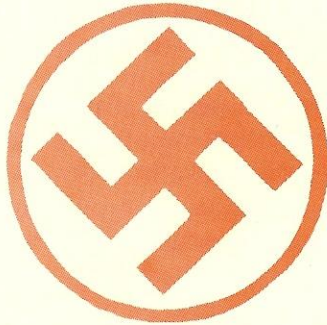

In order to become a member of the National Socialist Liberation Front one must fill out completely, a membership application. All questions must be answered in detail. The individual, in addition to the membership application form, must also sign the statement we will provide swearing they are not members of a government agency attempting to infiltrate the N.S.L.F. and that their interest in joining the organization is to purely advance the cause of Adolf Hitler's National Socialism and that their interest is not to do harm to N.S.L.F. or its members. They must understand that to sign such a statement knowing that their intentions are against the interests of N.S.L.F. will constitute breach of contract and will allow us to take legal action against such individuals. Membership is further restricted to members of the non-Jewish, white race. Each applicant and each member is subject to an intense investigation to insure the goodness of their intentions in the minds of the N.S.L.F. leadership. The leadership will be the sole deciding factor on who will be allowed membership in N.S.L.F. The National Socialist Liberation Front leadership will also decide who will be expelled and for what reason. The leadership will also be the only ones to decide what the activities of the organization will consist of.

A membership application fee of $5.00 will be required with a minimum monthly pledge of $5.00 or more. The money is used to maintain the facilities of N.S.L.F. and to finance its activities and publish our propaganda.

A member of the N.S.L.F. is entitled to attend and participate in our weekly radical forums. Members will also receive the bi-monthly internal bulletin of the N.S.L.F., "SEIGE!"

"He, Not Busy Being Born is Busy Dying"

If you wish to become a member of the National Socialist Liberation Front, fill in the request for membership plus your $5.00 handling fee. We will send you an application by return mail.

had because of Tommasi. Koehl was no Rockwell, and hardly could be called his true successor. Tommasi was a natural leader, and skilled in being able to appeal to others and had the ability to put large numbers of people on the streets wherever and whenever it was necessary. This, unfortunately, left Koehl demoralized as a leader.

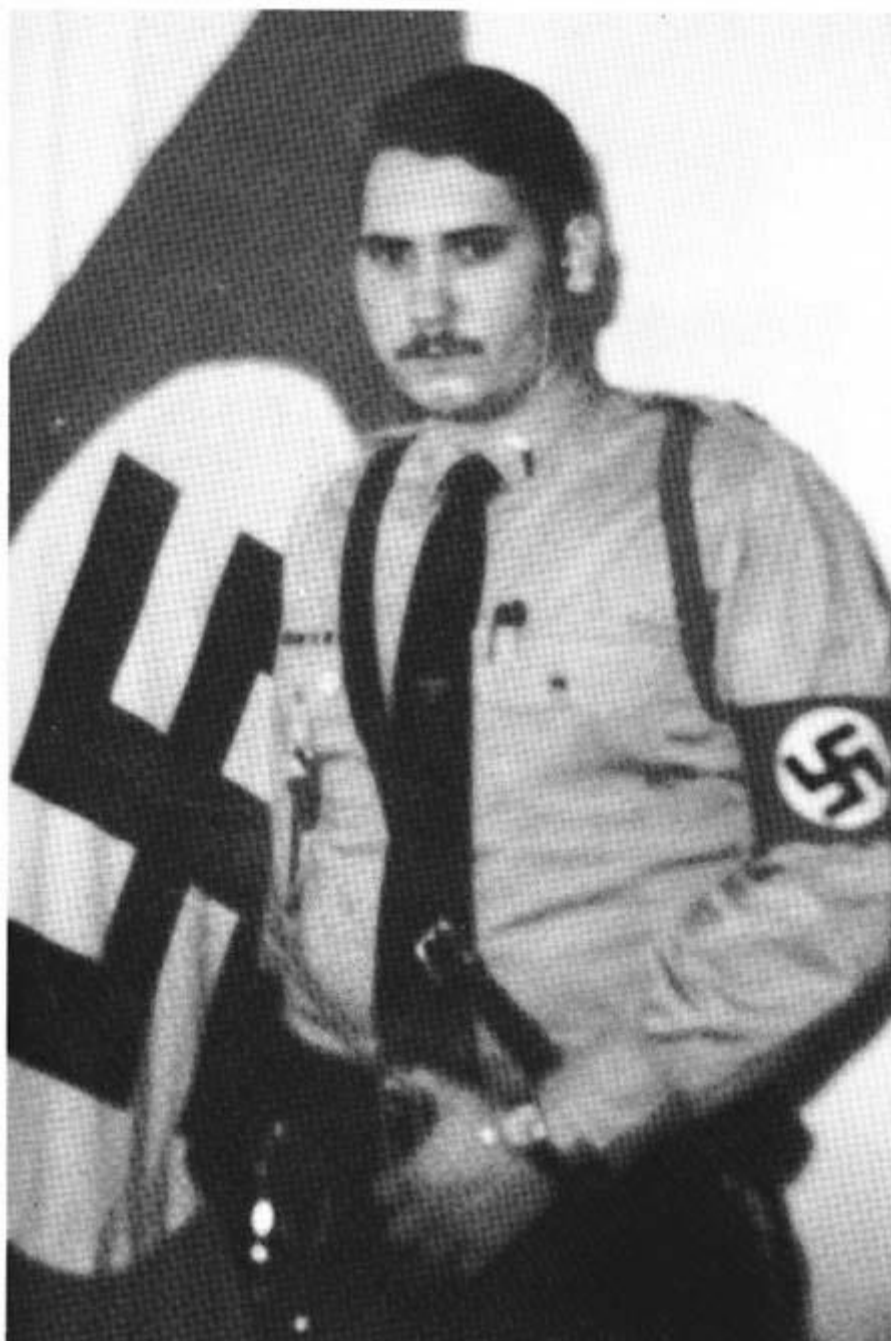

In 1973, Joseph Tommasi was the Western District Leader of the NSWPP. The NSWPP's failure to take proper action against the System, and their inability to strike the System where it hurts created sympathy and understanding of Joseph Tommasi's criticisms of Matt Koehl's leadership abilities (or lack there-of). Tommasi resigned from the NSWPP around the time of the oil crisis in 1973, was kicked out of his party headquarters that he had spent out of pocket to purchase for the Western District, and moved on to form the NSLF later in 1974. This sympathy others had for Tommasi lead to him obtaining a solid number of recruits out of the old party. As October of 1973 came along, many other members of the NSWPP began to back out of the Party because of their failure to capitalize on the oil crisis that was currently taking place, thus drawing them under Tommasi's leadership.

Even during this time after the formation of the NSLF, Joseph Tommasi still tried to maintain positive communication with the old NSWPP, trying to convince their leadership that they could act as an above ground propaganda machine that would draw in whatever of the masses that could be worth recruiting to the struggle while sending the more radical elements towards the NSLF. The NSWPP, however, felt that acts of violence and the revolutionary approach would not obtain victory and that warfare was not necessary to complete their mission. After this attempted alliance, Tommasi came to the conclusion that the NSWPP were only pretending to be ruling class types while maintaining a transparent bureaucrat sort-of image. None of them at all were mass propagandists nor had any interest in practical strategy.

The NSWPP held the illusion that the masses would come flocking to the party only after they have changed National Socialism to be more flexible with what the average consumer could make sense of, and eventually when the situation in America got bad enough, the masses would flock to the party as their saviors. Unfortunately for the NSWPP, they could not tap into the masses due to their dogmatic approach and lack of psychological understanding of the working class/ordinary man. Any individual who would offer any real solutions, as Tommasi did, was denounced as a "psychopath".

JOSEPH TOMMASI TRIBUTE

FROM TOM METZGER:

I knew Joe Tommasi personally back in the early seventies. I met him and some of his NSLF soldiers at the New Christian Crusade Church convention headed by James K. Warner. I was still wet behind the ears and pretty naive at the time. Actually the first physical meet was when the hotel elevator door slid open into the meeting hall and there he was. Dressed in Levis, a sweat shirt and army fatigue jacket plus combat boots. In fact all his men were dressed like 60's left wing radicals. There was one very beautiful girl in the group also and she dressed the same. I talked to Joe for a few minutes but it was obvious he was way out front of what I was into. But he was very gracious and polite as we spoke.

And then they were gone like people on a mission. Later when Joe rolled a surplus smoke grenade down the aisle of the Hollywood theater that was premiering the big budget Film "Holocaust" I laughed and laughed. On the smoke bomb he had attached a note. "HELLO THIS IS A FREINDLY GIFT FROM YOUR LOCAL NAZI PARTY". The theater was packed with hundreds of big shots, politicians, Hollywood Jews etc. They poured into the streets and were not allowed back in the theater for 2 hours. Next day the Los Angeles Times headlines screamed "Nazi's bomb premier of the film "Holocaust".

Up until a short time before Joe was a spit and polish uniform wearing National Socialist who went by the book? Joe told me he had been National Socialist since his early teens. Joe inherited a house in El Monte, Ca. Which he turned into a headquarters for the old Rockwell party now being led by Matt Koehl. Joe recruited a lot of people in the L.A. area and performed many marches. Joe was a natural leader of men and did not believe in going completely by the book.

He allowed some beer drinking in the headquarters and an occasional female companion into his room. This was one of the things that led to his downfall. Mat Kohl was unmarried bachelor type, that like many National socialist were at the time what could be considered tight asses. Not all by any means but Kohl wanted to run the headquarters like a monastery which didn't fit well with Joe. He was a working class guy who knew how to handle working class people. He was evolving through a Brown shirt stage into a Freebooter which was the forerunner of the street action NS.

Commander Koehl called for a nation convention in the Midwest. So Joe and a few others attended. A trap was sprung at this meeting. A couple of officers like Joe owned the building that served as headquarters for the party in El Monte and I believe Chicago. They were talked into signing their headquarters over to the national party, i.e. Mat Koehl. Not long after National headquarters using the excuse that Joe was allowing parties beer and women into his El Monte headquarters Koehl kicked Joe out of his own Headquarters.

grew hair long and many had beards. They could move through the streets of L.A. without notice. No armbands, badges or any other identifying trinkets. They trained in the mountains and the deserts. They attacked Marxist book stores and meetings, rumors are the bombed a couple of porn shops. They published a very slick magazine with big pictures with captions such as "POWER COMES FROM OUT OF A BARREL OF A GUN" and many more revolutionary mottos and articles.

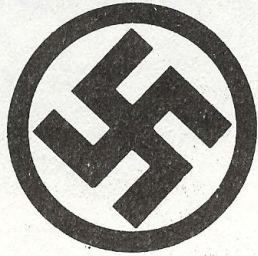

But as all this was going on Joe festered at the idea that his home and headquarters had been swindled from him. Every few days he drove past his old home. It was now run on the total Hollywood version with full uniforms and spit and polish. Even with armed sentries in front of the building. One day Joe went past and a young security guard yelled at him in a disrespectful way. Joe slammed on the breaks and exited his car heading towards this young guard. The young guard only 16 pulled his gun and shot Joe in the chest. Joe died at the scene in front of his own house.

I was running a book sales booth at the Pomona gun show when Joe's wife approached me. She was pregnant with Joe's child. After giving her a big hug, she told me she was going back to Joe's parents' home to live and have the baby. Joe was from Italian background and his parents had operated an Italian restaurant in Kansas. Somewhere in my archives I have a picture of the sign for the family restaurant. One of his closest comrades was named Rust. 25 years or so ago I tracked him down. He told me he had a trunk full of records and pictures. I thought this should be made into a book about Joe but after agreeing at first, Rust kept giving me the run around after that and I never was able to get those papers. Joe's boy would be in his thirties by now but I never heard from them after they went back to Kansas.

It is my opinion that if Joe's NSLF ideas of organization would have spread across the nation we would be in a much better situation than we are now in. Unfortunately, Joe Tommasi like Robert Mathews did not have enough time to get it really rolling big time.

From David Pringle:

Joseph Tommasi was the founder and leader of the National Socialist Liberation Front (NSLF). The NSLF was focused on armed struggle. He was the Western District leader of the National Socialist White People's Party and broke with Matt Koehl and the NSWPP in Fall of 1973. James Mason wrote quite a bit about him in the newsletter turned book Siege. Tommasi was killed during a brawl at the Los Angeles NSWPP headquarters on August 15, 1975. I have met a few former NSLF members and all of them have a reverent tone when speaking of Tommasi. In my opinion he is one of the most quotable American Nazis, the quote in my signature was featured on a flyer the NSLF used to distribute.

While I am in no way an expert on Tommasi. I admire his militancy, willingness to fight to the death and his ability to organize and inspire White men and women. I also love his straight forward no BS style of writing; here is a sample:

STRATEGY FOR REVOLUTION

On March 2nd, 1974, forty-three National Socialist Revolutionaries met in a hall in El Monte, California. At the meeting the National Socialists declared their lack of faith in the losing strategy of the mass movement idea. The National Socialists abandoned the mass strategy and adopted the revolutionary concept of the guerilla underground.

-- No longer would we think in terms of obtaining political power through the electorate; but instead, of hurting the Enemy through force and violence. We would build the armed struggle.

-- We would no longer adhere to a mass strategy but would instead cultivate those already committed to the National Socialists World View. We have limited ourselves to only the best among the Movement.

-- We have abandoned petty bourgeois, bureaucratic hang-ups and have developed the idea that the end justifies the means. What works is good!

-- We recognize that women have played a vanguard role in most revolutionary efforts and involve them in every aspect of the NSLF.

-- We recognize the fact that the masses of Whites will never rally around radical politics. White people no longer have the ability to even recognize the enemy, so how could Movement adherents think the masses could ever involve themselves in revolution? The White masses don't recognize their enemies, they don't even care, and they don't have the guts to shed their bourgeois hang-ups.

-- We view armed struggle as the only effective means of forcing political change.

The White man has lost! We are an occupied people in our own land who must now develop a totally different outlook on revolution.

We must build the underground. We are making it an effective, hard-hitting National Socialist Revolutionary Army.

Obviously he put the extreme in Extreme Right. Here are a few more quotes from his writings:

"Leadership in the struggle has to do with making things happen. Leadership is the people who are doing it, cutting through diversionary debate, smashing forms and familiarities that hold us back, and through developing and acting on a clear line of how we move to win, redefining the context, content, and meaning of the National Socialist Movement and the Revolution. That's what we call SEIZING THE TIME!"

"We DO NOT wish for 'Law and Order,' for law and order means the continued existence of this rotten rip-off Capitalist Jew System. We wish for anarchy and chaos which will enable us to ATTACK the system while her Big Brother Pigs trying to keep the pieces from falling apart. We wish for a situation so confused and mixed-up that we can go after those bastards responsible for the anti-White policies and attacks against our people which now exist. Such chaos would allow us to so intensify our assaults that we could very well plunge the entire system to its death. For us to support those (the police) who maintain the 'rules the wise men make for the fools' is absurd and suicidal."

Joe Tommasi was a man ahead of his time and deserves to be remembered.

From "Muller" at Stormfront:

On March 2nd, 1974, forty three National Socialist Revolutionaries met in a hall in El Monte, California. At the meeting, the National Socialists declared their lack of faith in the losing strategy of the mass movement idea. The National Socialists abandoned the mass strategy and adopted the revolutionary concept of the guerilla underground.

The NSLF was started by Joseph Tommasi after he left the NSWPP, due to what I have heard was jealousy over his effectiveness at organizing. The NSLF engaged in a number of low key actions including tear gassing a memorial rally for Jewish spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg and bombing a number of Communist Party targets. Other actions by the NSLF have not been confirmed, the NSLF was still in its infancy and like many guerilla groups designed to strike at soft targets in the beginning and expand in operations.

In August of 1975 Tommasi was killed at the NSWPP party building after another guard had "flipped off" Tommasi as he was driving by. Tommasi exited his vehicle attacked the guard who had insulted him, while another guard drew his pistol and shot Tommasi in the head. From there the leadership passed to Karl Hand, who was imprisoned and the NSLF fell apart. Muller

"A GIFT FROM YOUR LOCAL NATIONAL SOCIALIST LIBERATION FRONT"

That evening approximately 3,000 people filled the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium. Roscoe Lee Browne had just begun the performance when a riot control projectile of a type normally available only to police departments exploded in front of the air intake above the proscenium - quickly filling the hall with an aerosol powder irritant. Choking, vomiting & fainting, the crowd fled outside - into a severe thunder storm. As if forewarned, within minutes Santa Monica police & firemen wearing gas masks & equipped with portable ventilator fans appeared - telling the dazed & sickened crowd huddling for shelter in the outer lobby: "The show's over - go home." Despite being urged to leave, over 2,000 waited more than an hour until the gas had cleared, then reentered the hall. All 26 performers, including Henry Fonda who, wearing a pacemaker, after being assisted out of the auditorium by Michael Glass, remained and went on with the show. An anonymous caller claimed the "Provisional Wing of the National Socialist Liberation Front" was responsible.

BUILDING THE REVOLUTIONARY PARTY - Joseph Tommasi

POLITICAL POWER STEMS FROM THE BARREL OF A GUN

Winning the hearts and minds of the people takes intense organizing activity and a willingness on the part of the people to get involved and be organized. Both at this time do not exist. Since a mass movement cannot be "pulled off" in America because of the anti-mass movement nature of the American people (which stems from their ever-growing apathy), the only recourse for National Socialist Revolutionaries is to go underground and build their own armed struggle to wage war against the state.

National Socialist activities have never produced one significant political result in the U.S.A. Any mob resistance our people have ever been engaged in has always been a spontaneous eruption (like Boston) with the participation and agitation of no political party or National Socialist activist. They did it themselves and without our help. Organizationally, the Movement has failed to exploit the opportunities available to create "mass" mob violence against the enemy, even when such opportunities have lingered on. Publicity stunts have always supplanted effective political action. There has been no arming the students, no burning of school busses except by mobs totally disconnected with National Socialism, no organization of mass violent demonstrations, and no effort to communicate with the people and provide the necessary National Socialist Political Leadership to gain direct National Socialist successes.

In Boston, contrary to claims of the old Party, the people rejected the Party and if anything desired help from the Ku Klux Klan, an embarrassment for the Party. This situation occurred because of a complete lack of proper leadership and leadership activity on the part of the Party. The Party with their stagnant Prussian tactics were incapable of identifying with the revolutionary youth. Special propaganda and mass organizing did not occur. Just a few stunts for the newspapers and no solutions for the problems of the people.

As National Socialist Revolutionaries we must always keep in mind that nothing we do against the System can ever be conceived as "adventuristic". Militant struggle is the key to heightening contradictions. It not only strikes concrete blows against the State but also builds revolutionary consciousness among those involved in the struggle, which is what must happen before we can attempt to build our outside power bases from which to operate while building a popular base of support. Building a popular base of support will become more and more of a necessity and an easier goal to achieve as conditions in the country become worse and worse.

Our greatest weakness is our belief in our weakness. We have to communicate to all National Socialist Revolutionaries our strength and to show them our strength we have to show them the strength of fighting. We must build confidence within the entire Movement before we can hope to help people and lead those people in revolution. That confidence must be based on the idea that as National Socialist Revolutionaries we cannot be stopped by anyone: the System; the Reds; or the Reaction! This confidence must project the image and reality that only confrontation politics, force and violence, can change the anti-White actions of our enemies. Only by fighting, by any means necessary, will we be able to effect political change. We cannot effect political change by projecting a phony, bureaucratic, Prussian image and constantly spouting unrealistic daydreams, such as imagining the masses would ever wish to emulate Stormtroopers. It just won't happen.

All revolutions, the actual assumption of power, are instigated by the effort of a tiny few. Those who could possibly participate in such a revolution among the White people in America are not like those who participated in past European struggles. Americans tend to go against the "grain" on practically anything. We are not Europeans and won't respond as Europeans. If a revolution occurs in America it will most likely be a violent one sparked by one lone incident and not by a prepared dialogue of political euphemisms. Until that one lone incident occurs, White people will never flock to the voting booths to place their physical support to the direction of helmeted Stormtroopers. They will instead continue to play the present Republican and Democrat party politics no matter how bad things get simply because of their complete apathy towards getting involved with their neighbors' problems. They don't recognize those problems as their own. The old Party could not offer any proof of their ability to provide solutions to the problems facing the country, especially when the Party had only one or two real leaders. With such a situation, how could the Party make claims of having the answer? Their past performances give no guiding light at this time.

"The future belongs to the few of us willing to get our hands dirty." --Joseph Tommasi, Founder, National Socialist Liberation Front NSLF (The National Socialist Liberation Front) believes that it is necessary to begin development of an armed struggle immediately. We now understand the futility of maintaining the fight for social change within the framework of civil debate. Instead of trying to educate and organize people who don't see it our way, we write them off as enemies and neutralizers of the National Socialist Revolution. This has marked the ascendancy of the purely militant point of view in NSLF thinking. We now confine our outreach to the small group of Movement people we consider potentially militant National Socialist Revolutionaries. The NSLF feels that since these National Socialist already know that the System "sucks" all they need is a revolutionary example in order to move into armed struggle themselves. The NSLF will lead these National Socialist through a series of rigidly defined steps, from the lowest levels of armed struggle to the highest levels. The levels are determined by the violence of the weapons used. Rocks and "trashing" are on one level, Molotov cocktails are higher and bombs are higher still. The highest level is, of course, guns. This tactic of levels includes no political guidelines or flexibility and almost completely disregards mass participation. Levels are defined solely in terms of the weapons used. A mass action involving hundreds using only rocks is defined as a lower level of struggle than a bombing carried out by a few.

Leadership in the struggle has to do with making things happen. Leadership is the people who are doing it, cutting through diversionary debate, smashing forms and familiarities that hold us back, and through developing and acting on a clear line of how we move to win, redefining the context, content, and meaning of the National Socialist Movement and the Revolution. That's what we call SEIZING THE TIME! NSLF is building an underground army. We must spread our efforts to trouble spots in the country, exploiting racially troubled areas and establishing bases of support. At these times we will continue to fan the fires as long as we can, using this chaos to launch armed attacks against the enemy.

Since our militancy is obviously going to lead to a military confrontation (probably with the U.S. Army that is growing ever Blacker), maybe not for the next few years, then the fact that most of the Movement has no consistency of armaments makes us fools. So we must build internally during the new few months. Therefore we should state publicly that we believe in, support, and are preparing for armed struggle; for that is what we must do to effect political change.

In times of revolution, just wars and wars of liberation, we must love the angels of destruction and disorder as opposed to the devils of conservatism and law and order. To hell with all those who block the Revolution with rhetoric - revolutionary rhetoric or counter revolutionary rhetoric! We will not make our most eloquent statements in courtrooms and at press conferences, but in the streets of Jew-Capitalist America! The choice of weapons belongs to him who moves; and NSLF moves into the streets and we have made our choice of weapons and tactics. The weapon of criticism will never equal the criticism of weapons. NSLF prefers a paralyzed enemy to a well-criticized one. Those who can't stand the sight of blood, especially their own, should stay home and pray for those who come outside the master's rules to "move", to DO IT, and pray for victory and not an end to the slaughter. Pray for us to succeed for if we do succeed you will be safe. If we don't, then kiss the baby good-bye. Muller

STRATEGY FOR REVOLUTION - Joseph Tommasi

On March 2nd, 1974, forty-three National Socialist Revolutionaries met in a hall in El Monte, California. At the meeting the National Socialist declared their lack of faith in the losing strategy of the mass movement idea. The National Socialist abandoned the mass strategy and adopted the revolutionary concept of the guerrilla underground. No longer would we think in terms of obtaining political power through the electorate; But instead, of hurting the Enemy through force and violence.

We would build the armed struggle. We would no longer adhere to a mass strategy but would instead cultivate those already committed to the National Socialist World-View. We have limited ourselves to only the best among Movement people. We have abandoned petty bourgeois, bureaucratic hang-ups and have developed the idea that the end justifies the means. What works is good!

We recognize that women have played a vanguard role in most revolutionary efforts and involve them in every aspect of NSLF. We recognize the fact that the masses of Whites will never rally around radical politics. White people no longer have the ability to even recognize the enemy, so how could Movement adherents think the masses could ever involve themselves in revolution? The White masses don't recognize their enemies, they don't even care, and they don't have the guts to shed their bourgeois hang-ups.

We view armed struggle as the only effective means of forcing political change. The White Man has lost! We are an occupied people in our own land who must now develop a totally different outlook on revolution. We must build the underground. We are making it an effective, hard-hitting National Socialist Revolutionary Army. We have already begun to launch armed assaults against the Enemy. More assaults will continue, whether the Enemy be the Right Wing Reactionaries, the System, or the Communists. National Socialist Ideological and Political training, additional training in guerrilla warfare, explosives and demolition, military assault weapons and gas warfare, along with electronic communications and electronic surveillance techniques are taking place. Classes in first aid, police evasion, techniques of being a POW and escape are also taking place.

The NSLF is divided into combat units. A combat unit consists of three liberation fighters and a unit leader. No one combat unit knows who constitutes another combat unit. An NSLF combat unit member is trained as an efficient guerrilla fighter dedicated to destroying the Enemy, no matter who that enemy may be. On the surface he has no uniform. He could be the bearded long-hair sitting next to you on the bus, or the clean-cut store clerk. He could be anyone anywhere.

The NSLF has the best elements gathered together from the past twenty years of National Socialist activity in the United States. It has gathered experienced communications experts, military firearms experts, along with the finest liberation fighters available. Each member understands the new concept, the new strategy and tactics needed in order to effect political change. No longer willing to play the games of Movement bureaucracies or associating with bald-headed idiots who have no concept of realities, the NSLF will undoubtedly emerge the vanguard fighters in the National Socialist Revolution!

From "HailKlassenBKS" at Stormfront:

If you can get ahold of Siege, that will tell you a lot about him. I don't have the first addition, but I know the second edition which I have (limited to 500, so kinda hard to say if it is even available anymore) has a ton of information on Tommasi. There's everything from articles influenced by him written by Mason, to various newspaper photocopies on Tommasi. He essentially went from a Rockwell-style Nazi in a uniform to a long haired revolutionary with a more 'leftist' slant to things, at least as far as his rhetoric went. All in all a good fellow, who probably could have made a real difference, if he hadn't had his life cut short so soon? What is probably the most interesting thing about his death is that it wasn't by a "red" or an "antiracist" or a Jew, but rather by another member of the movement. I guess it just goes to show that we are our own worst enemies...if we aren't killing each other or testifying against each other, we're spreading rumors or what have you. Things haven't changed much.

Excerpt from the article 'Siege Mentality' by Dominic Hampshire:

The Party [The National Socialist White Peoples' Party in the early 70's] subsequently splintered and Joseph Tommasi, one of the most successful and certainly more radical of the leadership, formed his own group, the National Socialist Liberation Front. As a vehicle for the NSLF, he began publication of a periodical he called Siege, high on invective, not so high in intellectual content. Tommasi, a self-proclaimed political terrorist, was assassinated in 1975. The following year Mason left the NSWPP' out of disgust for that group's follies and lack of any tangible progress. In 1980 he revived the by then defunct NSLF together with Siege as a monthly newsletter to "develop the philosophy" of revolution.

Excerpt from the article 'Paranoia in the Pews - A Further Statement on the International Third Position' (Issued by the National Revolutionary Faction' by Dominic Hampshire):

We are accused of stealing other people's ideas because we have used the late Joseph Tommasi's popular NSLF slogan: "the future belongs to those willing to get their hands dirty." But this is not theft - about which the ITP could probably teach us a great deal - it is a fitting tribute to a man who in revolutionary terms broke the conservative mold and took the agenda forward. After all, we do not regard the ITP as ideological and theological copycats simply because they use the expression "distributism" and employ the term "Catholic."

Two excerpts from the article 'American Nazism In The Context Of The American Extreme Right: 1960 - 1978' (Jim Saleam; 1985; Chapter Three: The Post Rockwell Period 1967 - 1978; Section One: The National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP)) :

In 1967, the issue was clear for the American Nazis. United as the NSWPP, they had to overcome the effects of the murder of Rockwell and professionalize the organization under the leadership of Matt Koehl, Rockwell's designated successor. The immediate result of Rockwell's murder was a confused period of schism, mutiny and general disorganization in American Nazism. In Los Angeles, James K. Warner re-emerged to trumpet the "rebirth" of the American Nazi Party. Certain "stormtroopers," dissatisfied with their second-rung status in the new NSWPP, set up rival Nazi parties in Dallas and California. However, Koehl managed to surmount the crisis; it was in the words of a later Nazi publication "his finest hour".

1 'The Free American,' No. 1, November, 1967.

2 Joe Tommasi, 'The Crisis in American National Socialism,' NSLF leaflet, 1975.

Of course, the NSWPP had already contended with two potentially dangerous splits: Frank Collin's foundation of the National Socialist Party of America in Chicago in 1970, and Dr. Pierce's defection, also in that year. The schismatic days of 1967-68 could also be mentioned. However, the desertion of Joe Tommasi, Western District Leader, in October 1973 made it clear that there was a leadership crisis in the NSWPP. Tommasi resigned just as the oil crisis was getting underway and raised the question of Koehl's infirmities of leadership. Further, according to a Nazi source there was supposed personal rivalry between Koehl and Tommasi of an obscure nature, which festered throughout 1973. The Nazi Commander, anxious to "discipline" his subordinate, further exacerbated the division.

In October 1973, the greater part of the Los Angeles unit of the NSWPP, along with sections of other units, seceded under Tommasi's leadership to establish the National Socialist Liberation Front. While other schismatic had been largely isolated, many NSWPP members had sympathy for Tommasi. As the months rolled on, and the NSWPP failed to capitalize on the oil crisis, many Nazis abandoned Koehl for Tommasi. Even so, the NSLF began its life as a Nazi sect with some regret for it wished to patch up differences with the NSWPP. Koehl would not yield. In its journal, 'Siege,' the NSLF expressed its dissatisfaction with the NSWPP, the "old party." The NSWPP was dismissed as an unsuitable political vehicle since its leaders were "bureaucrats," and not "mass propagandists". Koehl was personally reproached for using the "leadership principle" to run the party himself. It was argued that the NSWPP held to the illusion that violence was not necessary to achieve Nazi goals. The NSLF also charged, that the NSWPP was foolish to wait for the masses to rush to the party for salvation. It claimed that the NSWPP was dogmatic rather than pragmatic in its tactics and ideology, and that the middle-class leaders did not understand the psychology of the ordinary man. Nor was the party administration efficient.

There was something to the NSLF's charges. From October 1973, the NSWPP was in a state of siege, surrounded by new schismatic. Koehl's method of dealing with schismatic was ineffective. In 1967 he ignored their arguments, denounced them as "psychopaths" and built the party. They usually faded from the scene. By 1974, this stratagem was moth-eaten for the heretics had become too numerous, and, if Koehl opted to build the party he risked the creation of new regional centers of opposition. The initiative was slipping from Koehl's hands and his immediate answer to the crisis - centralization - would also prove disastrous.

Koehl was no Rockwell. In Koehl's taped address The White Man's Viewpoint, the style of oratory and debate was deliberate but uninspiring. Rockwell had expressed fervor, militancy and intelligence. Koehl appeared humorless and certainly doctrinaire. He had turned Rockwell's creed into a near-religious revelation, and consequently he addressed Americans in an aloof manner. In his 1977 pamphlet, Some Laws of Revolutionary Development, Koehl admitted that many Nazis directly compared the U.S. and German Nazis and asked why the American party was not at a stage of development comparable with German Nazis in the 1920's. (74) Koehl however, insisted on his orthodox position that the party was still in Phase Two and must retain its sobriety - even though this was clearly not what many American Nazis wanted to hear. As Tommasi had contended, Koehl often restricted activities to conform to his vision of Phase Two. His objective leadership style and the destructive effects of his ideological revisions of Rockwell would be illustrated in the history of the NSWPP after 1973.

The Cleveland Congress of the NSWPP, held in 1973, and coinciding with the Tommasi crisis, marked the zenith of the party. Yet in "the largest stormtroop demonstration in the party's history," a mere 120 troopers marched through downtown Cleveland. Although the Tommasi schism was an ulcer, the NSWPP continued on its course. The Cleveland Congress laid down that the major issues of 1973 and 1974 were Watergate and Israel. In these years, White Power reported extensive Nazi activity on the oil crisis. Nazis picketed Hubert Humphrey at a Zionist function in San Francisco, with a "Dump Israel" theme, while new leaflets were issued calling for support for the Palestinian cause against "the bandit state of Israel." In an article entitled "The Honeymoon is Over," Koehl wrote that "the real picture of the Enemy behind all our problems was now visible in America."

Of course, this enemy was the Jewish community. Koehl's attacks on America's Jews took place at a time of a substantial shift in public and political support for Israel. Senator Fulbright denounced the Jewish lobby in Washington and General Brown, former chief of the U.S. Army, attacked Jewish-owned newspapers for their irresponsible attitudes towards the Middle East conflict. Jewish publications denounced these men for "anti-Semitism." The Nazis were therefore not operating in a vacuum, yet they clearly failed to make much headway. In pursuing the question of the oil crisis, the NSWPP differed from its rival Nazi party, the National Socialist Party of America, which continued to stress racial issues. The NSWPP opted for "agitation," as distinct from making mere propaganda. However, whatever outbreak of anti-Semitism took place in the years 1973-75, it was directed more by organizations like Liberty Lobby than by the NSWPP. (Further, the oil crisis agitation also left the NSWPP little time to agitate around Watergate, though the Nazis drew the inevitable parallel between the "corruption" of Weimar Germany and contemporary America.)

Throughout 1974 and 1975, the NS Bulletin encouraged its readers to be exceptionally active on behalf of the cause. The NS Bulletin encouraged newspaper sales, and the distribution of anti-busing leaflets to build the movement. (80) An appeal, launched in 1974, which aimed to raise $40,000 was fully subscribed by April 1975.

But split after split took place in the NSWPP. In early 1974, Casey Kalemba, leader of the Cleveland unit, seceded from the party to establish the United White People's Party. The new organization ceased to use the swastika, changed into blue uniforms and dubbed itself a "White Nationalist" party. Kalemba became the "Commander" of the new party, which remained restricted to Ohio. Kalemba had been a trusted Koehl aide and had engendered substantial publicity for the party through opposition to busing. The reason for his desertion cannot be traced. The NSWPP which had hoped to make Cleveland its "Nuremberg," that is, the site for the annual party congress, was forced to relocate its 1974 Congress to St. Louis. In any event the 1974 Congress never took place, because of further internal division.

The 1974 split with the St. Louis unit cost the NSWPP dear. Dennis Nix, leader of the unit, had been commissioned to organize the Congress when Koehl, as trustee for NSWPP property, requested that Nix transfer the ownership of the local headquarters to him. This Nix refused to do. Shortly afterwards, the St. Louis unit of the NSWPP, joined the National Alliance.

Koehl's inability to trust local organizers is striking. Every time the NSWPP won publicity in a city, Koehl's efforts to centralize power appear to have caused a split. This trend, already evident in 1974, continued in 1975. Early in 1975, the Detroit unit abandoned the NSWPP for reasons that remain obscure. Then a South Carolina section, under the direction of Frank Brasswell, defected to Tommasi's NSLF. Brasswell apparently preferred the NSLF's commitment to violent action.

Excerpt from the article 'Leaderless Resistance' by Jeffrey Kaplan (1997):

Following the assassination of Rockwell in 1967, the party began to fragment. Matt Koehl succeeded the Commander, soon renamed the American Nazi Party the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP), and initiated the endless round of purges that would soon cost the Party its bare handful of capable adherents. Two of the victims of these purges and angry resignations, William Pierce and Joseph Tommasi, figure prominently in the development of the leaderless resistance concept.

Of Pierce much more will be said later. Joseph Tommasi concerns us first. Tommasi ironically was a Koehl loyalist almost to the day he was unceremoniously purged from the NSWPP and subsequently assassinated by an NSWPP member in 1975. Tommasi was one of the young West Coast party members whose radicalism thrilled a few and appalled the majority of American National Socialists. Addressing the Second Party Congress in 1970, his ringing call for revolutionary action NOW brought him to the attention of William Pierce--then in the throes of his own bitter dispute with Matt Koehl. Tommasi, like Pierce, was acutely aware of the bold actions undertaken by the Weathermen and the Symbionese Liberation Army to name but two of the left wing combatant organizations of the day. They were determined to create a campus-based revolutionary movement of the right on the same model. Thus was born the National Socialist Liberation Front (NSLF).

In 1973 or 1974, Tommasi published his now famous poster, "THE FUTURE BELONGS TO THE FEW OF US WILLING TO GET OUR HANDS DIRTY. POLITICAL TERROR: It's the only thing they understand," and his seminal pamphlet, 'Building the Revolutionary Party' to announce the formation of the NSLF. The NSLF's revolutionary ideology was based on the rejection of the conservative theory of mass action which Tommasi correctly believed was paralyzing the NS movement. For Tommasi, the mass action doctrine meant in reality that no serious anti-state actions were possible given the patent impossibility of creating a mass based National Socialist party in the U.S.

Tommasi gathered some 43 adherents to the foundational meeting of the NSLF in El Monte, California, on 2 March 1974. But this number is somewhat deceiving. Few of these young National Socialists were sufficiently suicidal to act on Tommasi's rhetoric. In the end, only 4 NSLF "members" undertook revolutionary action, Tommasi, Karl Hand, David Rust and James Mason (Mason had not officially joined the group, only receiving his membership card after Tommasi's assassination). As James Mason recalls:

Yes, the N.S.L.F. of Tommasi had four persons who carried out the illegal activities. The remainder, the majority, weren't that much different from the N.S.W.P.P. members except they were a lot more forward thinking.

The NSLF soldiered on at least in name for another decade. In that time however, Tommasi was murdered, Hand and Rust were incarcerated for acts of racially motivated violence and firearms charges, and James Mason found a new avatar in Charles Manson. But the NSLF's contribution to the leaderless resistance concept is incalculable. The NSLF was the first to act on the theory that, regardless of the dearth of public support, a blow could be struck against the hated state, provided that the determined revolutionary was prepared to act resolutely and alone. Tommasi was among the first to fully grasp the truth of the strategic situation--in the milieu of the radical right, no one is to be trusted, anyone could be (and probably is) an informer for the government or for one of the many watchdog organizations monitoring radical right wing activity, and short of divine intervention, public support would not be forthcoming no matter what tactical approach the movement was to adopt. Yet in this state of weakness, there is ultimate strength. With nothing left to lose, a man is totally free to act as he will. For while the state had proven over and over again that it could effortlessly penetrate any right wing organization, it had yet to develop the capability to thwart the will of one man acting alone!

This revelation would do the NSLF little good. The group actually died with Tommasi. [10] The actions of Hand and Rust were in reality pathetic outbursts of pointless violence which succeeded only in bringing them into the care of the state's prison system. But the example, once proffered, could not be erased. Although it had yet to be given a name, leaderless resistance was born.

At the same time, it is important to remember that the conservative majority of the far right did not approve of the unauthorized actions of leaderless resisters. Their well-grounded fear was of precisely the sort of pointless and undisciplined actions which landed the tiny NSLF combatant cadre in prison. Rather, between mass action's impotent dreams and leaderless resistance's antinomian reality, there was a third path which would become a model for the more extreme fringes of the present day militia movement. Borrowed from Leninist theory, the cell structure under a centralized command was the mark of the 1960s era Minutemen under the leadership of Robert Bolivar DePugh. R.N. Taylor recalls of these days:

The Minutemen never advocated leaderless resistance "per se." In fact where such did occur, where an individual or small group, did in fact take some action on their own, it was generally a cause for concern and created trouble for the National organization. We did our very best to maintain a certain discipline among the members.

Originally the structure of organization was in "bands" [that] pretty well conformed to the classic guerrilla band of from 6 to 12 people. Later for security reasons, we began to reorganize along the lines of "cells" of three people. When all the members, in a geographical proximity to one another had been made a part of a cell, then we instituted a dispersed cell system for members who lived at too great a distance from other members. Where three people from 500 or more miles apart would be members of a dispersed team. This was on the understanding that, if directed to do so, they would all meet at a given time and place. When they had fulfilled whatever function they were called upon to accomplish, they all would then return to their respective locations. Only one of the three would even know the identity of the other two members, and that party would be the only one directly in touch with the National Organization. This is like an underground or resistance war type of structure. In addition to these modes of organization, the national organization had what they termed the "Defense Survival Force." The DSF was a group of inner core members who had expertise and training in such skills as surreptitious entry, lock-picking, electronic eavesdropping and proficiency in weapons, tactics and all else that might apply to specialized para-military operations. The DSF to my knowledge never consisted of more than 50 members. This small sector were of course under control of the National Organization. There was nothing spontaneous or thrill of the moment about this inner corps' activities. So, from the very beginning the Minuteman Organization was always attempting to maintain leadership and some sense of discipline and restraint among its members.

The decade which followed Tommasi's death and the fall of the NSLF were, from the perspective of the far right, both eventful and deeply disheartening. Most notable, a true revolutionary movement, the "Silent Brotherhood," more popularly known as "the Order," under the leadership of Robert Mathews arose and after a brief but incandescent revolutionary career, was smashed by the state. It was not until the Order was nearing its inglorious end that many in the radical right were able to accept that the group could be anything other than a diabolically clever federal entrapment scheme. 11 Interview with R. N. Taylor, 11 June 1997. Even today, however, Taylor does not completely discount the utility of the leaderless resistance concept, given the unlikely possibility that the right person may emerge to carry on the fight: As for its (leaderless resistance's) effect on "demonstrating resistance-however doomed it might appear." This might be the case, and perhaps the only case in which something effective would be accomplished. It brings to mind the Catalan Nationalist, Francisco Sabata, who conducted a one-man guerrilla war against Franco's government, for decades. He became something of a mythic Robin Hood figure in Spain. I'm sure his activities and the publicity generated by them, helped to serve as a sort of torch or beacon. What made Sabata the legend he was? I'm sure it was based on his daring, his determination and flair. He wasn't a madman, he wasn't a pervert--he was an idealistic patriot and nationalist of the highest order. So, if someone like that were to conduct some one man war, it might well capture the popular imagination. But nothing less than that.

Two excerpts from weblog entry 'More Boring Spiritual Stuff' by Winston Smith (1996):

I was very fortunate in that I was able first to become involved in a structured organization rather than the present---jeez, what can I call it? Let's be charitable and say the Movement is now in a kind of "stream of consciousness" mode. At any rate, when I first came in I was assigned a bunk, a uniform, a weapon from the El Monte HQ armory, and a list of daily responsibilities ranging from literature distribution quotas to when it was my day to wash dishes and clean the toilets. My first commanding officer in the NSWPP, the late Captain Joseph Tommasi, was an instinctive leader. He kept us busy and while aware of the fact that he was handling young men in a state of high morale and adventurous spirit, he tolerated no BS. He put it to me like this on one occasion: "The Party doesn't accommodate you, trooper. YOU accommodate the PARTY."

The best people we have ever had were those who SERVED our cause, not used it, and served it with their whole hearts and minds and wills, served it unselfishly, with no thought of reward or gain in their mind. Commander Rockwell, Joe Tommasi, Bob Miles, Bob Mathews, and a whole slew of others still alive whom I will not embarrass by naming--because they WOULD be embarrassed to be praised for doing what is to them their simple, quiet duty. They have that grace. And by the by---men and women like that are far, far more common in our ranks than the wretched boy and our other detractors would have you believe. Not common enough--but there is always enough of the good to keep us alive and fighting in the face of all the bad.

Excerpt from the article 'A Brief History of Post-Rockwell National Socialism' by John Steele:

"On March 2nd, 1974, forty three National Socialist Revolutionaries met in a hall in El Monte, California. At the meeting, the National Socialists declared their lack of faith in the losing strategy of the mass movement idea. The National Socialists abandoned the mass strategy and adopted the revolutionary concept of the guerilla underground." So began the manifesto of the National Socialist Liberation Front, without a doubt the most militant of all post Rockwell National Socialist organizations. To this day, many (if not most) of the underground 'strikes' committed by this small but brave band of Comrades remain unknown or are only vaguely suspected. Strong evidence does suggest that activists involved in the N.S.L.F. were responsible for tear gassing a memorial rally for Julius and Ethyl Rosenberg (Jewish spies executed for selling U.S. atomic secrets to the Soviet Union) as well as the torching of at least one communist bookstore. Sadly, the courageous life of Joseph Tommasi came to an end on August 15, 1975 at just 24 years of age. Fingers were pointed on both sides, but the story essentially is that Tommasi and another comrade were driving past the then N.S.W.P.P. building when one of the on duty guards flipped a middle finger at him. Tommasi then stopped the car and confronted the on duty trooper. After a brief scuffle, another guard on duty drew a gun and fired one shot into Tommasi's head, killing him then and there on the porch of the N.S.W.P.P.'s headquarters. (It is unclear whether or not Tommasi was himself armed at the time.)

Two excerpts from the article '100 Years of Madness':

The 1970s were a decade of political corruption. Nixon and Watergate is the primary example, but this was worldwide reality, and people started to view all politicians as lying swindlers--none too soon, we might add. Things in the economic sector were no better: by 1977 the top 10% of the populace had an income thirty times that of the bottom 10%; the top 1% owned 33% of the wealth; and the richest 5% possessed 83% of personally owned corporate stock. Unemployment rose, and people were disgusted, which caused many to become demoralized and apathetic, feeling like nothing could be done, and limiting their political participation to voting for the lesser evil. None of this should surprise anyone, since honest and honorable leadership has a positive effect on the majority of the populace, while poor leadership is guaranteed to produce the opposite result. Of course not everyone sat on their hands. In National Socialist circles a man named Joe Tommasi realized that you can't beat the system at its own game. He began to discuss the armed struggle, and the need to conduct political operations in the same manner as the IRA/Sinn Fein (both legal and covert). Tommasi put his money where his mouth was, and lived for about a year after choosing this path. During that time he had more than one or two of our enemies scared out of their skins, which just goes to show what a few dedicated individuals can accomplish (making one wonder what a few hundred serious-minded men and women might be able to achieve). Tommasi also terrified another group: self-proclaimed white leaders. It's a fact that Hitler came to power legally. Unfortunately, this is often used as "proof" that the same thing can be done here. Vote, write your congressman, buy books, send cash, etc. People who play this nowhere game see a man like Tommasi as a dangerous boat-rocker. They've had 25 years since Tommasi's death to show us that their way works---and they haven't managed to take a single step forward. It would be false to claim that Joe Tommasi has had the same amount of influence as Lincoln Rockwell, but it would be absolutely correct to say that National Socialism won't be going anywhere in this country until he does.

On a positive note the '80s saw a significant rise in racial awareness. The seeds planted by men like Rockwell and Tommasi had started growing. This was best seen in the widespread skinhead movement.

ONLY FAILURE IS IMMORAL...

"I am a political soldier. I mean to win. I do not hesitate to admit that I would do anything, absolutely anything, to insure the survival and happiness of our White, Western people.

The survival of Western Civilization is at stake. There is no "moral" and "immoral". The only immoral thing is to permit an enemy to destroy one's people, either by decay or by physical annihilation.

Gentle doctrines mean nothing but oblivion in the filth, stench, and horror of the battlefield. If the enemy gouges eyes, I will gouge eyes and kick to the groin.

Perhaps I will go to Hell for doing what must be done. But if I can look up and see White boys and girls once again playing in a decent, safe, and wholesome America, then bring on the Devil with his worst."

George Lincoln Rockwell

HAPPINESS IS A WARM GUN

After careful consideration of many factors and actual field tests the NSLF Central Command has issued new directives for all underground and other armed formations including above board Shock Troop Defense Groups.

The choice of weapons will update the 1975 General Armament Policy as ordered by General Commander Tommasi. The overriding factors involved in the choice of weapons are ballistics, availability, cost and the fluxing of revolutionary goals for the 80's. In 1975, the order of the day was strike and run. Today we must prepare for the great days of struggle ahead, and that the future may see a chaotic and anarchistic situation that will mean survival of the fittest. The future of the armed struggle that the NSLF is gearing toward is not one of plinking a few niggers on a Saturday night, but of leading our people to survival in the hellish nightmare world to come. Our weapons will become for us the only TOOLS that will allow us to live through it. Any illusions about "overthrowing the Government" or "wasting all the niggers" can be thrown right out the window. Revolutionaries must realize that events in this age of global politics are so far out of our hands that we are powerless to control them. We could be well on the way to conventional "military" victory when H-bombs could come raining down. The future indeed does belong to those who are willing to get their hands dirty, The future will not be a question of who won or lost, but who SURVIVED?.

Effective January 1 the basic armory of all NSLF fighters will consist of:

- 1 .45 Automatic Pistol- Colt manufacture preferably. 5 clips and 500 rounds of ammunition. Weapons of other than Colt manufacture will be receptive of US military clips.
- 1 .223 (5.56mm) Semi-Automatic rifle receptive to military M-16 clips. 2000 rounds of ammunition and 5 clips (30 or 40 round)
- 1 12 gauge autoloading or pump shotgun and 500 rounds of ammunition
- 1 .357 caliber handgun preferably with a 4" or shorter barrel and 250 rounds of ammunition.

The basic change of weapons from 1975 regulation is that of the .223 assault rifle replacing the .308 NATO. The main reasoning is that the available .308 ammo in the hands of US military units is virtually becoming a rarity and although .308 is vastly superior ballistically, supply problems dictate that the .223 be used.

In addition, a good option would be to have on hand would be a small light weight concealable handgun with good power. This should be no smaller than a nine millimeter. The .44 cal. special is an excellent choice as is a small .357 that has a 2 or 3" barrel, this can be the same as the regulation revolver listed above.

P.O. Box 241

El Monte, Ca. 91734

Fellow National Socialist Revolutionaries;

Inclosed you will find a copy of SEIGE . Along with it you will find a notice concerning the grand opening of our new National Socialist Liberation Front Bookshop. It's the best facility of it's kind in California.

In the short period of our existance we have achieved more and have been able to keep up with our time table better than any other organization of our kind.

With hardly any funds to work with we were able to obtain the most modern National Socialist bookshop in the country. We have already appeared on one television show and plans are in the works for a second. Our appearance has produced expressions of needed support.

Our propoganda, geared for the most revolutionary, has allowed N.S.L.F. to be felt throughout the entire Movement. The reaction has caused many Comrades to abandon the Mass Strategy of the NSWPP. They, in turn, have found themselves identifying with the N.S.L.F. Strategy of the guerrilla underground. The N.S.L.F. has taken the ultimate step in relation to the National Socialist Movement; WE'RE BUILDING THE ARMED STRUGGLE and view it as our only hope against the State!

A very strange "strategy" is occurring throughout the National Socialist White People's Party, a strategy which has amazed us all!

The Party is treating many of it's supporters like dirt!!! In the El Monte Unit, during the past week, nine long-time Party Supporters and Members tried to unify the local unit by holding a meeting at the El Monte Headquarters. When the Commander herd of the meeting he spent approximately $500.00 of Party Supporters money to fly Clifford Ward out to Los Angeles. Ward barged into the meeting and began an insane name-calling, smear attack against all who where present. He refused to answer any questions as to why people were being treated like animals. It became obvious to all present that absolutely nothing would or could be accomplished. All present lost faith in the Commander, the Party's ability to effect change and in the strategy. The Party's lack of sensitivity expressed by the tactic "Thin the Ranks and BUILD the Party", is now destroying the Party, at least in Los Angeles.

So, now the basic question before us all is this; Since the Party refuses to let anyone help them and since they have adopted a strategy of treating their members and supporters like dogs, will N.S.L.F. be in a position to pick up the pieces and at the same time be able to continue it's present activities and requirments.

Many who will leave the Party will NOT join the N.S.L.F. simply because of their bourgeois, right-wing reactionary mentality, even though they were affiliated with the Party, a supposedly "Revolutionary" organization. But still, al in all , there are those who will indeed leave the Party who will be of great benefit to N.S.L.F. as they posses a great deal of talent and are basicly, good, sound National Socialist Revolutionaries.

But in the end it will be our job to show these people that we have something worth joining. Something tangible with a good foundation.

We have a program every true, hard core National Socialist Revolutionary can identify with. N.S.L.F. is saying what many have always felt in their hearts and have longed to hear for so long. "NOW IS THE TIME TO BUILD AN ORGANIZATION WHO WILL TAKE UP ARMS IN A NATIONAL SOCIALIST ASSULT AGAINST THE ENEMIES OF THE RACE. BUILD THE ARMED STRUGGLE!" Now is the time for all of us to act! We must build wherever and when ever the need or opportunity arises.

We need to install our telephone message service, "THE RADICAL HOT LINE" A certain amount of office equipment and machinery is still needed. In addition to this we must launch an advertising campaign to establish the bookstore in the radical community, which will, in turn, bring in more support and new potential members. We must continue to build a wide base of support; a group of supporters whose only part is to financially back the organization while not actually being tied to it.

There are National Socialist Revolutionaries out there and we are going to get them into N.S.L.F. by out performing everyone else!

But to do this we need your support. You must help us if we are to succeed in our task. We can't do it alone. We must show people we have something that they'd be proud to be a part of.

The National Socialist Liberation Front exists. We are a very real organization. PLEASE HELP US ACCOMPLISH OUR GOALS AND SECURE OUR NEEDS.

Any contribution you may care to send will be greatly appreciated no matter what the amount. But remember, the more you contribute the more we can do. Now is the time to act, do your part. Lets get those people into NSLF and let build an even greater N.S.L.F. an organization which is sure to bring the bastards down! ACT NOW, send your contribution TODAY!!!

In Solidarity,
HEIL HITLER!

it's a nasty affair

In September of 1973 a major shake up within the National Socialist White Peoples' Party was experiencing birth. Within weeks after the Fifth Party Congress, which was held in Cleveland, the NSWPP would lose the editor of it's monthly paper, Harold Covington. The entire Cleveland Unit of the Party would and did split from the NSWPP. Ray Wilson, the leader of the San Diego Unit who was considered one of the best organizers the Party had, submitted his resignation and abandoned the Mass Strategy.

The Party was at it's height of professionalism toward September. It had made international publicity because of it's intensified attacks against the system. Most notably was the seige against the El Monte Headquarters of the NSWPP on March 4, 1973. Under the leadership of Capt. Joseph Tommasi 53 uniformed Stormtroop personnel repeatedly attacked a mob of 400 persons who had come to El Monte to witness the JDL's attempt to oust the National Socialists from El Monte. Instead the 50 troopers launched 7 separate attacks against the mob which resulted in the police having to intervene. No Party personnel were arrested. Seventeen civilians were arrested with eight having to go to the hospital. Nine Stormtroopers received injuries to some degree. For the first time in NSWPP History we attacked the opposition. We were on the offense. Not only did we attack the mob but the police arrested members of the opposition and allowed the ST personnel to go free. This incident made its way into every major newspaper in the country, except the Party paper WHITE POWER!

When the Los Angeles unit of the NSWPP, under the leadership of Capt. Joseph Tommasi, exposed the fact that it had received $1,200.00 of a promised $5,000.00 from campaign workers for the Nixon effort in 1972 the story made international publicity on every major newspaper including the London Times, the Washington Post, which ran two front page editions of the story. All the European papers carried the story, most on their front pages. The NSWPP paper, WHITE POWER, refused to even mention this event, the only event the Party ever executed which was felt by the WHITE HOUSE. Reports have it that Nixon being tied in with the National Socialists was of utmost concern to Nixon friends and enemies alike. But there was no mention of this attack on the System by the only propaganda organ of the Party, WHITE POWER.

Then on July 1, 1973, the Los Angeles Unit of the Party, once again under the leadership of Joseph Tommasi, launched the largest single demonstration for a local Unit of the Party in Party History. Sixty-seven uniformed and non-uniformed Stormtroopers voiced Revolutionary opposition to the inauguration to Thomas Bradley's electoral victory as mayor of Los Angeles. This time the Party paper had a small article on it's back page and a brief paragraph in its internal "NS BULLETIN", while, again, every major newspaper in America and at least two major papers in Australia had mention of the unprecedented event on the front pages of their periodicals.

When the Party started failing to mention the progressive and revolutionary acts against the system that members of the El Monte Unit of the Party were engaged in it became apparent that some form of fear or paranoia was present within the top echelons of the NSWPP. We were doing the most of any Unit of the Party and receiving the least acknowledgement. Something was up!

DOOMSDAY

And then it happened! While Capt. Tommasi was half way across the country a police raid was launched against the El Monte Headquarters. All personnel in the headquarters were arrested and all mailing lists and documents were seized. In addition to this every gun and round of ammunition was confiscated.

When this occurred it was ordered by the top leadership of the Party that absolutely NO mention of the raid was to reach Capt. Tommasi, who at that time had reached Cleveland for the Fifth Party Congress. While Capt. Tommasi was in Cleveland, Commander Matt Koehl traveled by air to California and placed a totally incompetent individual in charge of the El Monte Headquarters. (A few months earlier Capt. Tommasi had signed the deed to the Headquarters property over to the Commander at the request of the Commander.) Commander Koehl had been told a number of absurd and totally false lies about Capt. Tommasi and consequently found it convenient to use those lies as excuses to oust Capt. Tommasi.

When at the Fifth Party Congress Capt. Tommasi demanded to be court-martialed, the Captain was told by the Commander that no matter what the decision the Captain would no longer be allowed to run the El Monte Headquarters, the headquarters and UNIT he alone started and built into the largest and most Revolutionary operation in the entire Country. With this in mind Capt. Tommasi still demanded a court-martial. The court-martial was held in Cleveland the night before the Congress was to open and at the proceedings which amounted to no more than an insane kangaroo court Capt. Tommasi learned who the scoundrels were who betrayed him and lied. The beginning of the end was at hand, at least for the Southern California Section of the Party.

During the past year that those who were responsible for Capt. Tommasi's dismissal have had their way, the LA Unit of the Party lost or kicked out over 45 dedicated and valuable Party comrades. Valuable financial contacts were lost. A dictator was placed in command whose only thought was to rule with an iron hand and conjure up excuses to kick even more people out of the Party. They lost most of the office equipment as it belonged to the Captain. The demonstration dwindled down to 10 or 15. No longer would Los Angeles see 50-75 uniformed Stormtroopers. The meetings became stupid farces with requests for vitamins and toilet paper as topics for discussion. The idiot reactionaries had their way and even most of them abandoned ship, such as Harlen Stevens and David Martin Kerr along with others

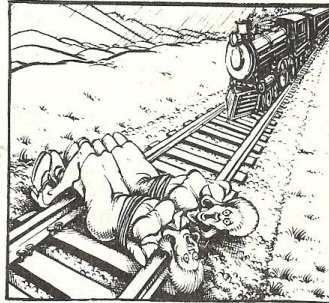

That which is left are individuals who are new comers. These few who were never affiliated before. Numbering now close to only 20, the unit in L.A. has no leadership to speak of. Allen Vincent who had to replace Clifford Ward as L.A. leader because of the numerous complaints about Ward's tyrannical posture, leads the Unit two out of five consecutive weeks. The Unit under Ward was in financial chaos and isn't much better now.

The National Socialist White People's Party can no longer claim to be the "VANGUARD" of White Revolution. They have "blown" numerous vital issues recently such as the oil crises which contrary to Party speculation WAS only a short term hard-hitting issue. In addition, the Arab-Israeli war situation along with the bussing issue was never exploited. And for a Party which claims to have a mass strategy such issues are a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity which the NSWPP has missed each time they presented themselves. The NSWPP is a "Mass Movement Party without the Mass!" It also doesn't have any leaders anymore outside of the Commander. In Los Angeles they had a lot of thunder but a very short reign!

should forget

Clifford Ward, the dictator who was placed in the El Monte headquarters as Unit leader, exercised such a total lack of sensitivity, leadership, and proper judgment that he alienated or blatantly kicked out of the Unit over 40 long time, dedicated Party Comrades. Injustice was a daily routine. The lack of fairness and human sensitivity compounded the hardship of realizing the futility of attempting to seize the government. Coupled with having to tolerate the injustice of Capt. Tommasi's expulsion and the injustices which became apparent every day, such as threats of expulsion if one was seen talking with Tommasi or associates of Tommasi, forced many comrades to abandon the Mass Strategy of the NSWPP.

Even when the Party was at its heights of professionalism and activity many realized how difficult it would be to seize power in the United States and now it was an obvious impossibility. Many realized that our biggest enemies were our own people. To think that the masses of Whites would someday awaken from their slumber and decide to fight the system that had bestowed upon them bussing, economic exploitation, a no-win war, and the oil crises was indeed too much of a dream to fool ourselves with anymore.

The fact is, that the White people in America not only will not revolt against the injustices heaped upon them by a System with alien values but instead gratefully thank that system for easing up and occasionally stopping the beating they are receiving. The oil crisis was an example. When the crisis unveiled, the people, instead of rebelling against the Foreign Policy, which is what a healthy people would have done, instead scurried off to long gas lines, to pay top dollar prices to the capitalists. And when the sky-rocketing prices finally stabilized at the insane rip-off levels they're at presently the people's reaction was, not anger, but instead, a sense of "at ease" with the situation. The whole thing could be compared to a man in a "back room" being beaten with a rubber hose. When the assailant stops, the victim says, "Thank You". The masses were pleased and satisfied when the gas situation appeared to stabilize when in reality it hasn't. Movement people with their pea brain day dreaming would have once again, "PREDICTED" a social uprising! An uprising which never occurred.

Most of us who were alienated by the oppressive actions and unrealistic outlook and tactics of the Party were forced to look reality square in the face. What we saw forced us out of our fantasies and dreams and into a totally new and realistic outlook on Revolution in America.

Strategy for Revolution

On March 2, 1974, nearly one year after the March 4, event, 43 National Socialist Revolutionaries met in a hall in El Monte. At the meeting the National Socialists declared their lack of faith in the losing strategy of the mass movement idea. The National Socialists abandoned the mass strategy and adopted the revolutionary concept of the guerrilla underground.

1. No longer would we think in terms of obtaining political power; but instead, of hurting the enemy through force and violence. We would build the armed struggle.
2. We would no longer adhere to a mass strategy but would instead cultivate those already committed to the National Socialist World View. We have limited ourselves to only the best among movement people.
3. We have abandoned petty bourgeois, bureaucratic hang-ups and have developed the idea that the end justifies the means. What works is good!
4. We recognize that women have played a vanguard role in most revolutionary efforts and involve them in every aspect of NSLF.
5. We view armed struggle as the only effective means of forcing political change. We also recognize the fact that the masses of whites will never rally around radical politics. White people no longer have the ability to even recognize their enemy, so how could movements adherents think the masses could ever involve themselves in revolution. The white masses don't recognize their enemies, they don't even care, and they don't have the guts to shed their bourgeois hang-ups.

The white man has lost! We are an occupied people, in our own land, who must now develop a totally different outlook on revolution.

We must build the underground. We are making it an effective hard-hitting National Socialist Revolutionary Army.

We have already begun to launch armed assaults against the enemy. More assaults will continue, whether the enemy be the right-wing reactionaries, the system, or the communists.

Headquartered at three separate locations in the Southern California area it is already planning its winter offensive which includes the opening of a National Socialist Liberation Front Bookshop. The installation of a radical hot line telephone message service will be a part of the propaganda organ of NSLF along with SEIGE. Late summer and winter classes in National Socialist Ideological, Political Training will begin in August. Additional training in guerrilla warfare, explosives and demolition, military assault weapons, and gas warfare, along with electronic communications and electronic surveillance techniques are taking place. Classes in first aid, police evasion, techniques of being a P.O.W. and escape are also taking place.

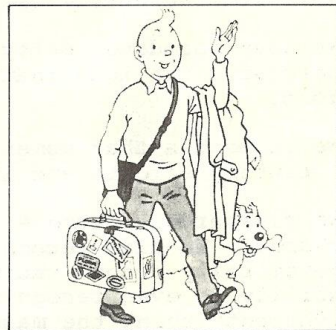

The NSLF is divided into combat units. A combat unit consists of three liberation fighters and a unit leader. No one combat unit knows who constitutes another combat unit. A NSLF combat unit member is trained as an efficient guerrilla fighter dedicated to destroying the enemy, no matter who that enemy may be. On the surface he has no uniform, he could be the bearded long-hair sitting next to you on the bus or the clean-cut store clerk. He could be anyone anywhere. Two separate combat units already infiltrated three separate Marxist organizations in Los Angeles. Their mission is to gather information on activists and leaders in the Socialist Workers Party, Young Socialist Alliance, The Southern California Communist Party USA and YWLL. In addition a surface investigation is taking place on the efforts of the NAACP in the San Fernando Valley.

The NSLF has the best elements gathered together from the past 5 years of National Socialist Activity in the Southern California Area. It has gathered experienced communications experts, military firemans experts, along with the finest liberation fighters available. Each member understands the new concept, the new strategy and tactics needed in order to effect political change. No longer willing to play the games of movement bureaucracies or associating with bald-headed idiots who have no concept of realities, the NSLF will undoubtedly emerge the vanguard fighters in the Nationalist Socialist Movement!

TAKE REFUGE

On June 29, 1974, Joseph Tommasi, Leader of the National Socialist Liberation Front taped a 30 minute interview on Cable TV's Chanel 3. The program, PROFILE, hosted by Jack Fisher was the first publicity of any kind that N.S.L.F. has recieved in it's short period of existence. Although the interview was "general" in tone and briefly covered the split away from the "MASS STRATEGY" of the NSWPP it did produce some results as close to 69 inquiries have been recieved from interested persons.

A delay in the publications produced by the NSWPP has resulted in the April bulletin reaching its subscribers in July. The cause of this is believed to be a significant decline in staff personnel at National Headquarters. Richard Biederman, former National organizer, and an important member of the NSWPP national headquarters staff at Arlington, Virginia, recently up and left the organization to join the Rhodesian army in Africa. This in itself amplified the difficulties resulting from the lack of sufficient manpower. In addition to this there were one or two times staff payrolls were not met due to money problems. It is believed that these problems are caused by the many people who are victims of the NSWPP's New Stand, "thin the ranks and build the party," which in itself is an absurd contradiction to any mass strategy, besides being organizationally suicidal and self-deating. Any organization can not grow by practicing a blind foolish policy of dismissing large segments of its following, most of whom are its best people.

The US army transport truck which used to be with the El Monte unit of the NSWPP, under the command of Joseph Tommasi, is now owned and used by the national headquarters of the National Socialist Liberation Front. It will serve both as a valuable propaganda medium besides serving as transportation for liberation fighters on street demonstations.

Because of the revolutionary, anti-bureaucratic stand the NSLF has taken towards the building of the National Socialist struggle, former and present NSWPP associates in Cleveland, Ohio, and Kentucky have joined forces with NSLF. Although they have not yet reached the size to warrant being described as a "unit" both states do have the potential for establishing themselves as significant political forces in their area.

NSLF literature distributions in front of the headquarters of the NSWPP in El Monte have produced a very limited response so far. Inquiries from this effort number only 13. It is believed that this small reaction is caused because of the greatly reduced numbers of people who now attend the El Monte NSWPP meetings. Whereas prior to Sept. 1973 the average attendance at a meeting was between 35-75, now only 10-25 are present each Saturday night.

THE MOST REVOLUTIONARY BOOKSTORE IN CALIFORNIA

Grand Opening

Negotiations are now complete on the aquisition of an open NSLF facility. On Sat. July 27 the deal was concluded on the commercial offices and bookstore structure. The building contains 3 offices, 1 class room, 2 bathrooms, and a book store facility, all of which is wood panelled, and a kitchen. The NSLF now has the most professional and modern radical political structure in California. In the short few months of our existence we have come further, accomplished more than other similar organizations. The new NSLF Bookstore is open from 10:00 AM to 12 Midnite, 7 days a week. The Bookstore is located at 11101 Garvey, El Monte, California.

YEAR OF THE SCAVENGER; SEASON OF THE BITCH

NSLF is now in its eighth month of existence. For such a young organization we have come far along the road to establishing ourselves in the Movement. We have accomplished much and have internally developed a tangible National Socialist Underground Guerilla Organization. Many people in the NSWPP have abandoned the mass strategists and involved themselves in the NSLF resistance. Movement people are in increasing numbers beginning to realize that only an ARMED STRUGGLE based on White racial interests can free them from the present exploitation and oppression they are now suffering. The system understands only one thing: force and violence. We must wage a violent war against our racial enemies. The days of endless verbal complaining are over. We are building the armed struggle! The mass movement advocates are continuing to adhere to their position in the sand. Unwilling to accept a realistic strategy, they continue to "blow" opportunities.

Boston is an example. The National Socialist White People's Party put on their uniforms, got in their school bus and blew into town. The only problem is that the cops along with the rest of the country knew it and they never got across the state line. When, eventually, they managed to sneak across they proceeded to get arrested for going the wrong way on a one way street and again later for refusing to leave a Federal Building. They did not organize the white resistance. They did not destroy the material goods of the state which would be used against them such as school busses, schools, police cars, jails, court-rooms and the homes of anti-White judges. None of the whites were organized to any degree by Movement elements, including the NSWPP and NSLF. After sixteen years the NSWPP still cannot organize even a small "White Riot", not to mention a small mass movement demonstration. This failure can be attributed to their tactics which stem from their strategy. Like the British during the Revolutionary War, the Party likes to wear their pretty "red coats" which makes them nice targets, always managing to be neutralized by unnecessary arrests and foolish publicity stunts. NSLF has failed in the Boston Battle because it is so new the necessary resources have not yet been accumulated. We are only eight months old. The NSWPP has had the benefit of SIXTEEN YEARS of political experience but have obviously learned nothing. They claim to be the solution to our racial problems but can't deliver the goods when the need arises. NSLF can't deliver the goods yet because we aren't in a materiel position to do so. But the NSLF doesn't claim to be in an organizational position to deliver the goods like the NSWPP says it is. We, the NSLF, will be in the position within two years.

When NSLF has reached a point where we can travel across the country to engage the enemy in a nationwide battle we will not use worthless tactics but will instead implement a guerilla strategy where we will, in plain clothes, organize the white people into a revolutionary cadre aimed at destroying the enemies' attack. We will literally throw the bastards out by mob violence. We'll have a WHITE RIOT! We will build a revolutionary awareness among the whites, especially the youth. With such opportunities we can then establish NSLF in these areas and continue building the underground and intensify the resistance. The blacks will be too afraid to "cross the tracks" for fear of getting shot (and so will the government prostitutes).

'...fan the flames'

At the present time there are no Movement elements in a position to do anything. The Movement is splintered into many factions. Many of these efforts are no more than pipe dreams but still they drain off and eventually neutralize much needed energy and resources. Only when the "dreams" disappear, as they surely will, and only the strongest organizations survive and establish themselves will a true effort of unity and practical tactics and politics have a chance to occur. If such a unification ever happened, the potential for a successful overthrow of the present government would most certainly exist. There is no chance for such an attempt now.

All of us must "eat crow" at one time or another. Organizationally such "dinners" can bruise many egos but the end result will be a stronger Movement. NSLF has no qualms about eventually unifying our efforts with the NSWPP but such an event could only take place if both parties could reach an understanding about where the Movement is politically and start acting in a realistic manner. If the NSWPP's first efforts were directed toward making past associates crawl and beg for dinner, by demanding stupid and oppressive behaviour; well, we don't think much can be accomplished. But if we both could implement combined efforts in a realistic approach, the end result would be a massive assault against the system and the unity of all National Socialist Revolutionaries under the Party of Adolf Hitler and Lincoln Rockwell. We would have a massive Party with talented, EFFECTIVE LEADERSHIP, attacking the system on all fronts for long periods of time. We would be felt in political circles and could exert our influence. Our enemies would be afraid of us and our friends could openly fight with us. WE WOULD BE AN EFFECTIVE POLITICAL PARTY!

NSLF is accused by the Party of being scavengers, and we are. But we're scavengers picking up the most militant pieces of a wrecked, fractured, and ineffective Movement: ruined by the NSWPP's unrealistic behaviour.

Sure we're scavengers, but we can't BITCH!

DO YOU SOMETIMES FEEL LIKE A MOTHERLESS CHILD.

NOTICE!!!

New Mexico Combat Unit 14 is dissolved and no longer exists because of a known FBI informer. All projects are to cease! The informer is Steve Atcheston. Reorganization will occur after the lapse of a period of six months. Combat Unit 14 coordinators are ordered to destroy all records and disband immediately!

...LOST IN THE DESERT?

MOVEMENT NOTES

1. Los Angeles

The local unit of the NSWPP appears to be undergoing a period of slow death as money, resources, and manpower have virtually disappeared and brought all activities to a nearly complete halt. What activities that have occurred have been few and far between besides having absolutely no effect on any enemy elements. Even weekend newspaper sales have been stopped due to a manpower shortage. The meetings have dwindled to five or ten people and consequently any public demonstrations are not forseen. This problem is the result of insufficient and unproductive leadership. The local leader, Dan Stewart, doesn't have any leadership ability and must share the responsibility with an equally incompetent person, David Kerr.

2. San Francisco

Rumors have it that since Clifford Ward's recent visit to Los Angeles, a rift has developed between Allen Vincent and NSWPP National HQ in Arlington. (Vincent was removed from leadership at the L.A.H.Q. for trying to hold a meeting to help unify the local unit with other NS who had left the Party in L. A. under Cliff Ward's tyrannical leadership) Word has it that SFNSWPP has broken off all communication with the National HQ in Arlington, Virginia, stating that none of their letters to Arlington ever got answered since the attempt to organize the unity meeting. One SF Party supporter exclaimed "and we're not going to answer any of their correspondence!" NSWPP-SF appears to be preparing for a very probable split.

3. San Diego

NSWPP efforts in San Diego have virtually ceased since Ray Wilson resigned from the mass strategy. Now led by Frank Knight, the NSWPP in SD consists of less than four people. Under Ray Wilson's leadership, SD delegations to statewide demonstrations usually consisted of from eleven to twenty persons.

4. Boston, Massachussetts

Attempts to organize the people in racially torn Boston by both the KKK and the NSWPP have failed...of the two groups the people rejected the NSWPP and accepted the KKK to a greater degree. But all in all the efforts of both groups will be of no significance in the end. The youth in Boston appears to be the vanguard of resistance.

5. Arlington, Virginia

Rumor has it that "Joe Davis" (the man the NSWPP claims to have given $8,888.88, a very unusual sum) doesn't really exist. Many view the whole story as a poorly executed appeal for funds and a lie too!

6. Detroit, Michigan

A racial awareness among the Whites, especially women, has caused great concern among politicians who fear White block voting. Movement people don't expect much though simply because of the ineffective and absurd leadership of John Krenzer, local NSWPP unit organizer who has developed the attitude: "Well, we got our six people. We don't want no more."

7. St. Louis, Missouri

For the first time in five years, the NSWPP had to cancel its annual Party Congress. Most of the arrangements for the Congress were being executed by the St. Louis Unit Leader, Dennis Nix. The St. Louis unit had obtained a pretty nice looking headquarters and bookstore and most of the necessary arrangements were being processed. But Commander Koehl visited the area prior to the upcoming Congress and significant disagreements evolved between the Commander and the St. Louis unit. (Exact details are not known but it is believed that Commander Koehl demanded all the Party resources be put into the Commander's name because he intended to execute a purge of the top St. Louis leadership) The end result of these disagreements was that the St. Louis Unit split off from the Party and took with it ALL the resources and facilities for the 6th NSWPP and WUNS Congress for 1974. At this time there are no activities of any kind in St. Louis. It is rumored that Mr. Nix is making arrangements to work with Dr. William Pierce of the National Alliance in Washington, D.C.

COMMENTARY

".....All vows are just words. People keep vows only so long as their happiness or what they believe to be their happiness depends on keeping the vows. All men are cowards--only the breaking points are different."
G. L. Rockwell, THIS TIME THE WORLD, Page 340.

NSLF intends to bring out every piece of information about Party activities it can find. As past associates of the Party we realize the great potential of the NSWPP but also recognize that as long as the Commander is surrounded by incompetent, foolish tyrants such as Clifford Ward, Joseph Bishop, and James Clendennen (ad nauseum), the Party will NEVER be an effective political party in the USA. We EXPOSE the corruption and deceit within the Party not to do harm but to force the Party to correct the situation, for only by putting pressure on the powers that be can change occur within the Party.

Some facts to consider

BIG BROTHER AND THE HOLDING COMPANY or POLICE STATE, USA

Unlike the reactionaries and "other" so-called "National Socialist revolutionaries", NSLF recognizes the fact that although some police may be sympathetic to certain opinions National Socialists may have, we recognize the police are the army of the system. The police enforce the system's laws and will NEVER allow us to wage war against the blacks and the Jews.

We DO NOT wish for "Law and Order", for law and order means the continued existence of this rotten rip-off Capitalist Jew System. We wish for anarchy and chaos which will enable us to ATTACK the system while her Big Brother Pigs are trying to keep the pieces from falling apart. We wish for a situation so confused and mixed-up that we can go after those bastards responsible for the anti-White policies and attacks against our people which now exist. Such chaos would allow us to so intensify our assaults that we could very well plunge the entire system to its death. For us to support those (the police) who maintain the "rules the wise men make for the fools" is absurd and suicidal.

In addition to this awareness, NSLF recognizes the situation in America has rapidly changed. WE ARE A POLICE STATE. Since the end of the Viet-Nam War, all research and money has gone into the development of a super-Nationwide Police Network, a "Big Brother" situation (New Orleans already has closed circuit television cameras on its city streets).

The FBI and all cops have only one purpose: to maintain the existing order! For any of "our" people to support this situation is completely suicidal and contrary to National Socialist Revolutionary interests.

All kinds of political literature and publications are needed for research at the NSLF National Headquarters (to include Communist, Left-Wing, Right-Wing, and especially National Socialist White People's Party publications). Please send these literature contributions to NSLF National HQ, Post Office Box 241, El Monte, California 91734.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

A few people are confusing the National Socialist Liberation Front with a small group of homosexuals who call their organization the National Socialist League. NSLF is in NO WAY connected with the National Socialist League (NSL). NSLF does not allow queers in its ranks or formations. While not being interested in a persons personal life, NSLF views homosexuality as an alien extension of an expanding degenerate democratic society.

Real Battle Ahead

PIECE NOW ! , NSLF ARMAMENTS AND EQUIPMENT

The NSLF is a political, revolutionary army. The organization revolves around a militant strategy of ARMED GUERILLA STRUGGLE against the Jewish power structure. Consequently the underground leadership has determined that those who will participate in the "armed struggle" will be organized and ARMED in a uniform manner. We are a disciplined ARMY whose aim is the total destruction of the anti-White system and the creation of a National Socialist State! Therefore, all members of the "Central Organization" will acquire the following equipment. Suggestions for modification will be considered but as it stands now, the following equipment is required and must be obtained by all present "Central Organization" members by March 1975. Any C.O. member who has not completed these requirements or who does not have a valid excuse for failure to comply will be removed to the General Membership roster.

Dear Comrade,

SEIGE was real interesting and informative.

There were many reasons for my resignation from the National Socialist White People's Party. The foremost three where;

- 1.) A total lack of real Revolutionary dedication on the part of most of the supporters all the while they expect the leader to put his head on the chopping block and then criticize him for not performing miracles!
- 2.) I can't help but feel that the Party is so far behind in it's goal of attaining "power" that any further time spent is a waste! The Gay Liberationists have more of an organization and are closer to their goals than we are! The Party trying to take power in the United States is like a fly trying to rape an elephant!
- 3.) While in the Party it was impossible to provide for the security of my family. I couldn't even have the security of knowing that in case of a legal bust I would have a Party supplied lawyer. The Party dosen't have any lawyers and can't provide legal help to it's members.

In closing let me state that both Gerald Smith and myself look back upon our association with you in the Party with good feelings and we both think the NSWPP handled your case unjustly.

Dear Mr. Tommasi,

I have recieved your literature and wish to let you know that I whole heartedly agree with the aims and aspirations of NSLF. I found the copy of SEIGE very enlightening and vital. My wife and I relocated to National headquarters recently. We found everything very disorganized and chaotic. We couldn't stand the deplorable situation and resigned from the Party. We now plan on joining NSLF. HEIL HITLER!, Mr. Phillip McDaniel, Columbus, Oh.

Dear Comrade,

We got SEIGE today. It really sounds good. There are a few things you should know.

We now live in Alexandria, Virginia and work at National Headquarters in Arlington sometimes. The people out here are really NUTS! They believe that when the economic collapse occurs the masses of whites will rush to the Party for leaders and guidance.

They tell everyone that we're in a time of peace: a time to build up the elite. These asses want to be the leaders, but don't want to take the responsibility for anything and that includes the Commander. With my own ears I heard him answer a man's questions with the line, "I don't know, that's not my department". Well, what the hell is!!!

" This principal of absolute responsibility unconditionally combined with absolute authority will gradually breed an elite of leaders....."Mein Kampf

But don't quote that to these people or you'll be labeled a reactionary or better yet kicked out! And what happens to these "reactionaries"? In the month of August alone, 61 people were kicked out of the Party from one state, CALIFORNIA.

There's a joke going around National Headquarters that there are only three people left in the Party-Bishop, Ward and Commander Koehl. And that Bishop has just pulled Ward's card and that Commander is behind in his pledge.

Too many members of the elite staff are mentally upper and upper-middle class characters. They've never known real hunger or fear and don't intend to. They refer to the masses and even their own supporters as inferior lower class reactionary "trash". They're garbage to be disposed of as quickly as possible. To enforce this mentality a fifteen minute time limit has been placed on all visitors to National Headquarters and a five minute time limit on all telephone calls. This was all initiated by Ward. He will make no exceptions! Once a man drove all the way out from Chicago to Arlington, Virginia and Ward asked him to leave because his fifteen minutes were up. John Harnet, (a loyal Rockwell supporter), has been banned from H.Q. because he overstayed his time limit.

Many people are asking many questions;

Why did the Huffs leave National Headquarters.....
Why did Biederman go to Rhodesia.....
Why did Bishop try to kill himself.....
Why are so many good supporters being kicked out..
Why did Ralph Forbes leave the Party.....
Is the Commander going to disband the Party.....

There are a lot of questions but no answers. We are all wondering what's going to happen.

The people at National Headquarters are really afraid of NSLF. You represent a threat to their daydreams and fantasies. They are constantly bringing up your name. I've stood up to them all in your behalf. Don't forget, you still have many friends in the Party. Take care and best of luck to NSLF!

Dear Sirs,

Congratulations on your split from the NSWPP. NSLF is something many of us have been waiting for.

We here in St. Louis had a similar experience with Arlington with the end results being we split off too. You'll probly be hearing about it soon.

Please send me full information on NSLF, I would like to join.

Dear Comrade,

Got the last copy of SEIGE the other day. It's pretty good. Needless to say your arguments are compelling. Apparently, the mass potential of the Party is about nil. The end or supposition seem to be that if shown the light the people will flock to our banner. But as you say it's more like the guy in the back room. Striker was out here the last couple of days and seems to agree.

Anyway stay clear of the feebees and don't blow up any library toilets.

Dear Joe,

Too bad things boiled over for all of you and the NSWPP. I could see this coming for a long time.

As you probly know, I tried to work with Arlington for approximately six weeks in March and April. I moved all my materials down and was I in for a big surprise!!!! I'll fill you in on the full horror story later but you can probly guess most of it yourself.

Suffice to say I'm nolonger down there. I moved myself and all my belongings back to New Jersey.

Good luck with NSLF and keep up the fight.

Building the revolutionary party

THE ROAD TO BORNEO

Political power stems from the barrel of a gun. Winning the hearts and minds of the people takes intense organizing activity and a willingness on the part of the people to get involved and be organized. Both at this time do not exist. Since a mass movement cannot be "pulled off" in America because of the anti-mass movement nature of the American people (which stems from their ever growing apathy), the only recourse for National Socialist Revolutionaries is to go underground and build their own armed struggle to wage war against the state. National Socialist activities have never produced one significant political result in the USA. Any mob resistance our people have ever been engaged in has always been a spontaneous eruption (like Boston) with the participation and agitation of NO political party or NS activist. They did it themselves and without our help. Organizationally, the Movement has failed to exploit the opportunities available to create "mass" mob violence against the enemy, even when such opportunities have lingered on. Publicity stunts have always supplanted EFFECTIVE POLITICAL ACTION. There has been no arming the students, no burning of school busses except by mobs totally disconnected with the NS Movement, no organization of mass violent demonstrations, and no effort to communicate with the people and provide the necessary National Socialist Political Leadership to gain direct National Socialist successes. In Boston, contrary to NSWPP claims, the people REJECTED the Party and if anything desired help from the Ku Klux Klan, an embarrassment for the Party. This situation occurred because of a complete lack of proper leadership and leadership activity on the part of the NSWPP. The Party with their stagnant Prussian tactics were incapable of IDENTIFYING with the revolutionary youth. Special propaganda and mass organizing did not occur. Just a few stunts for the newspapers and no solutions for the problems of the people.

As National Socialist Revolutionaries we must always keep in mind that nothing we do against the system can ever be conceived as "adventuristic". Militant struggle is the key to heightening contradictions. It not only strikes concrete blows against the state but also builds revolutionary consciousness among those involved in the struggle, which is what must happen before we can attempt to build our "outside power bases from which to operate while building a popular base of support." Building a popular base of support will become more and more of a necessity and an easier goal to achieve as conditions in the country become worse and worse. Our greatest weakness is our belief in our weakness. We have to communicate to all National Socialist Revolutionaries our strength and to SHOW them our strength we have to show them the strength of fighting. We must build confidence within the entire Movement before we can hope to help people and lead those people in revolution. That confidence must be based on the idea that as NS revolutionaries we cannot be stopped by anyone: the system, the Reds or the reaction! This confidence must project the image and reality that only confrontation politics, force and violence, can change the anti-White actions of our enemies. ONLY by fighting by any means necessary will we be able to effect political change. We cannot effect political change by projecting a phony, bureaucratic, Prussian image and constantly spouting unrealistic daydreams, such as imagining the masses would ever wish to emulate Stormtroopers. It just won't happen. All revolutions, the actual assumption of power, are instigated by the efforts of a tiny few. Those who could possibly participate in such a revolution among the White people in America are not like those who participated in past European struggles. Americans tend to go against the "grain" on practically anything. We are not Europeans and won't respond as Europeans. If a revolution occurs in America it will most likely be a violent one sparked by one lone incident and not by a prepared dialogue of NSWPP euphemisms. Until that one lone incident occurs, White people will never flock to the voting booths to place their physical support to the direction of helmeted Stormtrooper. They will instead continue to play the present Republican and Democrat Party politics no matter how bad things get simply because of their complete apathy towards getting involved with their neighbours problems. They don't recognize those problems as their own. The NSWPP cannot offer any PROOF of their ability to provide solutions to the problems facing the country, especially when the Party has only one or two REAL leaders. With such a situation, how can the NSWPP make claims of having the answer? Their past performances give no guiding light at this time.

NSLF believes that it is necessary to begin development of an armed struggle immediately. We now understand the futility of maintaining the fight for social change within the framework of civil debate. Instead of trying to educate and organize people who don't see it our way, we write them off as enemies and neutralizers of the National Socialist Revolution. This has marked the ascendancy of the purely militant point of view in NSLF thinking. We now confine our outreach to the small group of Movement people we consider potentially militant NS revolutionaries. NSLF feels that since these NS already know the "system sucks" all they need is a revolutionary example in order to move into armed struggle themselves. NSLF will lead these National Socialists through a series of rigidly defined steps from the "lowest levels" of armed struggle to the "highest levels". The "levels" are determined by the violence of the weapons used. Rocks and "trashing" are on one level, molotov cocktails are higher and bombs higher still. The highest level is, of course, guns. This tactic of "levels" includes no political guidelines or flexibility and almost completely disregards MASS participation. Levels are defined solely in terms of the weapons used. A mass action involving hundreds using only rocks is defined as a lower level of struggle than a bombing carried out by a few.

Leadership in the struggle has to do with making things happen. Leadership is the people who are doing it, cutting through diversionary debate, smashing forms and familiarities that hold us back, and through developing and acting on a clear line of how we move to win, redefining the context, content, and meaning of the NS Movement and the Revolution. That's what we call SEIZING THE TIME!

NSLF is building an underground army. We must spread our efforts to trouble spots in the country exploiting racially troubled areas and establishing bases of support. At these times, we will continue to fan the fires as long as we can using this chaos to launch armed attacks against the enemy. Since our militance is obviously going to lead to a military confrontation (probably with the ever growing BLACK US ARMY), maybe not for the next few years, then the fact that most of the Movement has no consistency of armaments makes us fools. So we must build internally during the next few months. Therefore we should state publicly that we believe, we support, and are preparing for ARMED STRUGGLE; for that is what we must do to effect political change.

In times of revolution, just wars and wars of liberation, we must love the angels of destruction and disorder as opposed to the devils of conservatism and law and order. To hell with all those who block the revolution with rhetoric--revolutionary rhetoric or counter-revolutionary rhetoric! We will not make our most eloquent statements in courtrooms and at press conferences, but in the streets of Jew-Capitalist America!

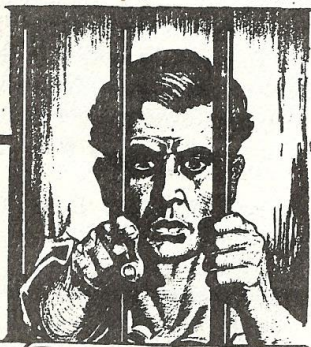

The choice of weapons belongs to him who moves; and NSLF moves into the streets and we have made our choice of weapons and tactics. The weapon of CRITICISM will never equal the criticism of weapons. NSLF prefers a paralyzed enemy to a well-criticized one.

Those who can't stand the sight of blood, especially their own, should stay home and pray for those who come outside the master's rules to "move", to do it, and pray for victory and not for an end to the slaughter. Pray for us to succeed for if we do succeed you will be safe. If we don't, then kiss the baby good-bye.

I'm dreaming of a White Riot
Just like the one we had March 4
When the creeps took a beating
And things started leading To Armed Struggle Against the State

I'm dreaming of a guerilla movement
That has the highest consciousness
That the White World's winning
And we're beginning to join their fire in N.S. L. F.

We're leading now toward armed struggle

NORTH CAROLINA NSWPP JOINS NSLF

NSLF representatives recently toured the country, visiting Chicago, St. Louis, and other parts of the nation. Among the organizational accomplishments is the announcement that Frank Braswell, leader of the NSWPP in North Carolina has left the Party and is now fully committed to NSLF's revolutionary struggle. The NSLF in N.C. has a radical hot line telephone message service and is involved in Movement activities in the surrounding states. Fully committed to armed struggle and recognizing the futility of the mass movement idea espoused by the National Socialist White People's Party, the North Carolina Unit of the National Socialist Liberation Front is sure to establish itself as the revolutionary vanguard on the east coast.

AIP Important To All Who Oppose Oppressive Power

$10,000 Sent To California In Nixon Attempt To Kill Party

By William K. Shearer

How important is the American Independent Party?

Sometimes our party members wonder because the A.I.P. is still young and is struggling to break the strangle hold held by the two dominant parties on America's political processes.

But the American Independent Party is important to someone.

It is important to its members who know that it is the only political party in America which courageously and sincerely speaks for the majority of the American people on such issues as protection of individual rights, tax relief for the average citizen, freedom of choice for the individual, abstention from involvement in senseless foreign wars, and the traditional moral and political principles which motivated the Declaration of Independence and the United States Constitution.

The American Independent Party is equally important to another group, too, those who are eager and determined to crush all significant political opposition to oppressive, tyrannical government, and who recognize in the A.I.P. an obstacle to manipulative control of the American people by those seeking dictatorship. The oppressors will go to any length to destroy the American Independent Party.

The tactics associated with dictatorship became the tools of the gang of unprincipled saboteurs who ran the Committee to Re-Elect the President (CREEP) during the period preceding the recent presidential election.

These men had no respect for the rights of individual citizens. They had no respect for law and order. In fact, as one Republican has said, President Nixon and his associates swept crime off the streets and into

(The following news account of the Committee to Re-Elect the President's (CREEP) effort to destroy California's American Independent Party was written by Leroy F. Aarons of the "Washington Post." It was published in the "Sacramento Bee", Thursday, June 7, 1973.)

By Leroy F. Aarons

The Committee for the Re-Election of the President spent $10,000 in campaign money in an elaborate plan to deter a possible third-party presidential drive in California by George Wallace in 1971.

The scheme failed, but not before the local California operatives allegedly hired a team of American Nazis to convince American Independent Party (AIP) voters to change their registration. If enough people changed, the operatives figured, Wallace could be knocked off the California ballot on a technicality, freeing those crucial votes for President Nixon.

The payments for a re-registration drive were authorized by Jeb Stuart Magruder, former national CRP director, the Washington Post learned, and may have involved then Attorney Gen. John Mitchell.

mittee for the Re-Election of the President) and said there was a way to purge the AIP voter list so they wouldn't have enough voters to qualify for the California ballot," said Nofziger.

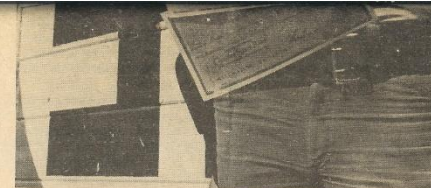

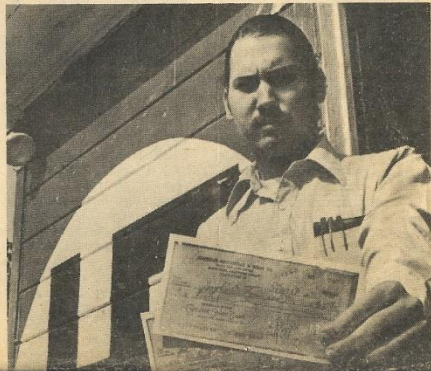

Could And Did

"He (Walters) had talked to Magruder and Magruder came to me around September or October 1971, and said, 'can you find somebody in California to pay the expenses?' The price tag by Walters was $10,000. I said I could, and I did. I then went over to the Committee to Re-Elect at Magruder's invitation and picked up an envelope from Sloan."

Nofziger refused to name the California intermediary but the man was identified independently as Jack B. Lindsey, a Los Angeles food wholesaler and active Republican who once served in the Reagan administration and was a close friend of Nofziger.

PROOF OF PAYMENT - Lt. Joseph Tommasi of El Monte, well-known Nazi party leader, displays photocopies of checks made out to him and signed by Robert Walters, an advertising man active in the Nixon attempt to remove the AIP from the California ballot.

To learn how desperately American freedoms are imperiled, one only need follow the hearings of the Senate Committee which is investigating the Watergate incident of the last campaign, and the other back-alley activities of the Committee to Re-Elect the President.

American freedom is not safe in the hands of the kind of men who created and guided CREEP. From the kind of immoral and illegal activity which the Watergate hearings have revealed, it is but a short and simple step to the violent suppression of independent thought which is the ultimate result of embarkation on the road to tyranny.

The Watergate hearings have confirmed that CREEP sent at least $10,000 in cash in 1971 from Washington to California to be used in an abortive attempt to remove the American Independent Party from the California ballot. This money, in California, was funneled to an unsavory character named Robert Walters, and part of it ultimately wound up as a payment to the American Nazi Party in El Monte, which the latter group used to pay for its headquarters in that community.

The American Nazi Party, therefore, became the subsidized agency of the Committee to Re-Elect the President, which illustrates the hazards to freedom when unscrupulous, power craving conspirators have $50,000,000 to use indiscriminately in a presidential election campaign.

Of course, the leaders of the American Independent Party knew the party was under an insidious sneak attack from Republican politicians in 1970, 1971, and 1972. We alerted our members and effectively blocked the conspiracy to destroy the party.

I published my first commentary on the subject in March, 1971, under the title, "The Republican Plot to Destroy the American Independent Party", and on October 17, 1972, I presented a detailed account of the underhanded Republican attack on the A. I. P. in a 14-page memorandum delivered to the National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.

At that time, proof of two facts was lacking. I did not know the specific amount allotted by the Republicans to the "destroy the A.I.P."

was established yesterday in testimony before the Senate Watergate Committee by Hugh Sloan Jr., who was treasurer of CRP in 1971 and early 1972.

To Nofziger

Sloan told the committee that the $10,000 was given to Lyn Nofziger, who later became director of the re-election campaign in California, in late 1971. Its purpose, Sloan said he later heard from "people in the campaign" was "with regard to the Wallace primary."

Nofziger, reached in Sacramento where he is now running the 1974 gubernatorial campaign of Republican Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke, acknowledged that he received the money on the request of Magruder to be passed on to a California go-between for use in the re-registration drive.

That drive, Nofziger said, was the brainchild of Robert Walters, an advertising man and former Wallace worker long active in right-wing causes in Orange County and Los Angeles.

AMERICAN INDEPENDENT PARTY

BUMPER STRIPS COME BLACK LETTERS ON FLOURESCENT ORANGE

NAZIS HIRED BY GOP TO FIGHT AIP

Asked about Lindsey, Nofziger acknowledged the friendship but said, "I'm just not going to discuss that, that's all."

Both Lindsey, who is head of Early California Foods Inc., and Walters, approached on the same subject eight months ago by the Washington Post, had flatly denied any involvement with the national Nixon campaign.

Walters had acknowledged he ran an AIP re-registration drive but said he had raised the money — which he estimated at $9,000 from independent sources, including Willis Carto, head of the right-wing Liberty Lobby.

Walters, who heads an agency called American Advertising and Sales, again denied in a telephone interview yesterday any connection with CRP or any of its officials, and said Nofziger's statement was "a lie."

But details of the re-registration plan, including the involvement of American Nazi canvassers, were outlined by a former aide to Walters, Glenn Parker, during the Washington Post's initial investigation last October.

Parker, a Nazi sympathizer who broke with Walters during the registration effort, said that he and Walters met with John Mitchell, Magruder and a group of unidentified aids in the Los Angeles Hilton in late October 1971 to discuss the re-registration plan.

"Mitchell started the conversation," said Parker. "He said he had heard there was a way to remove the AIP from the ballot. He said they had run a poll between Muskie, Nixon, and Wallace that showed that without Wallace, four-fifths of the Wallace vote would go to Nixon."

He emphasized that they thought they were in trouble, and that Nixon especially wanted to win California. The re-registering plan was based on a provision of California law that requires a political party's registration to exceed one-fifteenth of total state registration to qualify for the ballot. With a deadline of Jan. 1, 1972, it would be necessary to convert all but 10,000 of the 140,000 registered AIP voters — an enormous task.

(Actually, even if that had been accomplished, California law automatically qualifies a party for the ballot if it received more than 2 per cent of the vote in the previous gubernatorial election — which AIP had done. Thus, the re-registration effort was doomed at the start. Why this was not taken into account during the planning is not known.)

It was revealed in March of this

Liddy was compiling dossiers on third-party candidates as part of an attempt to challenge Wallace's place on the ballot in several states.

Got Go-Ahead

Given the go-ahead from Mitchell and Magruder, Parker said he and Walters met the following day with Lindsey, who gave him the first of several payments totaling $10,000. The first payment was $2,500 in $100 bills, Parker said.

Walters, who had broken with Wallace a year earlier and had had a running factional battle with other leaders of AIP in California, launched the registration drive, but soon ran into problems.

He tried to use as recruiters conservative Republicans, notably members of a right-wing Republican volunteer group, United Republicans of California (UROC). Using the name "Committee Against Forced Busing" as a front, the plan was for volunteer canvassers to visit AIP registrants throughout the state and convince them to change registration temporarily to Democrat or Republican so they could vote against candidates in the primary who favored forced busing.

Then, the pitch went, voters could re-register as AIP members or vote for Wallace anyway in the general election. In effect, however, the goal was to wipe AIP off the ballot so that Wallace would have no party listing at election time.

Word Gets Out

But word got out — not only to AIP leaders, but conservative UROC members — that the scheme was a disguised effort on behalf of Nixon, who had become anathema to right-wing Republicans because of his overtures to Red China. They denounced the scheme and refused to cooperate.

It was then, around mid-November, according to Parker, that he and Walters turned to the American Nazis for help.

Parker had been a longtime

Nazi sympathizer and is now a member of the National Socialist White People's Party. He had met Walters during the 1968 Wallace campaign in which both men were national workers. Walters, 31, was a rightwing activist in his college days at UCLA and had written a book condemning racial mixing.

Parker said he and Walters met with Joseph Tommasi in mid-November, 1971, and offered him $5,000 if he would use some of his storm troopers as registrars. Tommasi, 22, who runs the Southern California branch of the Nazi party out of a swastika-decorated frame house in El Monte, a suburb of Los Angeles, confirmed the offer. He said that a group of about 20 of his men, dressed neatly in civilian clothes, fanned out in the area, carrying registration lists denoting AIP member homes.

There was no evidence that the

Denies Hiring

Walters denied that he had hired the Nazis, even when shown photostated copies of checks made out to Tommasi with Walters' signature. Walters said he often had given Parker blank signed checks to fill out for expenses.

Walters conceded yesterday, however, that "it is conceivable some individuals working in the campaign were in some way or another involved with Tommasi and company."

In a sidelight, Walters denied using the Nazis in a later signature-collection drive he ran to place an anti-farm labor initiative on the November 1972 ballot in California. Tommasi produced a contract signed by Walters, which Walters said he could not explain. The initiative was defeated but Walters was later convicted of soliciting false signatures for the petition.

Lyn Nofziger also denied dealing with Lindsey — the alleged go-between — but admitted he "may have" asked Lindsey by phone to contribute to the re-registration effort. He said Lindsey turned him down.

Lindsey, who was unavailable for comment yesterday, said in October he had business dealings with Walters involving a trucking subsidiary Walters owned, but denied ever receiving or passing money along to Walters.

Parker alleges, however, that Lindsey set up a code name — by which Walters could contact Lindsey in Los Angeles or Magruder in Washington.

Nofziger said he heard from Walters twice, once during the spring of 1972, when Walters offered to campaign for Nixon votes among Wallace-type voters, and a second time last October when Walters phoned to say "the lid was about to blow off" and insisted on talking to Nofziger.

Wallace vote would go to Nixon. The re-registering plan was based on a provision of California law that requires a political year that even after Wallace was shot in May 1972, top level Republicans were attempting to block a third-party movement in his behalf.

Earlier in the year, according to another source, G. Gordon the word got out — not only to AIP leaders, but conservative UROC members — that the scheme was a disguised effort on behalf of Nixon, who had become anathema to right-wing Republicans because of his overtures to Red China. They denounced the scheme and refused to cooperate.

It was then, around mid-November, according to Parker, that he and Walters turned to the American Nazis for help.

Parker had been a longtime use of the Nazis was known at high levels of the CRP operation in Washington. The registration drive was a dismal failure. California AIP registration actually increased by 6,500 voters over the period that Walters and his group was trying to wipe it out.

The Nazi's involvement was cut short after a few weeks, however, when the money was cut off after only $1,200 had been delivered, Tommasi said.

Nixon Funds Used In Democratic Primary

(The following news story appeared in the "Los Angeles Herald-Examiner, Tuesday, May 29, 1973.)

WASHINGTON — John W. Dean 3rd has told Watergate investigators that Herbert W. Kalmbach, President Nixon's former personal lawyer, approved spending $200,000 to $400,000 in leftover 1968 Republican campaign contributions to help defeat Gov. George C. Wallace in the closely contested Democratic primary election in Alabama in 1970, sources close to the case say.

Wallace, then a former Governor of Alabama who was widely viewed by Republican strategists as a political threat to Nixon in the 1972 presidential election, won a runoff for the Democratic governorship nomination by 3 percentage points in June, 1970. He defeated Gov. Albert P. Brewer, who ran ahead of Wallace during the initial primary vote in May.

During the bitter primary election, which attracted national attention, Vice President Agnew and Winton M. Blount of Montgomery, the former Nixon Administration postmaster general, endorsed Brewer, who was considered to be more moderate than Wallace on the racial issue.

Wallace, in turn, repeatedly charged that Blount was raising money for Brewer, but no evidence was provided at the time. Wallace and Brewer were reliably reported to have spent more than $1 million each during the campaigns.

In a recent telephone interview, Brewer, now a Montgomery attorney, declared that to his knowledge "no money outside of Alabama" was raised on his behalf. He said that his campaign was financed in part by local organizations in each county and added, "Something as large as that just couldn't have come in."

Although it has been widely reported that high-ranking officials in the White House and in the Republican re-election committee organized a massive campaign of sabotage and espionage in advance of the 1972 Democratic party presidential primary elections, today's disclosure is the first describing a Republican financial involvement in earlier Democratic contests.

James Conner New Chairman, Los Angeles County Committee

James R. Conner, popular A. I. P. leader, has been unanimously elected chairman of the party's Los Angeles County Central Committee. Mr. Conner replaces Roland Vincent who resigned at the committee's June 4 meeting.

Mr. Conner and his attractive wife, Mary, are both members of the American Independent Party's state executive committee, as well as of the Los Angeles County committee. They became active in the A. I. P. as a result of their support of the presidential candidacy of Governor George C. Wallace.

During the Wallace write-in campaign in California's 1972 Democratic primary, the Conners played an important role in the organization and operation of the Downey Wallace headquarters. After the withdrawal of Governor Wallace from the presidential contest, they supported the A. I. P.'s 1972 presidential ticket.

Mr. Conner is employed in management with the Stereo Tape Clubs in Los Angeles.

As county committee chairman, he is placing emphasis on the party's registration program.

A tireless worker, Mr. Conner has a pleasant personality, and a determination to reach the average working man with the principles and purposes of the American Independent Party.

Other Los Angeles committee officers include: Richard Marshall, vice-chairman; Miss Alanna Scanlon, secretary; W. Wayne Fortner, treasurer; Elmer Blagg, sergeant-at-arms; and Mrs. Pearl Scanlon, Houston Myers, Earl Harper, Charles Pitchford, Margaret Bare, Ed Miller, Mrs. Clara Dougherty, and Hubert Perry, members of the executive committee.

Robert Walters: A Record Of Close Contact With Nazi Party

Robert Walters, the agent through which the Committee to Re-Elect the President sought to destroy the California American Independent Party, has an extensive record of unsavory activities, including intimate contact with the American Nazi Party, and a criminal conviction for election fraud.

Walters, a former Republican, was employed as a coordinator in the 1967-1968 presidential campaign of Governor George C. Wallace, but his unprincipled conduct caused him to become persona non grata with the Governor. During the same period, Walters became equally disliked by the American Independent Party which he continually attempted to disrupt. Walters was nominated by the A. I. P. as a state senate candidate in a Los Angeles County district in 1970, but a Walters-backed slate of candidates was defeated for party office in the American Independent Party primary, and in the state central committee meeting which followed the primary.

In November, 1970, Walters left the A. I. P. and returned to the Republican Party.

In 1966, prior to the formation of the A. I. P., Walters had been a candidate for state assemblyman in the Republican primary in the 52nd district of Los Angeles County. In 1968, he boasted to Mrs. LaVonne Gibson, American Independent Party state secretary, that the best workers in his campaign had been members of the American Nazi Party.

As California coordinator for the Wallace Campaign in 1967-1968, Walters appointed Leonard (Glen) Holstein as chairman of the Wallace Campaign in Napa County. In the early 1960's, Holstein, then a resident of Los Angeles County, achieved notoriety in connection with his in the CREEP funded re-registration attack on the A. I. P., is currently married to Bonnie Holstein, the former wife of Leonard Holstein.

Walters is the author of a book on the race problem entitled "As the Pendulum Swings". Published in 1965, $878.94 of Walters' print bill for the book remained unpaid in 1968. The book, however, was included on the recommended reading list of the publication "Nazi Action", March-April 1968 edition, along with "Mein Kampf" and "The Untold Story of Adolph Hitler", a "favorable biography" of the German dictator.

In his 1970 state senate campaign, Walters' campaign chairman, Glenn Parker, circulated a letter in which he said: "Of all the candidates running for office this year, only Bob Walters is an outspoken Gerald L. K. Smith supporter." In 1972, Smith, like Walters, supported Richard M. Nixon for the presidency.

In March, 1973, Walters pleaded guilty to a charge of soliciting persons to affix false signatures to election petitions. He was fined $500 and given a suspended jail sentence. The charges resulted from Walters' activity in connection with Proposition 22, the California farm labor initiative, which was defeated by the voters in the 1972 election.

Pleading guilty at the same time to a charge of making a false affidavit was Kenneth L. Masters, who had been a co-worker with Walters on the Funds from President Nixon's re-election campaign were used as a down payment for the nation's largest Nazi headquarters, it was revealed today.

Lt. Joseph Tommasi, head of the National Socialist White People's Party in Southern California, told the Tribune that money received from the frame headquarters house at 4375 N. Peck Rd.

Tommasi said he received $1,200 from Robert J. Walters, a disgruntled former coordinator for the American Independent Party, to enlist members of the AIP into the Nazi movement to block George Wallace's third-party candidacy in California last year.

More than $800 of the money received from Walters was used to purchase the swastika-decorated headquarters. Total purchase price was $28,000.

Tommasi, 22, a self-styled leader of the group, said that Walters approached him at his headquarters in October of 1970 in the name of then Atty. Gen. John Mitchell and Jeb Stuart Magruder, the Nixon campaign's

Early Disclosures Of GOP Plot Interesting Reading

The following letter, addressed to the "Modesto Bee" has come to the attention of The California Statesman.

The author of the letter, Michael McGuire, as a young A. I. P. enthusiast from Merced County.

We believe the letter will be of interest and encouragement to the readers of The California Statesman.

7 June, 1973

Editor of the Bee

Modesto, California

Dear Sir:

The June 7 Bee carried a Times-Post Service article on page one entitled "Nixon Group Schemed to Stop Wallace." The article dealt with the efforts of the Committee to Re-Elect the President to destroy the Wallace Movement and the American Independent Party of California.

Newspapers across the nation could have carried an article containing, substantially, the same information two years ago when William K. Shearer, then the chairman of the national committee of the American Independent Party, wrote and published a lengthy report regarding this matter entitled "The Republican Plot To Destroy The American Independent Party."

Many of Bill's comments which were made in the report make interesting reading today, in the wake of the Watergate disclosures. In exposing the methods and individuals used by the Nixonites in this scheme Bill stated: "It is time for American Independent Party members to know that there is now a concerted Republican conspiracy to wreck the AIP" and wrote that some party members were being subjected to "Abuse, name calling, and intimidation from irresponsibles who have the vile manners to call AIP members 'Communists' as a part of a planned program to destroy the party." Can you beat that? The supporters of George C. Wallace were called Communists!

I regret very much that when Bill first issued this report I was a Doubting Thomas. It was too fantastic to believe. But now two top Republican strategists, Hugh Sloan and Lyn Nofziger, have admitted that thousands of dollars were poured into the state for the purpose of wrecking the party. Of course it is only natural for one political party to defeat another political party, but the ends do not justify the means.

In 1972 the Republicans and Democrats far outdid the Communists in undermining the system.

Respectfully,

Michael McGuire

JEANNE CORDOVA

The name of the hunt is white racism in pure Hitlerian form — extermination of all who oppose it and/or all whose bloodlines don't "match" it. Sound familiar?

If you are fortunate enough never to have lived through the mass genocide of WW II — lucky enough never to have seen the slaughter of millions — you now have an opportunity to lie awake at night.

The National Socialist Liberation Front, a splinter of the American Nazi Party, is alive and well in Los Angeles and has declared terror-warfare on the "Jew capitalist U.S. government" and the entire Left.

Early last month, a large rally to reopen the Rosenberg spy case was disrupted by teargas, and two days later a near-fatal bomb ripped through the headquarters of the Socialist Workers party, The National Socialist Liberation Front — Siege, NSLF publicly took "credit" for both incidents.

In an exclusive interview, Joe Tommasi, head of the NSLF, admitted his group's responsibility for the teargassing and bombing. Although Tommasi smiled, stood on the Fifth and refused to answer with a simple "yes" when asked if his organization planned the SWP bomb, the Nazi leader said, "I can't deny it, either." Referring to his group's infiltration and harassment of the SWP, Tommasi several times boasted that "it (the bombing) was a successful mission."

Explaining that the SWP has "a potential that far surpasses any other left-wing group," Tommasi said it was his organization's purpose to "stop" the Marxist group. "We wanted them to know the score," the Nazi confirmed. "We've had our eye on them and they don't get to get away with what they're doing... or they get to end up in the river."

Since their Third Reich origin, the Nazis have opposed Socialist and Communist advocacy of racial or minority equality and control of production by all workers. As "racial idealists," the Nazis are rabid anti-integrationists and believe that Jews, blacks and Catholics should be deported to Israel, Africa, or Rome — or otherwise removed by any necessary means. They also support the fascist belief in a totalitarian state.

Recently, this particular Nazi group opposed the SWP at bus-ing and integration demonstrations in Boston and Pasadena.

Referring to the Rosenberg rally as "just another Rad function," Tommasi admitted to teargassing that event, calling it "significant and successful." Tommasi stressed that his group is in training to become facile in the use of bombs and needed practice. "We go out to the desert and practice on trees and things, but dealing with crowds is different, and we needed some initial real experience."

Tommasi, who deplores the American Nazi Party's opportunistic complicity with the government and the police, also recounted how he attacks the system. Apparently, the 1972 Nixon reelection campaign gave as well as received. In the summer of 1972, Nixon's Santa Clauses paid the ANP $5,000 to disrupt the California voter-registration drive of the American Independent Party. Fearful that a strong third party would lessen Nixon chances here, Jeb Magruder and John Mitchell called upon the ANP's Glenn Parker for help.

Capitalism and blackmail being two sides of a coin, the middleman, Robert Walters, of American Sales and Advertising, personally siphoned off $3800, but the Nazis proceeded with their mission on the remaining $1200. Having thus disrupted the American Independent Party, Tommasi decided to leak the Nixon deal to the press. "We had a beautiful opportunity to screw both sides," he explained proudly. "We did — through the Washington Post and the New York Times."

Like their predecessors, the NSLF members believe in the purity and supremacy of the white race. Offering a short synopsis of the Hitlerian world view, Tommasi explained:

"We see the human race divided into different breeds. Man is part of the animal world, not above it. He has to perform within nature's laws. Within each animal species each breed performs differently... the chihuahua is different from the German shepherd. It's the same with human beings: they are not equal; each breed has its own role. To force on one breed the culture or personality of another breed will lead to disaster."

To the Nazis, "disaster" means annihilation of the white race. Tommasi sees interracial marriage and integration as the prime weapons of this destruction. At the conclusion of his hypothesizing, the Nazi looked perplexed. "Some people say we are a hate group. That's not true, we have this kind of love for our own people."

Tommasi was somewhat unclear, however, about whether "love" for one race meant hatred of all others. "We don't believe in Colonialism," he explained. Yet when reminded that Hitler's dream of white power far exceeded the bounds of nationalism, Tommasi replied, "That was war, and certain things become necessary and move too fast at times like that."

Asked what was so crucial about the survival of a pure white race, Tommasi was quick to credit Anglos with more than they might want to claim. "Western civilization itself is an extension of the racial personality of the white race," he said challenging. "If the white race dies, this civilization will, too."

While many of us, white and nonwhite, would offer this reason as an advocacy-principle for interracial marriage, Tommasi and company see only savagery and backwardness in the racial personality of other peoples and cultures.

"For example," explained the NSLF leader, "although we believe the blacks should go back to their own country, we understand why the early founders had to make the blacks instead of the Indians slaves. The Indian's racial personality is solitary, but the black's is complacency."

Active in the American Nazi Party (now known as the National Socialist White People's Party) since he was 14, Tommasi became the vociferous head of his party's El Monte Branch while in his early twenties. After several years of increasing party membership and confrontation, gaining national publicity and personal as well as political notoriety, Tommasi was ousted in September 1973 and his chapter was taken over by the ANP national bureaucracy.

Tommasi claims that his expulsion was "a reaction of fear and paranoia on the part of the leadership. They presumed I had too much control and wouldn't cooperate." Several months later, Tommasi and several ex-members of the parent Party began the National Socialist Liberation Front.

Now, the new leader says his founding group, just one year old, has completed its internal organizational work and is moving into a more public second-area. Questioned again about the bombings, Tommasi smiled: "People are going to hear about us." For a time, however, the NSLF is going to "cool it" in the wake of the last month's bombings.

"We know the cops aren't interested if we bomb the Left," Tommasi smiled again.

National I.D. cards: 'May I see your papers, please?'

BURR JERGER

Recently, President Ford, with a glowing recommendation from General Haig, prevailed upon the Civil Service Commission to extend Frances Knight's retirement age (of 70) a few more years. Knight, director of the U.S. Passport Division since 1955, is working on a new type of electronically reactive passport and wants to finish the project before she retires.

Her plan, however, is not limited solely to improved passports. She wants to dossier every American with an I.D. Card, fingerprints and a backup file, presumably to be kept in her own office. While admitting that her idea is "loaded with political dynamite because it touches on the sensitive issue of personal privacy and a free society," Knight sees such a surveillance system as a protection of citizens "from criminal impersonations... a valuable tool in crime detection."

Knowing Knight as we do, we wonder if she isn't interested more in the detection of something else? Although in the next breath she defused the political dynamite somewhat by claiming that "an insignificant number of our citizens would be opposed to national registration."

In fact, in 1964 one of those insignificant citizens prevailed upon the Supreme Court to curtail Knight's power to withhold passports from citizens whom she regarded as "political suspects." At that time, our Lady of the Camellias maintained a secret file on 250,000

Americans "of questionable citizenship."

She was once an assistant to former Congressman John Tabor of New York — not known for his liberal stance — and later associated herself with Scott McLeod, a director of the State Department's Security Bureau — known for his positive alliance with the late Senator Joseph McCarthy during the height of his "anti-Communist crusade." Such similarity-by-association only confirmed what many people already know about the strong-willed passport directress.

Under her auspices, American embassies and consulates in the 1960s and earlier, became surveillance arms of her crusade against traveling Americans of "questionable citizenship." Her crusade was aided and abetted by FBI agents who put subversive-sleuthing on a professional basis.

One can hardly help but notice similarities between Knight's system and the current West German I.D. system which is combined with a locality-registration of every West German national. There are severe penalties for refusing to "unregister" after moving and reregistering in the new locale. And this is done, not by mail or in surrogate, but in person at the local police station.

The grande dame of the State Department has over 700 employees under her, and her passport operation makes money, which may well indicate why she wields such power. □

Congress probes political uses of Interpol records

JEFF STERNBERG

In 1969, Eugene Flossides, assistant secretary of the Treasury for enforcement and operations, received a phony call from Representative Gerald Ford. A young man from upstate New York needed a job, Ford said, and asked if Flossides could help.

Flossides did help Ford and the young New Yorker was appointed to the Treasury Department to work under the assistant secretary. The New Yorker's name is G. Gordon Liddy.

Liddy worked for Interpol before coming to the attention of John Ehrlichman, whose chief staff aides also worked for Interpol.

Liddy's activities for Ehrlichman have been since disclosed during the Watergate investigation. His additional labors on behalf of Interpol and his alleged activities with the CIA, specifically in Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963, have yet to be fully revealed by investigators.

Political intelligence With Interpol soundly established in the Nixon-Ford White House, and the use of political intelligence and persecution by the Nixon-Ford administration equally documented during these past years, the use of Interpol by its member countries becomes a serious issue for consideration.

When a Congressional subcommittee visited Interpol in 1959, it was assured that there was no way that the Organization could be used for political persecution. However, the issue of political intelligence was never raised.

With Watergate to a large degree behind us, and investigations now extending to the FBI, CIA and Interpol, the following facts, observers feel, will be of interest to the Congress and, more importantly, to the public.

Interpol's primary function is the gathering and transmission of information. Since according to Interpol's Constitution (Article 32) each member is encouraged to communicate directly with the police units of other nations (circumventing the State Departments of every country), the U.S. office carries out "investigative inquiries" for more than 100 foreign police agencies.

The former chief of the U.S. office admitted in 1973 that his office had cooperated with "nations with which the United States does not have formal diplomatic relations."

In their Annual Report for Fiscal 1973, Interpol reports that their Washington office handled information requests from 89 countries as well as 2,820 foreign intelligence items. Germany took up nearly 20 per cent of the accounted traffic.

For all the work and traffic in that year, Interpol proudly disclosed it had made a total of 82 arrests throughout the world. According to its own documentation, however, 325 domestic-intelligence actions remain unaccounted for.

On July 28, 1943, Ernst Kaltenbrunner, chief of the ISSUE

No. 1 Internal Bulletin of the National Socialist Liberation Front Jan. 1975

NATIONAL SOCIALIST REVIEW

Starting with this issue, the National Socialist Liberation Front will publish a monthly Bulletin. The purpose of National Socialist Review is to keep in touch with all our supporters and to let them know of all the advancements N.S.L.F. is making. SEIGE will continue to be published but will now take the form of an ideological journal while it will be the job of National Socialist Review to report on the activities of N.S.L.F. In addition, SEIGE is a quarterly which is too long a period of time for the following to wait for word on internal organizational activities. National Socialist Review is sent free to all N.S.L.F. members. Non-members can subscribe at $5.00 per year or fiftycents per copy. To get NSR you must subscribe or join NSLF.

FOURTH QUARTER, NUMBER TWO OF SEIGE AVAILABLE

The fourth quarter issue of SEIGE is now available for distribution. This newest issue has a new format, a more professional type style with a greater amount of graphics. The new magazine style contains many informative articles on interMovement happenings and a very important article on "Building the Revolutionary Party". Single copies are available for $2.50 each or $9.00 per year. SEIGE is sent free to N.S.L.F. members. Others must subscribe!

NEW TELEPHONE NUMBER FOR N.S.L.F. BOOKSHOP

Because of increased support for the National Socialist Liberation Front we have been able to obtain telephone service at the N.S.L.F. "NEW ORDER BOOKSHOP" at 11101 Garvey Ave. in El Monte. The new number is (213) 443-1464.

WANTED

Any persons who have any National Socialist books they no longer want are asked to donate them to the National Headquarters of the National Socialist Liberation Front. Our library is growing but many more books are needed. Also needed are book suitable for resale in the New Order Bookshop.

We are also in need of any office equipment.

NORTH CAROLINA SHOOTOUT

As of this writing word recieved at National Headquarter confirms news reports that Frank Braswell, leader of the North Carolina Unit of the National Socialist Liberation Front has just been ambushed by the enemy. It is reported Braswell and a female Liberation Front Organizer returned fire, emptying five weapons in the battle. More details will be contained in the February NSR. Those Comrades in the Eastern portion of the States are urged to contact Mr. Braswell and help out in any way possible. N.S.L.F., P.O. Box 47, Pennland, North Carolina.

CAPTAIN JOSEPH TOMMASI ON RKO'S CHANNEL 9 TV

Captain Joseph Tommasi, leader of the National Socialist Liberation Front, along with Bart West, a spokesman for the Ku Klux Klan, appeared on Channel 9 TV in Los Angeles. The program, "The Morning Show," is hosted by the black moderator Tom Hawkins.

Captain Tommasi and Mr. West were to debate a member of the N.A.A.C.P., who promptly chickened out. Instead of the NAACP representative Channel 9 invited a black organizer who earlier that week had helped organize a march in Pasadena, Cal. to promote bussing. Channel 9 also had a former mayor of Beverly Hills who is now a "Constitutional Lawyer," promoting race mixing and bussing; he is a Jew.

As the show proceeded the race-mixers continually turned all the realities of a race-mixing society around, spewing untruths and deceit to the TV audience. At this point the National Socialists blasted these lies with calls for armed resistance on the part of Whites against any and all attempts to mongrelize White society.

It was brought out that NSLF has been attempting to arm the students of Boston with weapons for use against the System and the blacks who are trying to break White resistance towards the integration schemes. The mention of guns to further the National Socialist struggle brought shock and terror into the minds of the Enemy. The black and the Jew became extremely upset as the telephone lines into Channel 9 overflowed with callers wishing to speak to the National Socialists.

Many times during the insane statements of the black and Jew, fist fights nearly broke out as it became too absurd for the National Socialists to allow the race-mixing duo to continue with their anti-White antics.

As the show neared its end Mr. West and Captain Tommasi continued to blast the race-mixers' notions that they were going to "take what was theirs" by letting these two swine know that indeed they would have to take it for Whites would continue to resist their efforts and that this resistance would soon take the form of armed assaults against the enemies of the White race.

The show was a complete success for NSLF as it allowed the public to know that there is now an organization which has every intention of fighting with the Revolutionary Violence of National Socialism.

A SPECIAL NOTE ON NSLF PUBLICATIONS

The Underground recognizes that there are a lot of "dead beats" in the Movement, people who like to criticize everyones efforts no matter what those efforts may be, while never contributing any help whatsoever to the Struggle for liberation.

Therefore the NSLF Underground has adopted the following policies:

1. Only the bulletin of NSLF, National Socialist Review, will be "exchanged" for the publications of other organizations. Non-members of NSLF will have to subscribe to NSR; rates are $5.00 per year or fifty cents per copy. National Socialist Review is published monthly and sent free to card-carrying members.
2. An introductory copy of SEIGE will be sent free to new inquiries to NSLF. Card-carrying members of NSLF receive SEIGE free. All other persons interested in receiving SEIGE will have to subscribe at nine dollars per year or two dollars and fifty cents per copy. SEIGE is published quarterly (every three months). Only under special circumstances, such as an organization which publishes a monthly "newspaper" or similar journal, will SEIGE be exchanged in return for said periodical.

NEW ORDER BOOKSHOP PROGRESS

When the Underground first opened the New Order Bookshop we were promised help by past NSWPP associates in helping to maintain the bookshop. It was hoped we could keep it open from the early morning to midnight; as it turned out these people let us down. We were not able to maintain open business hours as consistently as we would have liked. The bookshop has been open only three to five days out of the week when it should have been open seven days a week for at least ten hours a day.

To be precise we are suffering a staff shortage. The reason for this is THE BOOKSHOP IS NOT NSLF HEADQUARTERS. NSLF Headquarters is located at another location for obvious security reasons. Most of our supporters are working class people and cannot afford to take time off to man the store. The only solution to this problem was to find a Comrade who was in a position to man the store without interfering with his personal situation. We therefore sent out notices to those Members we felt could accomodate such a demand.

We are therefore pleased to announce that Comrade Damon C. Vashon of Louisville, Kentucky will be transferred from Kentucky to Los Angeles to be bookshop manager. By January 20, 1975 the bookshop will be open on a guaranteed daily basis. Another obstacle has been overcome by the revolutionary dedication of our following.

NSLF ARMAMENTS AND EQUIPMENT

NSLF is building an armed Revolution and we are dead serious about our intentions. We must therefore require all NSLF Members to acquire the following equipment:

1. .45 Cal. Automatic pistol. This is required because of its unbelievable "hard hitting" killing power. Also, if a .45 Cal. Auto. is used in a manner that one doesn't wish to be traced by ballistics the barrel can be easily disposed of and a replacement installed very easily. Barrels and parts are very easy to obtain and the cost is approximately $8 for a new barrel. In addition, ammunition is abundant and in a revolutionary situation almost every gun store and armory has large quantities of ammunition.

2. 12 gauge, pump action, Hi-Standard (trade name), 7-shot magazine shotgun. This is the ultimate in "crowd control" weaponry. The police use it with deadly efficiency and so will we.

3. .308 Cal. Military assault rifle. This will probably be the most necessary piece of equipment you will have, also the most expensive, unfortunately. Most of the NSLF following are working class people and have tight budgets. However, it is imperative that you save up for this weapon, your life may very well depend on it. There are basically four different "types" of .308 assault rifles: 1) The .308 Heckler Koch (G-3) Nato Semi-Auto Rifle, 2) the .308 Cal. SIG, Swiss military assault rifle (pictured in Number Two SEIGE), 3) the civilian Springfield Armory M-14 American semi-auto rifle, and 4) the Belgian FN-FAL Nato Assault rifle (the most expensive and hard to find of all). Any individual who has any substitute weapon should contact NSLF Headquarters for advice.

4. New Military gas masks. These can usually be obtained in military surplus stores.

5. Bullet-proof vests. These may also be obtained at military surplus stores, and are essential.

Special mention should be made for when obtaining weapons try not to have them registered and to always obtain as many ammunition magazines as possible.

NEW GUERRILLA PUBLICATIONS AVAILABLE

The NEW ORDER BOOKSHOP has obtained a supply of very important books geared for the Underground. They should be read by and studied by all NSLF Members are are required for all Members of the Central Organization of the Underground.

- A. Poor Man's James Bond-$4.95, an excellent book on how to produce bombs and poisons with easy-to-get materials. A Must!!!
- B. Boobytraps-$2.00, a military book on building boobytraps which can easily be prepared for use against the enemy.
- C. Field Fortifications-$1.50, another pertinent field manual.
- D. Improvised Munitions Handbook-$2.95, an excellent military handbook of effective "home-made bombs."
- E. Chemistry of Powder and Explosives-$4.95, one of the best handbooks on preparing explosives and powders.

JAILED COMRADE

Member Paul Mooney was arrested in October, 1974 after FBI agents pulled a raid on his home at 1:00 a.m. Comrade Mooney attacked the agents who had broken down the door of his home inflicting injuries to two of the enemy agents. One agent had his ear bitten off while another was assaulted by his own shotgun along the side of the head. NSLF Member Mooney was then handcuffed around the feet and hands and spirited off to the county jail.

After four months of incarceration Comrade Mooney was released to a "half-way" house. This action was taken instead of a long prison term because of the illegal raid by the FBI.

A SPECIAL MESSAGE

The National Socialist Liberation Front has obtained tremendous amounts of support, mostly from the more militant elements of the Party. This has enabled us to overcome many significant obstacles, obstacles which had completely put further development of above-board activities to a halt. With the installation of the RADICAL HOT LINE telephone message service, which should be complete by the end of January, there will be no further obstacles to cope with, outside of normal expenditures. To maintain everything we now have will take a very special effort by everyone to continue and whenever possible, to increase their financial obligation to NSLF. Without your support we will fail in our tasks.

Starting in February NSLF will launch nationwide street confrontations with the enemy. Every Liberation Front activist must prepare for the 1975 offensive. A violent year lays ahead and we must do everything possible to exploit the opportunities which shall present themselves to us. You must not fail in your obligations to the Armed Struggle. You must throw yourselves completely into the battle for liberation. You must intensify your support to the underground; pass out literature whenever possible, sell SEIGE whenever the opportunity presents itself, and pull off demonstrations against the enemy. Above all, keep in mind that everything we do must lead toward armed confrontation with the enemy, BUILD THE ARMED STRUGGLE!

RED HEADQUARTERS BOMBED

The demolition on February 4 of the Socialist Worker's Party headquarters in Los Angeles and a "Progressive" bookstore affiliated with the October League, a local Communist organization headed by a Jew named Klonskie, has been identified by news media as the single handed work of the Provisional Wing of the National Socialist Liberation Front. The destruction, estimated in the thousands of dollars, was caused by explosive devices thrown by NSLF guerillas. Anonymous calls were made by individuals to various news media centers throughout the city, taking credit for the bombings.

ROSENBERG RALLY GASSED

Thousands of Jews were crying their eyes out on February 2 when a tear gas grenade was ignited at a ceremony at the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium held for the purpose of re-opening the Julius and Ethel Rosenberg Atomic Spy Case. For those unfamiliar with the case, these two hebes were tried for passing U.S. atomic secrets to the Commies in the late forties. The responsibility for the gas grenade was claimed by another anonymous caller to be that of the National Socialist Liberation Front.

ARMED STRUGGLE IN N.C.

Frank Braswell, Organizer for the NSLF in North Carolina, was involved in a full scale gun battle with a police officer and his accomplices on the night of December 24 (Christmas Eve). They were unhappy with a tape recorded message operating in Braswell's home. According to news articles in the local press "Braswell said that he and a woman companion returned fire and emptied five weapons during the night fight which left the home riddled with bullets." This incident has been described by Braswell as open resistance against NSLF organizing activity by the frightened representatives of the establishment in North Carolina. Braswell requests that more "troops" are needed to man the line of defense and requests the assistance of any individuals who are willing to fight for National Socialism on the front where the lead is flying. To offer resistance, write to Frank at P.O. Box 47, Penland, North Carolina 28765 and let him know you stand for White Power too!

Bombs Rip Socialist Offices, Book Store

The explosion that hit the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) offices and book store in East Los Angeles on Tuesday night was a powerful one, according to police reports. The SWP offices were located at 1234 Main St. and the book store was located at 1234 Main St. The explosion caused significant damage to both buildings. The SWP offices were located at 1234 Main St. and the book store was located at 1234 Main St.

Quick Action Saves Lives in Blast at Socialist Office

Workers Party officials say the bomb was powerful, but quick action by the party members saved lives. The explosion occurred at approximately 10:30 p.m. on Tuesday night. The party members were alerted to leave the building only seconds before the explosion. The party members were alerted to leave the building only seconds before the explosion.

Local Nazi Leader Shot Bullet Is Removed

Self-proclaimed Nazi party member, Frank Braswell, of the Penland community was gunned down Christmas night in front of his home. He was shot twice, once in the arm and once in the mid-section.

Mitchell County Sheriff, Brownlow Moffitt, said a call came to his office at 1:40 p.m., Braswell was taken to the Spruce Pine Community Hospital and then transported to Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville where surgery was performed Friday to remove the bullet in his back, the other bullet, in his arm, was not removed. Braswell was released from the hospital Saturday.

Mr. Braswell has been the center of some controversy here of late with his vocal criticism of local politics. He is the local organizer for the National Socialist Liberation Organization (a right wing group that opposes "race pollution" and a number of other things).

According to Braswell a lady companion with her children were visiting with him on Christmas Eve when he heard noises outside his home. When he went outside to investigate he was caught in a cross-fire. He said there were at least four persons in the ambush. Even after being struck with the two bullets Braswell said he and the woman managed to empty five weapons at his assailants. The woman and the children were not injured but the house was riddled with bullets.

According to the Mitchell County Sheriff's Department, Mr. Paul S. Wheeler of Spruce Pine was arrested, Monday morning, December 30 around 11:40 and charged with secret assault and firing into an occupied dwelling. He was lodged in the Avery County Jail. Bond has been set at $100,000.

Sheriff Moffitt said more arrest may be forthcoming for other individuals. The investigation is continuing.

From Shooting Victim

ll County right wing activist Frank Braswell underwent minor surgery Friday for the removal of a bullet. Braswell was shot Thursday outside near Penland.

H. Walker said a bullet was removed from just behind his left arm. He said he left his office for State investigations.

Braswell said Friday morning that he was a member of the Nazi party and said he was the local organizer for the National Socialist Liberation Organization (a right wing group that opposes "race pollution" and a number of other things). He has been a highly vocal critic of politics and governmental agencies in Mitchell County.

Braswell said he was in his house on Penland School Road when at least four people called outside.

"I went out into the yard and was ambushed, shot,"

Braswell said that his woman companion retreated and emptied five magazines during the fight which left his home riddled with bullets. Three children in the house were not harmed.

Braswell said that he was separated from his woman companion during the fight. Charges are pending against him stemming from the shooting. Braswell said that he had "a pretty good idea" who shot him.

Braswell said, "I'll have to wait a few days before I can say more."

Spruce Pine Officer Guilty In Shooting

KERSVILLE — Police Officer Arthur Spruce was found guilty in a manslaughter charge of shooting a deadly weapon at a man who was ambushed, shot, and killed in a shooting in the town of Penland.

EAST L.A. MARXIST H.Q. BOMBED -Feb.14

System news sources have attributed a third bombing of a Communist HQ to the National Socialist Liberation Front Underground. On Feb.14, a bomb blast erupted the still night at the East L.A. Instituto del Pueblo, 3022 Whittier Blvd., with a thunderous roar sending the front door flying into the night. Extensive damage was done to the interior of the building.

The building housed a spic Marxist Labor Workshop. Because of the bombing the landlord is urgently trying to break the lease on the building. We presume that the landlord understands the benefits in carrying through on removing the Communists from his building.

Local bombings increase

Last month's rash of local bombings and bomb threats has left their targets on the defensive, calling for better police protection and an intensification of the investigation into those responsible for the attacks.

One local institution which feels particularly threatened is the East Los Angeles Instituto del Pueblo, a two-year-old educational center located at 3022 Whittier Blvd. According to its director, Evelina Alarcon, the center is in danger of having its lease terminated. It is because of the Instituto's controversial curriculum that Alarcon believes it was the target of a recent bomb. The Instituto del Pueblo is devoted to the teaching of labor history, Marxist-Leninist writings and Chicano studies.

Around midnight of Feb. 14 the doors to Rivera's TV Shop were blown off by a bomb. Eliseo Rivera is the landlord of the property occupied by the Instituto, which is next-door to his small shop. Four days after the bombing, Rivera said, he received an anonymous phone call from a man who said that if he continued to rent to the Instituto, the property would be bombed again.

The same day, an unidentified caller phoned the Instituto del Pueblo and asked to speak to Director Alarcon. When he was told she wasn't there, the caller left an ominous message: "We're sorry we missed you the other day with the bomb, but we'll get you next time."

That message was worded almost identically to one pinned to the door of the westside offices of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) on Feb. 4. The same day, both the downtown headquarters of the SWP and a local left-wing bookstore, Unidas, were bombed.

The group which claimed credit for the bombings is the National Socialist Liberation Front, an offshoot of the American Nazi Party. This is the same organization that has claimed to have thrown a tear-gas cannister onto the stage of the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium Feb. 2 during the rally sponsored by the Los Angeles Committee to Reopen the Rosenberg Case.

The Feb. 22 bombing of public education television station KCET, after its announced intention to televise a Cuban film, has also been linked to the other incidents.

Evelina Alarcon emphasized that all the bombings are related. She joined members of the SWP in their criticisms of the Police Department's inability to bring to justice those responsible for the bombings.

(One SWP spokesperson pointed out that the National Socialist Liberation Front openly operates a bookstore in El Monte.) Alarcon said that inaction by police is typical of the disregard with which they treat the people of East Los Angeles.

The man in charge of the investigation of the bombings, Sergeant C. Loust of the LAPD's Criminal Conspiracy Section, discounted the charges. He explained that he and his men are doing their "darndest" to apprehend the bombers. He pointed out that the politics involved are of no interest to him, that he is simply concerned with bringing to justice those who have violated the law. (Sgt. Loust said he is working overtime on the case.)

One of Alarcon's chief concerns now is the threat of eviction raised by the bombing of the Instituto landlord's property.

Landlord Rivera said he is consulting with his attorney on ways to terminate the lease. "I have no choice," he said. "After the bombing, I got a phone call from a man who said, 'You better get them (the Instituto) out or we'll continue bombing them.' I'm going to try to break their lease. The police can't do anything about it; they would have to stay outside all night.

"I just want them to leave me and my place alone. I worked hard to buy the place and I want to protect it."

The Socialist Workers Party and the Revolutionary Union both have been given a taste of National Socialism in it's more "constructive" form. But they don't like it. Apparently the Reds can dish it out in South East Asia but can't take it in Los Angeles!

Both organizations have launched unimpressive demonstration at L.A. City hall demanding that members of the National Socialist Liberation Front be jailed and that the NSLF Underground be delt a smashing blow of destruction.

Nigger Uncle Tom Bradley wrote a letter to the SWP informing them that he would do everything humanly possible to destroy NSLF. We have here a situation where the Reds have VIOLENTLY taken over South East Asia at the cost of 55,000 American lives and fucker Bradley kisses the asses of the very enemy who sabotaged the U.S. War effort. Bradley will be visited!

Letter from Bradley

Following is the text of a letter sent Feb. 20 by Los Angeles Mayor Thomas Bradley:

Members of the Socialist Workers Party:

As Mayor of the City of Los Angeles, I share your concern over the bombing of your headquarters on February 4, 1975.

I abhor this kind of violence and any ~~other~~ ~~type~~ ~~of~~ ~~violence~~ ~~which~~ ~~is~~ ~~the~~ ~~right~~ ~~of~~ ~~American~~ ~~citizens~~ ~~to~~ ~~the~~ ~~freedom~~ ~~of~~ ~~speech~~.

You may be assured that all steps are being taken to initiate a thorough investigation. I have requested that the Los Angeles Police Commission submit a report to me in this regard.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Tom Bradley
Mayor

More Nazi harassment

In addition to the Klan armed show of force in Houston, Nazis in several cities have been harassing the Socialist Workers Party and other groups.

● In Minneapolis, a phone caller to the SWP said that the Nazis would be out the following Saturday on the Nicollet Mall, where The Militant is sold regularly. The caller shouted, "White Power," as he hung up. A similar call was made to the Progressive Labor Party.

That Saturday, 10 helmeted and uniformed Nazis marched around the mall, but they made no attempt to interfere with Militant salespeople.

● In Boston, where the SWP has been very active in the desegregation struggle, two swastikas and the slogan "Smash Communism" were painted on the stairway leading to the office of the SWP candidate for school committee, Ollie Bivins.

● Several weeks ago, a Nazi group bombed the Central-East Los Angeles SWP hall. Further bombings and a series of bomb threats have occurred since then, but the police have still failed to take action to apprehend the terrorists. (See story, page 5.)

SWP-MILITANT NEWSPAPER COVERAGE

The Socialist Workers Party newspaper, the MILITANT, has been covering story after story about the NSLF war on the Left. They read like a weak-kneed party Party who constantly whine about their own inability to defend themselves against the National Socialist onslaught. Their entire organization has been shocked into a stupor with the recent attacks! It looks as though the War has been brought home!

NSWPP REACTIONARIES ATTACK TWO NSLFers-RETAILIATION ISSUED-March 16

On Sunday 15 Members of NSLF beat the daylights out of Dan Stewart and David Martin Kerr. The night before, Saturday two members of NSLF were passing out literature to interested persons in front of the NSWPP Headquarters on Peck Rd., in El Monte, when six NSWPPers ran outside the gate and stole the literature from the NSLF distributors. They ran back into the gate and into the Headquarters laughing at their effort.

That night a fire bomb landed on the roof of the HQ and one of the participants in the attack against NSLF had the front windshield smashed out of his new Volvo.

The next day Captain Tommasi took fifteen NSLF Shocktroops over to the Peck Rd. Headquarters and knocked on the door. David Martin Kerr opened the door only to be confronted with the question "Why don't you take this literature out of my hand!" Kerr immediately slammed the door shut in complete TERROR.

The NSLF contingent wandered around the HQ grounds calling for the "brave Revolutionaries" to step outside but their fear got the best of them and they hid indoors. When the shocktroops had left Kerr came out only to be caught by another shock troop lying in wait. He never made it to the door. Kerr literally cried and begged to be let go. At that point Dan Stewart came around the side with a pole in his hand and as two Shocktroopers, John Duffy and Raymond Chaney attacked him he hit Sargent Duffy with the pole. It was then that Lieutenant Rust tackled Dan Stewart and proceeded to knock Mr. Stewart unconscious. Kerr had at this point scrambled in tears to the rear with his uniform disassembling along the way, with an armband here a tie there, etc.

It is important to note that NSLF did not start this situation. It was the actions of these REACTIONARIES under the guise of National Socialist Revolutionaries who created the atmosphere of attack. As the true National Socialist Revolutionaries in this country we must assert ourselves among this Movement for only by eliminating these snibbling, crying weaklings can National Socialism become a force to reckon with. The battle will encompass many fronts and all our enemies must be dealt crushing blows of defeat, be they Communists or scoundrels in the Party of Hitler and Rockwell.

JOHN DUFFY, NSLF NATIONAL ORGANIZER

John Duffy, former NSWPP leader for the State of Delaware, has been appointed National Organizer for the National Socialist Liberation Front. At this time John Duffy is a Sargent in the NSLF Shocktroops and is now touring the United States meeting with numerous National Socialists who are associated with the NSWPP and NSLF. Our plans at this time are to solidify our support behind the new NSLF support program known as the WIDE BASE OF SUPPORT LEAGUE. This new arm of NSLF allows National Socialists who support the actions of NSLF to openly help out in aboveboard activities without ever engaging in any illegal activities. This will allow for a stronger organization as such a formation now eliminates any fears one might have about associating with NSLF's radical stand on strategy and tactics for waging war on the enemy. If you would like more information on the WBSL contact National Headquarters!

NSLF MEMBERSHIP DUES

All NSLF Members are cautioned to make sure your dues are kept up each month. Any Comrade who runs into financial problems and can not meet his obligations should notify National Headquarters or otherwise he or she shall be billed.

Three month lapse of notice or fulfillment of dues obligations shall be grounds for settlement into the wide base of support. We gage a persons dedication on his involvement and his willingness to perform in the service of the Front. Slackers belong in the "camp of the Mass Strategists".

Do your part for ARMED STRUGGLE AGAINST THE STATE,.....SUPPORT NSLF!

NEW FORMATION-NSLF SHOCKTROOPS

The next issue of National Socialist Review will contain detailed information on our new street formation, the SHOCKTROOPS. This formation is part of the aboveboard activities section and will have the primary function of doing battle with the enemy on the streets of America. Their primary function in this area will be in street demonstration.

The next NSR will explain the rank formations and the Combat Unit formations. Also explained will be the different types of street demonstrations and their corresponding uniforms of which there are two.

The shocktroops are open to any White person, male or female who believes in our National Socialist Armed Guerrilla Struggle. If you are interested in this hard core formation contact Lieutenant Rust at P.O. Box 241, El Monte, California, 91734.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY ORGANIZATIONAL MANUAL FOR SALE

A Party Comrade in Louisville, Kentucky has donated a number of copies of the inter-Organizational Manual of the NSWPP to NSLF this past week and they are now being offered for sale to fellow National Socialists for the price of $10.00. This Manual gives the entire structure of the NSWPP from how to start a Party Unit to how to conduct yourself when in jail. It has all the rules and regulations which constitute "Party POLICY". There are very few in our possession so act now. The NSWPP has issued only a very small number to it's following, under 20 copies it is estimated so get your copy NOW! This offer will not be repeated once supply is gone! The money from these sales will be used to print NSLF propoganda.

BOMB BOOKS.

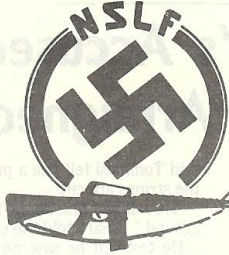

NSLF still has a number of very good military homemade bomb books every Revolutionary should study. The February NSR contained the entire list but you should be notified that the first two you should purchase are;

Boston: Led by Children

BOSTON: - Here in the cradle of American liberty, once again the people are rising up to throw off the oppression of government. Without any outside help these brave Whites continue resistance against the increasing pressure of the Federal Government and its traditional allies in suppression of White Nationalism, the Communists. What we need is a thousand Bostons! We need to set every school bus on fire and tear every school building to pieces until the government realizes it can no longer trample on the rights of its White citizens. What the people of Southie are doing must serve as an example for all freedom minded Americans who long to control their own lives and end the genocidal race-mixing policy of the Jewish junta under whose whip we now cower. This is a call to END debate! Cease the endless chatter and pointless speculation! Take your piles of leaflets with their facts and reasoned argument and use them to light the bon-fires of freedom and rejoice as the flames consume the prison camps they call schools. Boston has shown the way and with her glorious example we may see the day when our children are free to attend safe, all-White schools. Every gasoline filled bottle, every shattered window is a statement worth more than all the books, protests and orderly pickets of the past fifty years. And the beauty of it all is that it is led by children.....

LOUISVILLE: - The NSLF unit here has been credited with fomenting and sustaining the anti-busing disturbances that have shaken this city recently. The local NSLF organizer, Raymond Chaney, reports that authorities and other anti-White elements have been thrown on the defensive by a series of bombings and other disruptions. The local red organizations are finding it difficult to hold rallies as groups of hard core radical Whites charge into them and scatter these "revolutionaries". Other incidents reported include two NSLF men surrounding a group of ten niggers and with fists and baseball bats the NSLF "explained" our objection to race-mixing. Louisville is yet another example of whites declaring their determination to resist unlawful and belligerent authority.

WRINGING out the OLD and ringing in the NEW

EL MONTE: - The NSWPP headquarters celebrated the New Year with tears and welcomed in 1976 by spending the night out in the cold. A military tear gas grenade smashed through a second story window in the front of the building and quickly filled the place with gas, causing an immediate evacuation of the structure and another call to the weary El Monte Fire Department. Arriving at their second home, the fire department attempted to clear the building of the fumes. Due to the peculiar nature of CS military gas (it saturates fabrics, upholstery, etc,) the building could not be re-occupied for twenty-four hours. And still the memory lingers.....

It has come to our attention that there are still some people who are unaware of the facts concerning the murder of Capt. Tommasi.

For those who honestly do not know the facts and for those blind enough to accept the report in Koehl's newspaper WHITE POWER, we are reproducing the news article in the October 12th edition of the Los Angeles Times containing a report of the sworn testimony by eyewitnesses to Capt. Tommasi's murder. Added to this is the fact that Jerry Keith Jones has pleaded guilty to second degree murder in an apparent "plea bargain" move by his attorney. Not included in the article was the testimony of three-ten to twelve year old children who also witnessed the shooting. There was no variation on the basic facts. The Capt. was unarmed, facing Clyde Bingham and did nothing more than grab Bingham's shirt when Jerry Jones shot him in the side of the head. A display of real "nigger courage" by a moron who has Koehl to thank for issuing the orders that have destroyed his own life as well as that of the bravest fighter the Aryan race had.

NOTICE TO OTHER ORGANIZATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS

Matthias Koehl aside from being a "closet" homosexual, is under the thumb of the U.S. Government. His aberrant sexual behavior (esp. with young boys) is used to threaten him with exposure should he stray from government dictates. Ever wonder why every time an NSWPP unit shows signs of success, Koehl kills it? Did you ever wonder why he flew into a rage when he learned that Capt. Tommasi had struck the enemy so hard that they were squealing for government protection? And did you ever wonder why the Capt. was ousted after he exposed the Nixon funding of NSWPP disruptions of the Wallace campaign? Because of this close alliance between the government and Koehl we feel that ANY organization or individual who collaborates with Koehl is suspected of having government connections. Therefore for the safety of the White movement in general, we recommend all organizations and indi-

Accused Slayer to Be Arraigned

EL MONTE—Jerry Keith Jones, 18, the accused slayer of former Nazi leader Joseph C. Tommasi, will be arraigned Wednesday, Oct. 22, in Pomona Superior Court after a preliminary hearing in Municipal Court here. Jones was held to answer for the crime by Municipal Judge Edward C. Nitsch after two witnesses testified they saw the baby-faced defendant shoot Tommasi in the head Aug. 15 during an altercation in front of the Nazi Party headquarters, 4375 Peck Road.

Nitsch denied a motion for dismissal by public defender Robert Doty on the grounds that Jones was acting in self-defense when he shot Tommasi. The judge continued bail at $50,000 and ordered the defendant kept in county jail.

Jones has identified himself as a member of the National Socialist White Peoples Nazi Party from which Tommasi was ousted in 1973. Tommasi, 24, had since formed the National Socialist Liberation Front and police said the two groups had been feuding.

Present in court for the hearing were four members of the National Socialist White Peoples Party, who smiled at Jones as he entered.

Seated on the opposite side of the courtroom was Tommasi's widow, an attractive brunette who sobbed quietly during portions of the testimony. At one point she ran from the room.

Witnesses were Michael Rinard, a deliveryman; David Rust, who was with Tommasi when he was shot, and Dr. Robert Zedelis, a deputy medical examiner for the county coroner.

Rinard testified that he witnessed the shooting when driving near the headquarters after making a delivery to a market.

He said he saw four persons on the steps of the headquarters who appeared to be having "some kind of verbal altercation." He said one of the persons, whom he identified as Jones, was holding a gun.

Rinard said he saw Tommasi reach up and grab the shirt of Jones' companion, Clyde Frank Bingham, and at that point Jones fired his gun. He said Tommasi fell like a puppet when the strings are cut.

"He fell just like he melted into the ground," Rinard told the court.

He testified he saw no weapon in Tommasi's possession.

Rust, 26, told the court he has inherited the leadership of Tommasi's organization. He said he is a former member of the National Socialist White Peoples Party but left it at the same time as Tommasi "out of loyalty to Joe."

He testified that he and Tommasi had been at an auto parts store across the street from the Nazi headquarters the day of the shooting. They made a U-turn in Tommasi's car and drove directly in front of the headquarters.

Rust said Jones and Bingham were on the headquarters steps at the time and shouted obscene remarks and made obscene gestures at him and Tommasi.

He said Tommasi stopped the car and got out saying, "I don't have to put up with this."

Rust said he followed Tommasi into the yard and as they approached both Jones and Bingham drew .45 caliber automatic pistols from holsters and pointed the guns at them.

He said Jones shouted to Tommasi, "You've been told twice to stay off these premises."

Rust said Bingham "seemed to be the person he (Tommasi) was angry at."

He said the pair exchanged words and Tommasi told Bingham he wasn't going to put up with "this harassment anymore."

Rust said Bingham then lowered his gun and "put it in his belt or did something with it" and told Tommasi, "I don't need a gun. I'll get you with a knife."

Rust testified that Tommasi then shoved Bingham with one hand and at that point Jones, whose gun was pointed at Tommasi's head, fired the fatal shot.

Rust said he turned and ran to Tommasi's car and sped away to call an ambulance.

Dr. Zedelis testified that Tommasi died as a result of a penetrating gunshot wound to the head.

Bingham, 19, also is charged in connection with Tommasi's death on two counts of assault with a deadly weapon. His trial is set for Thursday, Nov. 6, in Pomona Superior Court. Bingham is being held under $10,000 bail.

Liberation, U.S.A.

LIBERTY!

This country was born in a revolution. Our heritage is the rifle and resistance. This same country is in the grip of a tyranny today so powerful and uncompromising that they steal our children from their mothers arms and carry them by forced busing into schools where violent attacks by niggers are so common that the teachers are demanding "combat pay" to teach in these breeding grounds of anti-White racism. THE STATE; her untender arms pull the child from the family and alienate all healthy social values only to replace them with moral uncertainties, vague notions and unhealthy dogma. THE STATE sacrifices our beautiful White children on the altar of impossible equality in the name of "FREEDOM!" I would tear that holy word from every document and charter on which this nation was founded before I would see it corrupted to describe the genocide being forced on our race.

What evil design is behind this relentless course that seeks to destroy the Aryan race that built this country and made her strong? Why is it so important that we mix our blood with inferior peoples? Who is to gain? Look into the high government offices for the authors of this monstrous course. There is the enemy! They cannot hide. Coleman the Jew is behind the judicial decisions to kidnap our children from us.....but it is not working. Instead of bringing the races together, it has inflamed racial hatreds. THEY CANNOT DISGUISE THE FACT THAT THEY ARE INFLICTING THE BLACKS UPON THE WHITES AND NEITHER RACE WANTS IT! This third party, the Jew, can only rule in a country of slaves and men will never be slaves as long as they have the ties of blood that yearns for liberty. And though our blood and soul cries out for liberty, the chains are added daily. We bear the burden of a corrupt and inefficient government whose arbitrary authority crushes all healthy manifestations of White racial pride. We are ruled by politicians whose job is NOT to govern but to secure their job for as many years as possible by paying tribute to the BIG MONEY that got them elected. Who is that money? In 1975 the only near unanimous vote on ANY important issue in the U.S. SENATE was unconditional support of the state of ISRAEL! We have a bankrupt economic policy.... It's author, Burns, a Jew. Foreign policy, Kissinger, a Jew! Who is the head of every single policy making body? JEWS! Where is our self-determination? It will take a revolution to change this because no matter what other course you take you'll find a Jew has preceded you and bought all the valuable positions of power and he will frustrate your efforts to bring healthy change in this country. But a revolution is fought with MEN. NO ONE can destroy the love of our people for our people no matter how many political prostitutes they own or how much money they spend. MONEY is not SUPREME, BLOOD IS! From our blood, our race, comes the courage to destroy the evil that is trying to destroy us. WHITE REVOLUTION NOW!

THE REPORT OF OUR DEATH IS GREATLY EXAGGERATED

While we understand the eagerness of the Reds and the System to see the National Socialist Liberation Front pass away, we must nevertheless inform them that no amount of wishful thinking can accomplish that. Now on the other side of the coin we find the National Socialist White People's Party that is painfully aware of our continued existence. We can only attribute the expectation of our demise by the rest of the reactionaries to their own fascination with failure and the need to reassure themselves that resistance is hopeless. While we were here reorganizing and working like hell to maintain the structure that Captain Tommasi created, armchair politicians on the right and on the left were predicting our collapse. The Captain was our inspiration and always will be but the NSLF never was one man and never will be. It is the combined spirit of all exploited whites who have tired of working for a system that robs them of their dignity and the right to self-determination. Now that the NSLF has recovered from its staggering loss, the staff would like to express its appreciation to those who predicted our death.....

FIFTY CENTS

NOTE OF THANKS

Following the murder of Captain Tommasi, the NSLF Central Organization shifted into high gear to try and fill the vacuum left by his talents that were no longer available to us. Aid and sympathy has poured in and a great deal of dedication has been exhibited by members of the NSLF through this difficult ordeal. To all those who gave of their time, money and sympathy, we offer our heartfelt gratitude.

EL MONTE . . . . .

In anticipation of the forthcoming attacks which it so richly deserves, the NSWPP has been fortified with additional "security men". However, an uneasiness prevails and insecurity is displayed by duty personnel who routinely draw their side-arms and wave them around at the slightest disturbance.

It seems one evening following Captain Tommasi's death, a duty officer went sprawling to the floor in terror as the walls around him erupted in bullets.

Aside from that much needed ventilation, other modifications have been undertaken. In order to keep a "low profile" (i. e. hide better), the once defiant, swastika adorned building has been painted over and now more closely resembles the inactivity it houses.

However the duty personnel are not completely inactive as they spend much of their time mending holes in the walls and putting up temporary shutters to cover shattered windows. One unfortunate incident occurred at three AM one morning when a blast shook the building, leaving a gaping hole in the foundation and the windows without glass. The surrounding area was bathed in flames. The unfortunate part is that the El Monte fire station is only two blocks away and arrived before a happy ending could be written for the building on Peck Road.

In response to these attacks, David Kerr, the coward that runs the unit, took his men outside the gates the following day and they practiced marching. Kerr, well known for his yellow streak, has come out with an opinion with which the NSLF is in complete agreement. He believes that in order to better dedicate themselves to Matt Koehl and not be "troubled" by thoughts of women (something Kerr has never been troubled by. . . .), NSWPP personnel should become eunuchs, that is, castrate themselves. While some members of the NSLF believe it to be a threat without substance, others have volunteered to assist in the operation.

Bomb Halts Film Premiere

Tear Gas Halts Film Premiere

From Evening Outlook News Services

Evangelist Billy Graham, chased by a tear gas bomb from the premiere of a movie he produced, led the audience of celebrities in singing hymns in the street outside the stench-filled Beverly Hills theater Monday night.

The premiere was the first public showing of "The Hiding Place," based on the life of a Dutch Christian woman, Corrie ten Boom, who rescued a number of Jews from the Nazis in occupied Holland during World War II.

Singer Pat Boone was among the 1,100 persons who had to flee the theater with Graham while firemen cleared the air with large fans.

Police recovered a canister with a swastika on it, along with the words "White Power," "NSLF," "El Monte, Calif." and a post office box number. The National Socialist Liberation Front (NSLF), a Nazi organization, is headquartered in El Monte.

The $1.7 million movie is the 102nd film produced by Graham. Most of the others were seen only on than the evangelical meeting circuit.

Among the celebrities nauseated by the gas were Dale Evans and Virginia Mayo. Singer Ethel Waters had to be assisted outside, tears running from her eyes. One fireman was overcome and hospitalized by the gas.

Boone said that "someone opened an exit door leading to an alley and threw the bomb into the theater and it exploded. It was a very strong gas. People just couldn't take it."

"People came streaming out of the theater with tears in their eyes. We had a regular old-fashioned block party there for a while, waiting for the theater to be cleared. We sang 'Allelujah' and some other Christian songs and some Jewish songs."

Firemen said they were unable to clear the powerful odor from the theater, however, and the film was not shown.

WORLD PREMIERE OF "THE HIDING PLACE" A REAL TEAR-JERKER!

A powerful military tear gas sent the bourgeois crowd streaming from the exits of a Beverly Hills theater. Television cameras, there to record the opening festivities of an anti-National Socialist movie, were instead treated to the spectacle of stars and starlets gagging and crying as the NSLF Provisional Wing made yet another successful strike. Television coverage was extensive and it was stated that the attack was carried out by the NSLF, a militant Nazi party.

The above photograph shows CO Dave Rust participating in a recent field exercise where NSLF members gained considerable experience in the operation of "various" weapons and field equipment necessary for aggressive assault on enemies of the race.

WHITE SOLIDARITY NOW!

Together with coordination and agility, make war on Black Terror, Red Terror, and the Jew scum that encourages it! Recruit new members! Build the strength and increase the fighting power of the Movement. Organize!

We Ain't Just Blowin' Smoke

Get close to the enemy. Timing and surprise will then be on your side ... Into the building — a grenade! A turning — another grenade!

From Dyle Bitner, San Quentin, CA

Violence in today's prisons has become a major issue of concern all across the nation, from Attica in New York State to our own San Quentin. Riots, stabbings and sudden death are commonplace in these breeding grounds of political revolution. The Communists and Marxists have long realized the potential manpower that, until a few years ago, lay dormant inside these gray walls. It took very little for them to stir the pot past the boiling point; the convicts were hungry for the words and outside support of these groups. And why not? For years nobody gave a damn about the convict and what did the convict have to lose? As a result such organizations as the SLA, the Black Guerilla Family and their Mexican counterpart, the Nuestra Familia, have sprang up to terrorize not only the white convict but white society as well with kidnapping, murder, robbery and rape as the order of the day. And who can stop them or even hold these groups in check?

The police and prison officials can do virtually nothing to control the rising tide of Black and Brown Power armies. Some would say to cut off the access to the outside sources of left wing political materials and support but this is an impossible task. It is impossible because how could they sort out the bad from the good without stopping all outside access and therefore ruin any possible chance of constructive prisoner groups to reach the convict. And even if the prison officials did stop "all" outside contact, it would not stop the flow of materials or support. Hell, the officials can't even stop the flow of drugs in today's prisons. Even guns are available on the yard! If the cops can't stop that, how can they hope to stop the flow of ideas or inspiration?

And the truly terrifying thing is the force and power of all these prison revolutionary groups is directed at you, the White citizens of this country and the world!

Yet there is hope. There are certain convicts inside the state prisons that refuse to lie down and be overrun by these Marxist and Communist motivated organizations! And, until recently, they have made their fight without outside support of any kind.

Greatfully, through the ideals of Captain Joe Tommasi and the dedication of Lt David Rust to carry out those ideals, we can hope to see a radical change in the prison atmosphere. Through donations of time and supplying of political educational materials, the white prison population has found the leadership and support it has sorely needed and has been denied until now.

The National Socialist Liberation Front has taken another courageous step towards the goal of white unity and White Power on a truly grand scale, a step unmatched by any "so-called" White Power organization in existence. NSLF has supplied the hope that is needed by so many to make a truly meaningful fight, here, where the battle rages even now.

THE "GET BACK" IS A "MOTHERFUCKER"!

On the night of November 14th, a Mexican member of the Nuestra Familia attacked and stabbed a white inmate while working in the Trade Area. He was brought to the hospital where the wound was found to be not serious. On the morning of November 15th, the five remaining members of the NF were brought to the prison hospital on stretchers because they were all in critical condition due to multiple stab wounds.

SAN FRANCISCO -

In typical Koehl fashion, the San Francisco unit of the NSWPP has been suspended. Another example of Koehls insane dictum: "Thin the ranks and build the Party". Well, the ranks are awfully thin and we've yet to see anything built except disgust and frustration in the hearts of dedicated National Socialists who are forced to watch what we all struggled so long and hard to build being destroyed.

THIN THE RANKS - BUILD THE PARTY really means FILL THE BANKS AND KILL THE PARTY!

WOMEN IN THE N.S. L. F.

Our women are allowed participation in all areas of NSLF activities, limited only by their abilities and talents. At the same time they are NOT pushed to mimic their masculine counterparts. We are only interested in a persons performance and dedication to the struggle to liberate the white community from Federal oppression and from the fear of nigger and Red terrorists.

BROTHERS BEHIND BARS

So you think we've got nigger problems? How would you like to be locked in a cage with six black animals and a swastika tatoood on your chest? That gives you a rough idea of what our white brothers face every day in prison. Outnumbered and without a suburb to move to, our Aryan brothers are fighting a courageous battle against the anti-White elements who for the most part adhere to Communist ideals. The NSLF pledges itself to aid our imprisoned comrades in every way! The NSLF would appreciate any information on Nuestra Familia (N. F.) a Mexican organization with ties to the Black Guerilla Family. Any information on street activities on either of these groups will be greatly appreciated.

Nigger and Red armed guerillas are on the streets. If you think you can stop them with uniforms and marches, you're out of touch with reality.

WHITE UNITY

Believing as we do that no single individual is capable of bringing victory to the White Nationalists and no single organization is equipt to deal with all the various aspects of the political-military struggle to overcome the forces of zionism and marxism here and abroad, the NSLF is fully prepared to coordinate its efforts with other Nationalist organizations. In line with this policy and in recognition of their special area of interest within the prison system, we wish to announce the conclusion of a formal alliance between the NSLF and the American National Socialist Brotherhood. Also an alliance and a bond of friendship has been formed between the NSLF and the streetside representative of the ANS, the American National Socialist Movement. Because of the honesty and open concern for the future of the White race shown by ANS representative Lt. Dyle Bitner and the leader of the ANSM Capt. John Butler, the discussions that led to the formation of this alliance proceeded without suspicion or hesitation that so often marks inter-organizational relations. These flaws that have prevented cooperation and unification of the White movement are the result of absurd egotism on the part of the leaders of the many factions represented in our movement and the mortal sin of placing one's self or one's organization ahead of the well-being of the race. This is an intolerable attitude that must be rooted out of our movement if we are ever to taste the fruits of victory. We must have brotherhood and unity in all levels of membership from the National Leaders on down to the rank and file membership. We must have tolerance and understanding through all the levels of activism from the bomb-throwers to the political canvasser. There is no place for bourgeois snobbery and arrogance that comes from continual self-assurance that ONLY your little organization has the corner on saving the race. The truth is that each organization only has a corner of the solution. We must have universal recognition of the fact that in order to re-take the country from the anti-White racists we must re-take the streets with tough, burly White men who will see to it that Whites can travel anywhere at anytime without fear of being assaulted by nigger gangs. We have to be able to field an effective and disciplined ARMED force to counter the ARMED leftist guerrila forces already at work in this country and around the world. AT THE SAME TIME we must promote political candidates and back White racialists who aspire to political office on the local and national level. This support must be continual and be coupled with the dissemination of National Socialist educational materials that will insure a comprehensive understanding on the part of all our racial bretheren as to the indisputable and absolute correctness of National Socialism as an effective and just form of government. By delivering our people from the fear and confusion forced upon them by the establishment in conspiracy with alien zionist interests we will insure not only the survival of the race but also the survival of our morality based on the communal interests of the race spurred by reward of individual effort. And we will bury once and for all the short-sighted Jewish inspired materialism that has brought about the pollution of our environment as well as the pollution of the minds of our children.

LT. DYLE BITNER, A. N. S. -San Quentin

In today's prison system as well as in the streets of America, we are witnessing the birth of a new racial awareness by our White Brothers. This awareness is as welcome as it is long overdue. For far too long we as a race have been separated by petty prejudice and intolerance among ourselves. This has been our greatest weakness and the greatest ally of our enemies.

Naturally we can never forgive crimes of racial treason. However, we can no longer call a man our enemy simply because of the cut of his clothes or his manner of speech. Today we look beyond the surface of our fellow White and into his heart. For it is in the hearts of our people that our true strength lies and it is this strength that will carry us to victory!

But even in this new awareness we still have a long way to go. This is only the beginning, the birth of White Unity and White Power on a grander scale than we have ever known. Now each and every one of us must make it his personal obligation and sacred duty to promote White Unity. Whether you are a student in school, a working man on the job or a convict in prison, there is no place where the words of unity and revolution should not be heard. Let the faith and honesty between us be as true as the color of our skin that is our uniform.

Across the nation your Brothers are scattered, by themselves or isolated in small groups. We must reach out to them and stand as ONE united people in the face of the dangers all around us. We face the greatest struggle in the history of our country, the struggle for the survival of our race. Each man must declare his allegiance to his brothers and his RACE. With the army raised from the streets and prison cells of America we will see a revolution equal to the one that gave birth to this country and more earth-shaking than any revolution history has known.

SHORT SHOTS

Ohio - Following the publication of "The Ohio National Socialist" No. 15 by Bob Brannen of The National Socialist Movement, a panic-stricken attack by the NSWPP in Arlington was launched. In their "N.S. Bulletin" of Feb. 15, 1976, they hysterically denounced Comrade Brennan as an "FBI PIMP"! ? and "Garbage Peddler". We recommend that all National Socialists write to Bob Brannen and request a copy of the excellent 15th issue of his publication. The NSLF considers Bob Brannen to be a comrade and patriot. The charges made against him are, of course, absurd. We find it amusing however, that the charge of "garbage peddling" stems from Brannen's discussion of the well-known details of Matt Koehl's alleged homosexual misconducts. Bob Brannen's mailing address is: N.S.M., P.O. Box 174, South Lebanon, Ohio 45065.

Other Ohio news - James N. Mason, NSWPP organizer and long-time member has finally called it quits. After ten years of association and membership in the NSWPP through which he valiantly struggled against the forces of racial treason and defeat loose within that organization, James Mason in an open letter to Matt Koehl recited his carefully thought out convictions and conclusions as to the disastrous course along which Koehl has guided the NSWPP since his unfortunate ascension to leadership in 1967. With the departure of Mason goes the last of the Brown-shirted revolutionaries leaving Koehl with his Brown-nosed fan-club. For the most comprehensive explanation of the madness that has destroyed the NSWPP, write to James N. Mason P.O. Box 42, Chillicothe, Ohio 45601.

Calif. - Bill Sickles of the Adamic Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has been travelling around the nation working with units and member organizations of the WHITE CONFEDERACY, an umbrella organization containing various white racist groups. The NSLF and representatives of the American National Socialist Movement (P.O. Box 53, San Dimas, Calif.) having met with Mr. Sickles, found his cooperation almost unlimited in pursuit of our common goals. Having just left the Ohio area where he was instrumental in organizing literature distributions with John Gerhardt and his American White Nationalist Party, Mr. Sickles has unselfishly continued to offer his services locally.

Calif. - We are proud and happy to announce that Rose Tommasi, who was six weeks pregnant at the time Captain Tommasi was murdered, has given birth to a big handsome baby boy, weight: 8 lbs, 11 ozs. He has black hair like his father and has been named Joseph. Both mother and child are doing fine.

IN THE WORKS

Plans have been laid and the wheels set in motion. What we are preparing is a NEW thrust in our propoganda war against the establishment zionists in the form of a REVOLUTIONARY and extremely professional series of FULL COLOR political posters. The first in this series is entitled THE ISRAELI WAR MACHINE, a graphic picture of the evil zionist political and military monster as it devours BILLIONS of American dollars while our own military becomes a second-rate beggar that must content itself with whatever cast-offs Israel doesn't want.

AVAILABLE NOW

A lithograph, black and white portrait of Captain Joseph Tommasi measuring 11 x 14 inches, can be purchased from the NSLF for the price of three dollars, plus fifty cents for postage and handling, a total of $3.50. Send your check or money order to : NSLF, P.O. Box 4168, Panorama City, California 91402.

WE NEED YOU!.....and your money

We would like to send you literature by the pound; Good hard hitting REVOLUTIONARY news that would keep you right on top of the Movement whose time has come — The White Revolutionary Movement. But we can't! Why? Our staff are all working class whites and so are our supporters. We don't have any millionaire benefactors and we're not on the government payroll. So...we have to work for a living and with whatever we can donate in time and out of our own pockets, coupled with our members dues, we manage to publish National Socialist Review, have leaflets printed, pay postage costs and generally provide all the little things that you expect from an organization. But we want to do more! We want to grow! We want to make National Socialist Review into a full-sized magazine and there is so much more to do! But we can't do it without your help. Right now we have projects in the works that are designed to bring in more money but it takes money to make money. So...it's up to you. Will you help us grow with a contribution of 5, 10 or 20 dollars?

For the legal protection of the caller, the identity of the person who spoke with Dan Stewart, the person in charge of the National Socialist White People's Party Headquarters in El Monte, California, will be kept secret, but for the purpose of this transcript will be referred to as "Interested Party". The call was made to the Party building on 16 August 1975, Saturday, at about 6:00 PM. The tape from which this transcript has been made has been destroyed:

IP: Can I speak to Dan Stewart?

DS: Who's calling please?

IP: Interested Party identifies himself.

DS: Yeah. This is Dan Stewart.

IP: Yeah, say, I just read in the papers and I was wondering just what went on over there.

DS: Well there's been a little feud going on here you know and it seems that Mr. Tommasi tried to come into the building here with a club and that was the wrong thing to do.

IP: What are your personal feelings about this?

DS: What are my personal feelings about it?

IP: Yes.

DS: Well, I think that Mr. Tommasi had become anti-Party and practically a Communist and I can't say I disagree with what happened.

IP: You mean you're in favor of this guy killing Joe?

DS: Yes. I really am.

IP: Don't you think we have enough enemies that would like to do that?

DS: Joe Tommasi is our biggest enemy.

IP: Why is this?

DS: Oh, he's just anti-Party. He's anti-Commander and he's all out for Joe Tommasi. He doesn't adhere to Adolf Hitler's teachings. He's just a Che Gueverra type, underground clandestine arms stock-piler and he's gone over to believing in the violent overthrow of the government. The main thing is he's anti-National Socialist White People's Party. He's not attacking what he calls our enemies. He's not attacking the Communists. He's not attacking non-Whites and Jews. He's attacking us.

IP: I attended this big hateful Socialist Worker's Party meeting in which Joe Tommasi was the big topic of discussion. They were really fearful of him and all of a sudden they don't kill him; you guys do.

DS: Yes, well, it's unfortunate. He shouldn't have been on our property here. He was told to stay off here.

IP: Who's this guy that killed him anyway?

DS: Jerry Jones. He's from Portland, Oregon.

IP: How long has he been with the Movement?

DS: He's been with us for awhile. He's been an Official Supporter for awhile.

IP: About two years?

DS: I don't know. Maybe that long. I don't know all the details.

IP: You didn't know him too well then?

DS: No. I didn't know him real well. He just arrived here not too long ago.

IP: About a month?

DS: He's been on Staff here.

IP: About two months?

DS: Oh, maybe that long. Not long enough to know Joe Tommasi, just long enough to know how to defend the building.

IP: You ever tell him that if Joe Tommasi came on the property, to kill him?

DS: Oh, no.

IP: Would you have told his him that?

DS: Are you in the NSLF yourself?

IP: No. I'm not with them. I'm not a member of his group.

DS: No. I instruct these people here that if anyone forces illegal entry into the building, to shoot him and shoot to kill. If anyone.....

IP: Did he know Joe at all?

DS: Yes.

IP: Are you guys planning to have a meeting about this or anything in the near future?

DS: No.

IP: Nothing at all, huh?

DS: No.

IP: Do you have meetings at all?

DS: No.

IP: How come?

DS: Well, the city has gotten down on h us here. 'Can't hold meetings in this old building.

IP: What do you do then?

DS: Well, we don't. Let's put it that way as far as the meetings go.

IP: You have no way of getting together with your people at all?

DS: Oh yes. We have ways of get'ing together with them.

IP: How's this?

DS: We can't hold meetings. We have to hold them someplace else.

IP: Okey dokey. Is your headquarters open if I want to come over to see you or something?

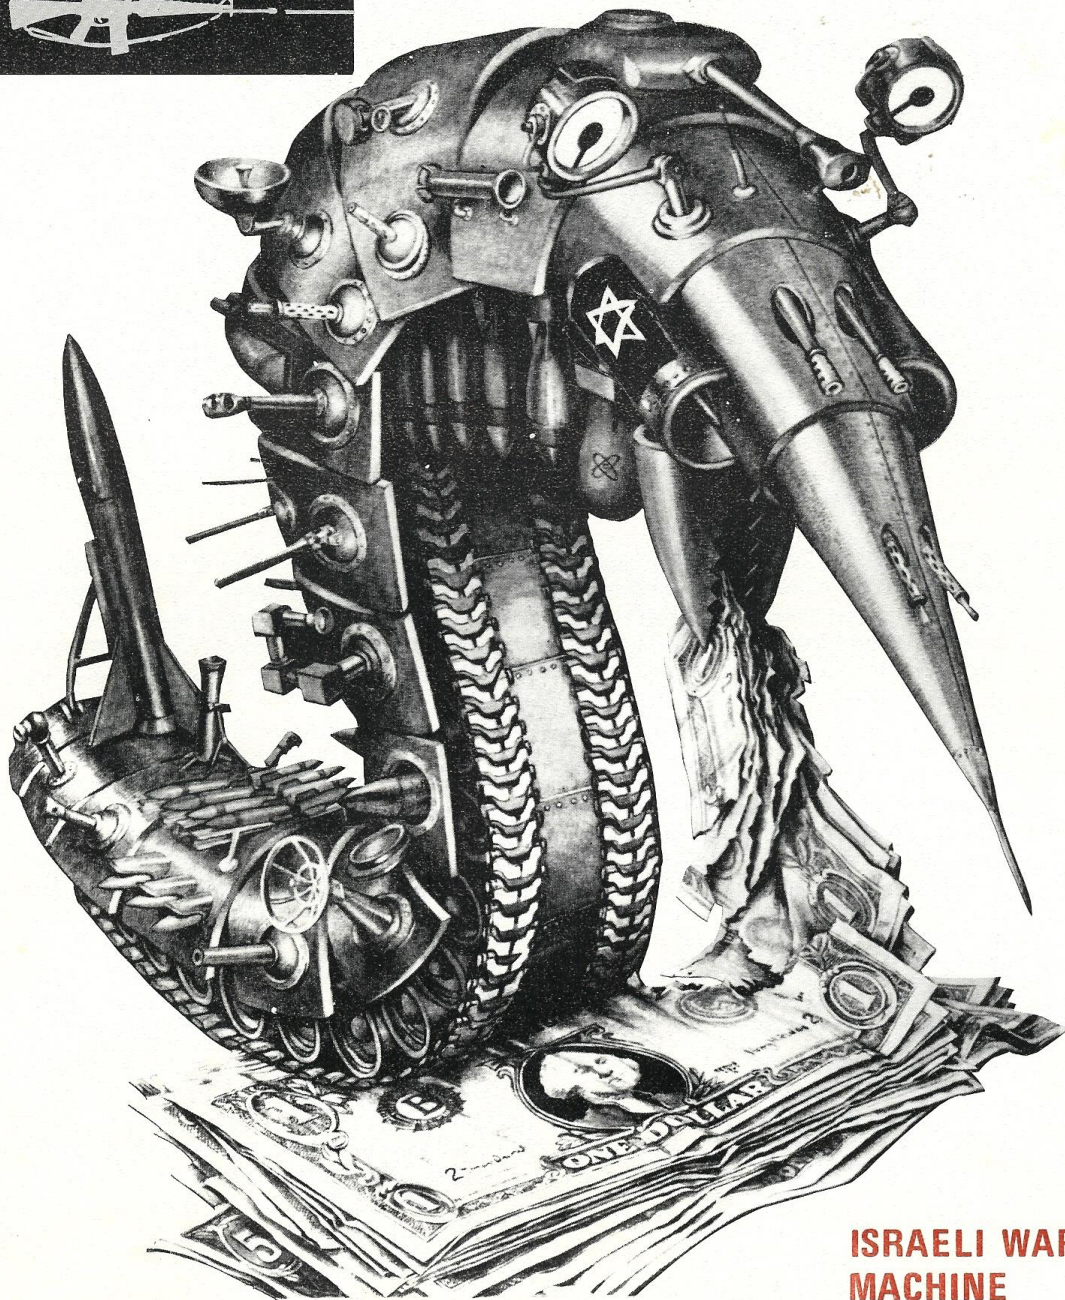

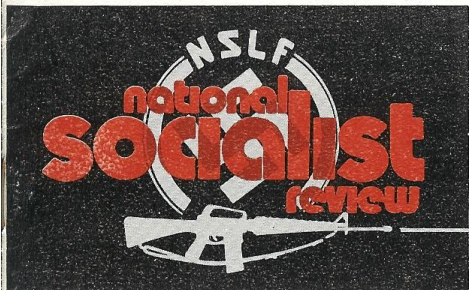

DS: We're not open right now.

IP: You're not allowed to have guests? Visitors?

DS: That's right.

IP: No visitors. DS: That's right. IP: Okey dokey. I'll be seeing you then.

DS: Bye.

National Socialist Review is the Official publication of the National Socialist Liberation Front. Correspondence should be addressed to NSLF, P.O. Box 4168, Panorama City, CA 91402. The NSLF is the legitimate successor to George Lincoln Rockwell's American Nazi Party and as such will continue his struggle through ALL avenues of politics or prisons until VICTORY OR DEATH! The NSLF maintains friendly ties with any and all organizations that support our struggle for the liberation of America from zionism and the liberation of THE WORLD from Marxism. ALL our prison business is handled by The American National Socialist Brotherhood.

Subscriptions to N.S.R. are now available for $10.00 per year or $1.00 per copy. We are sending copies into the prison system without charge but we urge the readership outside of prison to SPONSOR a subscription for a White Prisoner. This may also serve as an opportunity for White Racialists inside the prison system to correspond with their counterpart outside. Our funds are extremely limited and WE MUST raise funds to carry on this program, so everyone's aid is a NECESSITY.

We would also like to ask Federal and local Law Enforcement organizations to quit being so fuckin' cheap and ripping off copies of our publications . . . . Why don't you subscribe like any other upstanding citizen, and stop this life of crime before you go on to BIGGER things?!!!

THE JEWISH QUESTION

Because of the aims and goals of the NSLF, we have concentrated the main thrust of our publications toward keeping the National Socialist community informed of the changes in directions, tactics, and leadership within the Movement. Meanwhile we've neglected to explain the National Socialist policy and the facts that have led to the development of the National Socialist program. A letter we've received brought out clearly our failure to educate potential revolutionary National Socialists who cannot help but be confused considering the enormous amounts of propaganda used by the Jews to distort the truth about themselves and their so-far successful program to enslave the people of the world through their twin programs of Zionism and Marxism.

The Letter -

The main reason for my letter is this: While I feel that I'm fairly well informed on communists and niggers, my "education" is severely lacking on the subject of Jews. I have only had contact with one Jew. While I hated his mother-fucking guts, I felt that one contact wasn't enough to generalize about the entire race. Many times I have had people approach me asking, "Why do the Germans (Nazis) hate Jews?", and I wouldn't have a good answer for them. Not wanting to seem ignorant on such an important matter, I would tell them of Hitler's feelings of Jews as "degenerated negroes." However, I had the feeling that these people, potential National Socialists, went away disappointed with my lack of explicit information. I would very much appreciate it if you could enlighten me on the Jewish question.

With White Pride,

Jerry Eisenhart

The Answer -

Surrounded as we are by political documents and the overwhelming number of negative opinions expressed about the Jewish race by great Americans such as George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, U.S. Grant, Mark Twain, Henry Ford, Charles Lindbergh, (All documented. We dare anyone to challenge the authenticity of their statements!) it's difficult to know where to start. First, let's dispel a little of the Jews' smoke screen: They are a RACE, not a religion. They may or may not follow the rituals of Judaism depending upon whether or not there is any profit in it, but they have the qualifications of a race. They even have a disease, genetically inherited, called Tay-Sachs that nobody else can get. Among themselves they consider themselves a race and the only time they say otherwise is when there are non-Jews around who they want to elicit sympathy from because of "religious persecution". (Keep that in mind-fictitious religious persecution is THE KEY to their con game.) Being a race they have certain inherited traits that shape their lives. To deny this is to deny the science of genetics. Genetics is why the black race has existed for thousands of years and never gotten beyond building mud huts in Africa while the White race builds civilizations with such advanced technology that we've reached through the awesome void of space and touched whole new worlds. Genetics is why the Jew cannot exist except as parasite within the nation and culture of other races. He is an international thief and the destroyer of national pride. His methods have not changed in a thousand years and why should they? They succeed. They deliver up the wealth of nations and deliver the nation into slavery.

CHUTZPAH -

A Yiddish word for a peculiar racial trait of the Jew. It only translates roughly into English because we don't pride ourselves on the humiliation of other human beings. CHUTZPAH is when a Jew robs you then gets you to fight for him when your neighbor, who was also robbed, comes to exact justice. CHUTZPAH is when the Jew sells back to you what he has stolen. CHUTZPAH is when a Jew asks refuge in your country, takes control of your government and has you pay taxes to build and defend his treasure house. CHUTZPAH is when American planes are used to kill American sailors and the Mayor of America's largest city raises the Jewish flag, and America sinks deeper into shame and humiliation.... And the Jew sneers CHUTZPAH!

THE METHODS - CAPITALISM

Even the ghetto nigger knows he's getting ripped off when he deals with the Jew pawnbroker but he accepts it as "the way things are". But that's only the lowest rung of the Jewish Capitalist ladder that reaches into Congress, the White House, the courts and beyond to multinational corporations that reap enormous profits by ruining the economy of the countries whose industrial might the Jew has under his control. So complete is this control and so docile are we Americans that when President Ford mentioned that we shouldn't let "special interest groups" (the Zionist Jews) control our foreign policy, his statement was censored. Senator William Fulbright fully realizing that it meant the end of his career in the Senate, stood before the Congress and blasted them for "putting the interests of Israel ahead of the well-being of the United States". Fulbright's remarks were not heard outside of Congress and after more than thirty years in Congress, he was not re-elected. That's the same Senate that voted 96 out of 100 for unconditional support of Israel. The same Congress that votes BILLIONS yearly so that Israel can make war on her Arab neighbors! Where is this money coming from? YOU! All these Senators and Congressmen are being bought off with the rip-off profits that these Jew-Capitalists have been taking from you and ruining the United States economy as well. Meanwhile, these Zionists who run our government spent YOUR tax money to MURDER 34 American sailors and wound nearly 100 more on the unarmed American communications ship, the U.S.S. LIBERTY! (June 1967) The attack was carried out by U.S. supplied Phantom jets after the U.S.S. LIBERTY radioed that Israeli troops were seizing MORE Arab land. Israel has grown TWELVE times its original size since 1948. Israel is most important to the Jew-Capitalists because Americans, like many, many people before them will turn on these traitors and Israel will be their place of refuge. And of course they will claim to be victims of "religious persecution".

SOLVING THE JEW PROBLEM

Let me reiterate - the Zionist-Capitalists HAVE captured the United States. They have seized the positions of power and influence in both business and government. From behind the thin cover of house-niggers like Jerry Ford or Tom Bradley, they carry on the business of building an enormous financial empire whose Capitol is Jerusalem, whose God is Gold and whose agents exist in the key positions of ALL nations. The policies of the U.S. Government are THEIR policies; they benefit NO ONE else! THINK! Why should we sell wheat to our Communist adversary, Russia? Why would we abandon South Viet Nam, Laos, Angola, and soon Nationalist China and Korea because we FEAR foreign involvement and yet declare ourselves prepared to be consumed in a nuclear holocaust for the sake of the Jews of Israel! Whose policy is that? Whose policy was it that sent hundreds of thousands of American boys to their death in Europe to save the Soviet Union and to "punish" Germany for having the audacity to expell the Jews that were eating away the national honor and racial pride there the same way they have done in the United States and the same way they have done in EVERY nation that has listened to their lies of "religious persecution". Protected by the media they own - you will never hear them criticized, even by the President of the United States who has learned that even HE cannot criticize their un-American activities. It is so easy to point to the nigger with his savagery and lazy self-indulgent ways. It is easy to see the industrious White workers thrown out of work to make way for blacks. Easier still to see the peacefull well-kept White neighborhood turned into a violent jungle where the old and helpless are attacked and robbed. But how much more difficult it is to point to the Jew who introduced the bill in Congress that forces the hiring of blacks and the firing of whites. How difficult it is to point to the judge who turned a deaf ear to the pleas of White parents who fear for the safety of their children who are to be bussed into a nigger school.... We opened our country to the Jew because they were being driven out of another nation, "persecuted", they said. That's what they've always said. Now they own our country, steal our wealth, our national honor, and spill the blood of our young men in vain. We've given them the weapons of war and they've turned them against us. We must cease ALL military aid to Israel! We must demand an OPEN PUBLIC hearing be conducted and covered by the media concerning, 1. The Isreali attempt to bomb the American embassy in Cairo in 1954, in order to sabotage American-Egyptian relations, 2. The unprovoked act of war committed by Israel against the U.S.S. Liberty, 3. The existence of Isreali intelligence agents within the very highest American security agencies, 4. The exposure of the rich Zionist lobby and its successful efforts in preventing the formation of friendly ties within pro-Western, anti-Communist Arab states such as Egypt, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, etc. This is just the barest of outlines, just the summary of a history of a race of people whose genetic nature is parasitic and non-productive. Their greatest fear is the National Socialist, for they know WE understand them. To rule, they must destroy our race. Race-mixing and useless fratricidal wars are their tools to control and destroy us.

MARXISM -

As Zionist-Capitalism beguiles the wealthy and further exploits the working people until the pressure becomes unbearable, a second Jewish con makes its appearance on the scene. It may call itself by any name to suit its purpose: Republicanism, Democracy, Social-Democracy or Socialism but it is invariably Marxism. Karl Marx, a German Jew, set down in writing the second half of the tactics used by the Jews for centuries to divide and conquer nations that were unfortunate enough to have allowed them to settle within their borders. It works something like this: The Zionist-Capitalist Jew hiding behind a figurehead like Gerald Ford or Lyndon Johnson or Winston Churchill carries out the usual outrageous profiteering that brings enormous amounts of money into their hands and leaves the workers with barely enough to survive on. This is not done once or twice, but over and over until the nation is morally and economically bankrupt. His schemes having been discovered so many times before, the Jew has developed another means of shifting the blame and then placing the whole nation under a system that is nothing short of slavery. First the smoke screen: Marx divides the people into classes, The Bourgeois (Upper class, factory owner, etc.), Petty Bourgeois (Small property owners, shop keepers, etc.), and the Proletariat (supposedly the workers and wage earners, but more often in Marxist revolutions they are the welfare cases). This is appropriate to the tactic of "divide and conquer". The first part of the Marxist job has already been done for him by the Zionist-Capitalist, that is, the Jewish-Capitalist has convinced the figurehead and house niggers (Bourgeoisie) that they can do anything they like with complete disregard for the well-being of the people of the nation. These are the people who are supposed to be running the country, giving it direction and guidance, yet they are taking orders from Jews like Henry Kissinger! First step completed, the government is working hand in hand with the Jews for profit and considers itself a "priveleged CLASS". Now the Marxist steps in to "save" the workers (Proletariat). Over and over again the workers, the niggers, the women, the braceros are told they are the Proletariat, A CLASS, and they are ALL alike. (Next time you meet a good looking woman, walk up to her and say "You're just like a nigger to me, honey.") John Lennon did it - remember the song "Women Are The Niggers Of The World"? The Marxist teaches that there is NO difference in RACE. No difference in sex and everything is total equality. And in the Marxist slave state, he's right. A slave is a slave. Now who are these people teaching this insane doctrine? Well, just off the top of my head without really trying, we've got Jerry Rubin, Gloria Steinem, Bela Abzug, Abbie Hoffman - The Progressive Labor Party is headed by a Jew named Levy Laub, its featured spokesman-Greenburg. In the Communist Party U.S.A. you have the Aptheckers, Socialist Workers Party, Weinstock and Leon, as well as the founder of that branch of Marxist thought, Leon Trotsky himself whose real name was Bronstein.

Ho-Hum. You've got the Institute of Marxist Studies with speakers such as Weinstock and Weiss. Enough? You should see the list we come up with when I open the files to LOOK for the Jews involved. So with Marxist Jews controlling the workers and Capitalist Jews controlling the government, the struggle for power begins. If these were the only two forces involved, the outcome would be totally predictable and irreversible. With the misguided but determined inertia of the mob behind them the Marxist Jews will continue to overthrow the Jew-Capitalists (Who knowing full well what is coming will have long since fled to Israel) the TRAITOROUS figure-heads will be executed as they deserve but tragically so will MILLIONS of honest Nationalists who gave their life blood to prevent the capture of their nation by the brainwashed Marxist hordes. In China, Mao Tse Tung executed OVER TEN MILLION patriots. In Russia the Bolsheviks executed every Russian that even whispered that they loved their nation more than the hated Marxism with its hundreds of Jewish Commissars. When the guns cool and the dead are buried along with the country they call their own, then the people discover that they've traded a government of thieves for a government of slavery. They have nothing; it all belongs to THE STATE. They have no family for that is an outmoded concept. The STATE is mother and father. A WORKERS' PARADISE was promised and a sterile land of robots was delivered. Freedom from want does not mean they have what they want but instead there is nothing available for them to want. I have a worker's paradise in my backyard: They eat, they work, they die. They want for nothing. There is nothing for them to want - it is all for THE STATE. What a grand and marvelous state it is too! Why they've built their little ant hill over six inches high!

THE DILEMMA -

Very clever, really slick the way they've caught the world in what the military would call a "pincer movement". No, it's not clever, it's older than the existence of man. It is not only disgusting because it relies on the quality in man that takes pity on the suffering, it is the essence of the thrust for the Jewish domination of the nations of the world. "Religious persecution." Yes, we will admit to persecuting their religion when the practice of it involves stealing from us -----then reducing us to slavery. Call that religion and I'll persecute the hell out of it! Wolf packs use the same tactic when they are hunting a large and dangerous Stag; one group on his left and one group on his right driving him back and forth between them until he is too exhausted to fight. Then they all move in and tear the poor animal to pieces. There is one thing that the wolves are very careful about and that's letting the Stag rejoin his herd. Whenever he turns in that direction they head him off howling even more loudly than before because in his herd in their unity there is power and safety. Who are the Jews frightened of? Why do they let leftists scream Black Power! Brown Power! and every other kind except White Power? Because we are the strongest race. They cannot openly defeat us in open battle but only through trickery and deceit. Only through making us into Marxists and house-niggers or mercenaries fighting against our own kind like the cops in Boston and Louisville, can they hope to defeat us. And they are doing it! Now my Aryan Brothers, it's time to take the gloves off. It's time to fight for your survival because the race that hasn't the courage to fight to survive with every weapon at its disposal WILL NOT SURVIVE! If you did not know your enemies, you know them now! Yes, the niggers and the Marxist braceros and the Red Chinese -- but these are the arms and legs of the enemy and we must strike the HEAD if we are to destroy the reptilian monster that sends his hordes against us - THE JEWS!

ROSENBERGS PROVE THEY'RE NOT REDS - GO TO EAST BERLIN!

★ Los Angeles Times Tues., April 20, 1976 --Part 1 17

Son of Ethel, Julius Rosenberg Arrives for Visit in E. Berlin

From Times-Wire Services

EAST BERLIN—A son of executed American atom spies Ethel and Julius Rosenberg arrived in East Berlin Monday after an invitation of the East German Peace Council and the Paul Robeson Committee, the official news agency ADN reported.

Robert Meeropol, who is trying to exonerate his parents' reputations, will stay in East Germany for several days, ADN said.

You may recall last year in February a large meeting organized to "clear" the names of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, the Jews who sold American atomic secrets to the Russians, was totally disrupted when National Socialists threw an exploding tear gas bomb onto the stage, sending a lot of big name stars, reds and Jews streaming out of the auditorium. (We're really proud of that one!) Anyway it seems that although they were discouraged by the set-back, the Rosenberg kids are still working to prove that their traitorous parents aren't nearly as bad as the U.S. Government PROVED they were in a court of law. True to their colors (RED) they are proceeding in a manner which would have made their parents proud. They've gone off to EAST GERMANY! I'm sure the East Germans believe them - "Ve do goot business mit yur parents. Ve do goot business mit you, Ya?"

MOVEMENT NOTES

So far a real dissappointing showing in the requests for contributions that went out with the last mailing. There could be several reasons for this but we suspect LAZINESS is the main one. Is that contribution envelope we sent out last month sitting on the coffee table under your copy of PLAYBOY magazine? How many of you gave the extra envelope to an interested friend? Which brings us to the point- ACTIVISM! People shook their heads and muttered to themselves when we announced that we were NOT a Mass Movement organization, that we were going after the MILITANT ACTIVIST WHITES. We have allied organizations who are mass movement oriented and in the TRUE spirit of National Socialism there is tremendous inter-action between us - for we are ONE MOVEMENT! But understand this: No movement in history has succeeded simply because of MASS support. It has always required the REVOLUTIONARY MINORITY to take the offensive and destroy the minority ruling clique. Fully sixty per cent of the Americans in the colonies were against the American Revolution! Of the remaining forty per cent, less than a third took up arms to fight for independence! We are proud to be members of this minority of activists but it infuriates me to know that some are sitting out there with the utmost arrogance, thinking "Why these small groups don't have a chance. Why should I waste my money?" While I have personally had to INSIST that some of our truly dedicated members and supporters take back their money BECAUSE IN SOME CASES IT'S THEIR RENT MONEY!

In another case our member was deeply in debt over court cases and appeals! Another member sold his car, his only means of transportation to help pay for the printing. I WILL NOT bleed our members and supporters to death JUST to keep YOU entertained! But you go ahead and hang on to those green backs and SEE how much it buys you when the nigger and red revolutionaries stand you up against the wall! WE may well be the first to go AS MANY REACTIONARY COWARDS have suggested but we'll die FIGHTING like WHITE MEN and not led like sheep to the slaughter because your children, like the good little reds they are being taught to be, tells the local Commissar that you read counter-revolutionary books like the Holy Bible.....To those who did contribute, many thanks. With your help we were JUST able to make ends meet, though we were unable to initiate the new projects we'd hoped to. With just a little luck maybe the majority who didn't help out will see how each has to do his part, no matter how small and the combined effort will bring us a strong National Socialist America. We are truly proud of the revolutionary efforts exerted by the handful of N.S. Revolutionaries and the White Race has again shown the strength of its blood in these sons and daughters of America!

.....David Rust

Now for some good news

NSLF SHOOT-OUT IN DELAWARE (New Castle County)

National H.Q. in Los Angeles awaits confirmation of the details of an abortive Red assault on NSLF members. Early reports indicate that on May 20th at approximately 9 PM, a white Chevrolet pulled up behind an NSLF vehicle and immediately opened fire with semi-automatic rifles, shattering the rear window and narrowly missing the driver. The driver and passenger of the NSLF vehicle (whose identities are unknown at this time) "hit the deck" and came up firing 45 automatic pistols. The exchange lasted several minutes until a second car pulled up along side the first and two white niggers were seen carrying a run of the mill black nigger into the second car, at which time the second car sped away. A quick search of the bullet riddled white Chevrolet revealed the owner, who was contacted, was the victim of a car theft. We request newspaper clippings from any and all comrades in the area for a closer follow-up next month. If you have any clippings OR other information, send it immediately to National H.Q. If you are in that area and like action, contact the NSLF representative John Duffy, Sgt. NSLF at PO Box 3129, Newport, Delaware 19804.

TWO IMPORTANT ITEMS - NSLF units make sure that following ANY activity, phone calls are made to newspapers, UPI, etc. and that National H.Q. gets original clippings. A lot of you people are raising hell in your own little area but you're helping the Jews control the spread of White resistance by isolating it. The same holds true for other organizations. Let's hear from you! For instance:

Christians and Patriots - Los Angeles

GOOD WORK! If there's anything we like it's terrorism with CLASS! Here's what happened. A nigger family whose presence in the community of Redondo Beach had been the cause of a lot of bad feeling was at home one evening when they heard a loud THUMP at the door. After waiting awhile they slowly opened the door to find a large AXE had split the center of the door. Outside on their lawn a six foot cross was blazing. The next day they left town. A couple more crosses were burned and a Jew by the name of Simon called a meeting of the Redondo Beach city council and he demanded they call in the Sheriff's Dept., the FBI and every other heavy law group they could think of. Whites are getting MURDERED by NIGGER GANGS and the cops just shrug their shoulders and say "There's nothing we can do about it." So, nobody looks out for Whites except for ourselves. Remember that. P.S., Christians and Patriots drop us a line, O.K?

Sunland, Calif. - Two young whites aged 16 and 17 showed more courage and revolutionary inclination than most self-styled radicals when they set a cross on fire in the doorway of a home owned by a nigger and a white female racial traitor living with him. After being caught and questioned, the youths were asked if they were sorry for what they had done. They replied "Hell no! When we get out we're going back up there again!"

NSLF Comment -

On the above story, following the example of the Christians and Patriots in Redondo Beach, Calif., there have been numerous cross burnings across the Southern California area. These young people, like the youth in Boston, are reacting to the obvious racial prejudice in favor of blacks being experienced by Whites in every state and city where Federal laws are being implemented. It is Federal policy that: Whenever possible, Whites should be passed over in favor of blacks in industry, in civil government, in education and in the military. This has caused a great deal of bitterness in Whites who, in many cases, have little or no contact with niggers and could not be considered "racists". In a sense we owe the government a vote of thanks for implementing these heavy-handed policies, because it is only through contact with niggers that Whites understand them for what they are - not intellectual, coherent Sidney Poitier types, but unproductive, violent racists who destroy everything they come into contact with. These facts are only understood when seen through your own eyes and through your own experience, uncolored by the "never-never land" of the Jew controlled movie, television, radio and newspaper fantasy. It's only when you realize that razor slashes, gang beatings and bloody murders and mutilations ARE REALITY and that you have only two choices, either RESISTANCE or SUBMISSION. But my liberal and reactionary friends, submission is no GUARANTEE of your safety! What is NEVER pointed out to you is that these attacks, too numerous to catalogue here, are RACIST! For reasons known to the Jews themselves AND to us National Socialists, the general public is being educated to believe that ONLY whites are capable of racism. Meanwhile, our youth is being educated to TOTAL submission and terrorized by the naked hatred exhibited by these nigger racists. Amid the slaughter and terror inflicted upon the White public, a small healthy resistance is growing and spreading. In the vanguard is the youth; the symbol of their resistance is a small burning cross and a large burning sense of injustice in their hearts. These burning crosses and the SWASTIKAS they spray paint on the walls are the first stirrings of the resistance born of the youth themselves, as yet politically uneducated but fully experienced in the degradation of being racially suppressed. Unless the government makes some radical changes in its policies toward the White Race, these youths, who are seeking the answers that WE can supply them, will turn to violence on a larger and more effective scale than this country ever believed possible. Even now, the Government is aware of this and is attempting to stamp out this resistance. A nigger is beaten in Boston and the FBI is called in. A cross is burned in California and the Sheriff's department and the FBI are called in. This ordering of priorities should convince even the most skeptical as to WHO runs the government and WHO they are afraid of. The FBI doesn't order its own priorities. It slavishly follows the orders of the PEOPLE IN POWER. Add it up. Mass murders, kidnappings, mutilations, and niggers in conspiracy with Marxist organizations, receive very little attention by law enforcement on the Federal level (local law enforcement varies but it must be remembered that to receive Federal monies and cooperation, local law enforcement must follow Federal policies). But White children set fire to a cross AND NO ONE IS INJURED and the FBI is called in! Well, I can imagine the Feds are really proud of themselves, grilling children and trying to continue the process of terror and submission that is taught in the integrated school system of the U.S.A. It is our duty to see to it that these young people receive the support and education they need. If sacrifices must be made, then we must spare no effort to aid the White resistance whenever and wherever we may find it. If we do not, if we temporize or hang back, if we allow our fear or apathy to deter us then we are condemned to extinction as surely as any species that is unwilling or unable to fight for its survival. The children know it instinctively. If the older generation does not support its youth in every way it is guilty of betraying the future and WE are the future!

ARYAN BROTHERHOOD Knifes 2 Gorillas

Los Angeles County Jail - The leader of the Black Guerilla Family named Holliday and one of his lieutenants walked into the library section and were carried out on stretchers after they tangled with "Fast Freddy", a member of the Aryan Brotherhood. Congratulations on "takin' care of business", A. B.

Chicago - May 31st. A bomb blast damaged the NSWPP building in Cicero. The Sheriff's bomb and arson unit was called in to investigate but they had no leads to go on except a telephone call that stated : "That (the bomb) was for the reactionary interference with the National Socialist Revolution!" No other message was given.

El Monte - The endless terrorist attacks and raids by the NSLF has finally taken its toll on the NSWPP H.Q. building, it is no longer habitable with the holes blown in the walls and all the broken windows. Having found El Monte unsafe and their present location too difficult to defend, that unit has decided to leave the city. But it wont help - Kerr and company aren't going to be safe ANYWHERE in California.

Omaha - The NSWPP unit in Nebraska, following the lead of many, many individuals and NS units, is calling it quits! In a carefully thought out letter to the NSLF, they inquired as to our requirements to form a unit and ran down the reasons for their departure from the crumbling NSWPP structure. These two lines sum up the feelings of a great many National Socialists who are looking for a realistic movement : "The NSWPP has been a shocking nightmare for all of us. Those people in Arlington are real reactionaries and defeatists; they are only interested in their bank account! We will no longer be subject to their stupid red-tape hang up and uniform insanity...."

San Francisco - Allen Vincent, long time NSWPP organizer and unit leader has officially left the NSWPP and organized his own group, the National Socialist White Workers Party or NSWWP (Don't get it confused with the NSWPP). Vincent, well known for his years and years of devoted service to the National Socialist cause has traveled through California on many occasions to organize for the NSWPP, sparing no expense or effort to make the demonstrations he participated in a success. Most National Socialists remember him for his heroic one-man vigil on the steps of the San Francisco City Hall, in full uniform, to commemorate Adolf Hitler's birthday. From that beginning, he built the San Francisco Unit of the NSWPP. The San Francisco Unit was a large and successful National Socialist organization, having regular demonstrations and newspaper sales. Shortly after an "inspection tour" by David Martin Kerr and Bruce Matthews from El Monte (The same Koehl spies who recommended the expulsion of Joseph Tommasi) and a man from a nearby Tracy unit, Vincent was relieved of command by Koehl for "allowing beer to be served after a Party celebration." Recently Vincent has been travelling again, this time organizing for his own Party. While in Los Angeles, he spoke to a large gathering of National Socialists and premiered the movie, "CALIFORNIA REICH", a documentary made by two young liberals to "tell it like it is." It is primarily about the Northern California NSWPP, while still in Vincent's control. Allen Vincent was well recieved in Los Angeles and NSLF CO David Rust expressed full support for Vincent's efforts in a short statement to the assembly. Vincent is deeply committed to the uniformed demonstration and we feel in view of his long experience that he is well qualified to perform in that capacity. We therefore recommend that National Socialists who feel that this type of action is for them to contact Allen Vincent. The old post office box is no longer in Vincent's hands, so if you wish to contact him, his organization address is NSWWP, P.O. Box 1345, Inglewood, CA 90308. Also available from NSWWP c/o John Stewart: 9 hrs of original National Socialist Music, in STEREO; On six 90 min. tapes @ $21 per set of six tapes.

San Francisco - As Vincent came down south, CO David Rust later went north. It was time for a long over due meeting between the leader of the NSLF and the leaders and officers of the San Quentin American National Socialist Brotherhood. After being processed through San Quentin's security checks and being found "clean", CO Rust waited in the unfamiliar surroundings of a visitor's waiting room until the name of Dyle Bitner was called. Lt Bitner a personal friend of Rust, was waiting for him when he entered the visiting room. There amidst the noise of hundreds of people, Rust was briefly introduced to a number of ranking officers who quickly returned to their own visitors, in most cases, wives and children. All the officers were courteous and had a readysmile and a firm handshake. Then the two officers, Dyle Bitner of the ANS and David Rust of the NSLF got down to serious discussion that lasted over three hours. The topics covered were numerous but one thing was obvious - there was little to disagree on and much work ahead for all. Again, the ever-present realization by both men that this movement of ours must work hand in hand and we must never allow provacateurs or agents of any sort to drive wedges into our UNITY. We all need each other just as the human body needs its arms, legs, torso and head. If we don't fight together we will surely DIE ALONE! For Rust it was an education in prison life and Lt Bitner was an able instructor and answered all questions with complete candor and a quick mind, showing that it wasn't JUST his courage and fighting ability that made him an ANS officer but also the ability to grasp situations and understand organizational problems. You'd search long and hard, on EITHER side of the prison walls to find a more dedicated and capable National Socialist. Leaving the prison after their long and productive discussion, David Rust reflected that "Seems like all the wrong people are in prison. Someday we'll change that....."

NOTICE - If you or someone you know is in prison, and you have the courage to stand up for your race, contact Captain John Butler of the American National Socialist Movement (ANSM), the streetside representative of the American National Socialist Brotherhood (ANS. ). He will send you literature on our movement and he will point you in the right direction...while you are in prison and when you are gettin' short. P.O. Box 53, San Dimas, CA .

Kentucky - A gas grenade caused some confusion and panic at the 102nd running of the Kentucky Derby. While no great harm was done and the race was able to continue, the message was made very clear when a telephone message was recieved by local government officials to "Stop forced busing or the next time it will be TNT!"

For people on the East Coast, the Kentucky Unit has printed some REVOLUTIONARY stickers and is producing posters for distribution. Write to NSLF, P.O. Box 58342, Louisville, Ky 40258, for prices and descriptions.

Also - Ray Chaney of Louisville and Unit Leader and Comrade John Younger have completed a Midwest Organizational Tour that brought them into contact with a number of National Socialists eager to understand the NSLF point of view and why we have ostracised the NSWPP. With rare exception, the NSLF account of the friction and final removal of the NSWPP from our association, was not only well recieved but echoed similar experiences by many individuals and past units of the NSWPP. Along this line - NSLF CO David Rust would like to extend a "special" thanks to Frank Collin, leader of the National Socialist Party of America for the hospitality and spirit of cooperation shown by himself and his unit in Chicago to the NSLF representatives who visited with him. If we can learn to overcome "petty" differences and arguments about tactics, etc., as Frank Collin has, then foundations are laid for the growth of the National Socialist Movement with which we can overwhelm and destroy the enormous Marxist movement that is so well entrenched in America today, also destroying the tentacles of Zionism that have enveloped the constitutional Republic of the United States and turned our own government into an enemy of the people.
NATIONAL SOCIALIST UNITY!

Ohio - A new addition in National Socialist publications has made its debut with the re-vamping of the OHIO NATIONAL SOCIALIST. Now titled simply, THE NATIONAL SOCIALIST and in full magazine size, this new publication reflects a dramatic turn of events in the National Socialist community in the U.S. Worn out by years of sacrifice and unending tribute to the NSWPP tyranny, the faithful National Socialist in America has turned to thoughts of uniting the huge pool of human resources abandoned by the self-styled "Duce" of the NSWPP, Matt Koehl.

Edited and published by our Comrade James N. Mason, whose ten years of service in the NSWPP and close association with Matt Koehl has given him excellent credentials and a keen insight into the bizarre history of Koehl's erratic behaviour and the systematic destruction of all competent units and unit leaders. For information on this exciting new publication, write to National Socialist Movement, P.O. Box 41503, Cincinnati, Ohio, 45241.

NOTE ON ACTIVISM -

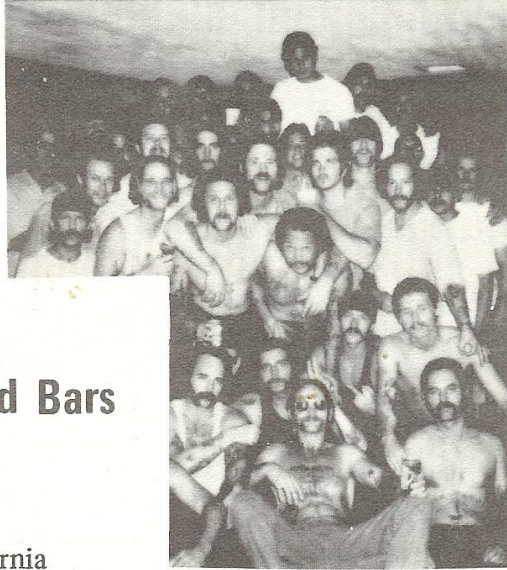

This is an announcement of WHAT WE EXPECT FROM OUR READERS, MEMBERS AND SUPPORTERS!

We are undertaking a clean-up of our mailing list. We have always maintained that we are interested solely in the individual who could be moved to translate NS Philosophy into ACTION. If you are currently receiving our publications, in order that we may know that you deserve to receive it, we require minimal response from those for whom we spend time and money producing publications. First, we encourage that our readership WRITE to us; tell us your thoughts. This is not a Matt Koehl operation where questions are akin to treason! The NSLF leadership recognizes its duty to educate and we cannot educate unless we know in what area the education is needed. Secondly, occasional contributions are an absolute necessity to pay for the mounting expenses of printing and postage. While large donations are a welcome surprise, we would be very content if the readership would just make REGULAR small contributions. Other contributions, newsclippings, from your area, etc. are also expected so that we can become acquainted with the specific situations in your area. This is MINIMAL participation required of readers and supporters. We cannot waste our meager resources on people who have NO INTENTION of ever aiding our cause or helping to spread the belief in National Socialism.

Of our Members, we expect a bit more - along with the above requirements, members are expected to spend some portions of their time distributing leaflets and literature to Whites who are interested or can be persuaded to look into our program. The burden of cost in producing this literature must fall on the member as each member is responsible for his activities and must bear the success or failure of his own efforts. So if members wish reprints of leaflets, White Power Now! stickers, or N.S. Reviews, inquire at National H.Q. for the cost. That is minimal participation of Members.

Brothers Behind Bars

Dyle Bitner - San Quentin, California

As most people are aware, there have been neo-Nazi White Power cliques inside America's prison systems for many years..This is especially true in California, in both State and Federal institutions. There probably aren't many who haven't read at one time or another, news stories of violent incidents mentioning these groups as the main participants.

However, it is not our purpose here to argue the validity of those news reports. Rather we would like to point out that these groups do exist and have been active for a number of years, despite continual pressure to dis-band them. Prison officials, in past years, have been very quick to persecute our proud White brothers inside. Far too often even clashes with other inmates have threatened the very existence of a united White Power movement.

Regardless of all the adversity, there is today, a very dedicated group of men called the American National Socialist (ANS) Brotherhood who are active inside the prisons. These men are the end result of years of conflict not only with prison officials, but also veterans of untold numbers of racial conflicts that often resulted in stabbings and riot situations.

In 1974 our Brothers of the ANS suffered a series of major set backs, starting with the stabbing deaths of two dedicated young men. These men were totally unarmed when they were 'rat-packed' by five stinking niggers, all carrying prison made knives. Within minutes, before retaliation could be effected, those same niggers were taken into protective custody and shipped to other insitutions. Two of the five were eventually stabbed to death by ANS members in San Quentin.

But this was only the beginning of the trouble in 1974. As a result of the stabbings of the ANS members, serious arguing broke out within the ANS ranks. Sparked by the stabbings and fueled by a conflict over changing of the by-laws, there was a split in the unity. Needless to say this had a devastating effect on the ANS and white unity inside the prisons.

By the end of 1974 and in the beginning of 1975, ANS was going nowhere fast. As soon as new members were recruited, old ones were paroled never to be heard from again. With the old leadership gone, a serious vacuum was left at the top and with no direction the organization ceased to function except as mediators in racial disputes.

But then something happened . . . . . early in the spring of 1975, three big buck niggers decided they were going to let a little "white blood flow." Their target was a young musician from the San Fernando Valley who they cornered in the T.V. room of one of the dorms. Unfortunately (for them) these niggers miscalculated on a number of things. First, this musician turned out to be not quite 'the hippy' he appeared to be and at the end of several minutes of fists, feet and anything goes, nobody was sure just who whipped who! But, the musician was put in the hole (solitary) for his efforts. Meanwhile the niggers went to 'big mouthin' about how they "sho' whipped that white boy" . . . that was another mistake . . . .

Through the night plans were being layed for the 'get back.'" In small groups and inside various dorms the men from San Fernando Valley and the ANS Brotherhood planned and agreed. At noon the next day, they would attack those three niggers, take any others they could get, and send them all 'on a midnight train over Jordan."

Had you been standing along the second tier railing at 11:45 that day, you would have seen a sight to make your heart swell with pride. At first glance, things did not appear unusual, but if you were to watch carefully, you'd notice there were alot more white boys in the yard than usual.

As the hour of twelve drew near, suddenly five young men stepped out from the library, walking shoulder to shoulder. They all wore heavy jackets, gloves, and a blue and white bandana tied across their foreheads in the manner of a headband. This was the uniform of the ANS hit team. They stepped out in unison with purpose in their stride, headed for the target area - - it was comin' down!

The five walked without a backward glance, all eyes were on them. Everywhere white boys were moving to converge in a concentrated mass attack. When they reached the bottom of the central stairway, they must have been two hundred white boys behind them. They reached the top of the stairs where they were met by five of the men from S.F.V., they opened the door to the first dorm, they came to, stepped in together AND THE FIGHT WAS ON!

All hell broke loose! Not twenty of our men had cleared the top of the stairway when shots rang out across the yard, like cannon fire! Windows started bustin', shouts echoing above the gunfire, "Kill The Niggers!", "Kill them all!" The back door of the dorm exploded open as riot proof glass went everywhere with a herd of niggers bustin' out the door. One of the Nazis had a nigger by the coat and was banging him over the head with a 15lb. mop wringer. Another Nazi all but tripped over the first in his haste to stab another nigger that was trying to get away! The nigger must have decided his life was worthless on that second tier because in the next instant he'd jumped off it to the ground below. But even there he was not safe. As he hit the ground another Nazi pulled a shank from his belt and plunged at him. Just then the ground exploded as a shot struck where the Nazi had been. Having missed on his first lunge the Nazi came up with a stroke of his blade . . . then . . . started for another nigger who must have set a world's record as the fastest nigger on two feet! Then as quickly as it started, it was over.

Every nigger in the pen was clear on the other side of the yard. As far away from those "crazy white boys" as they could get! The cops had moved in and sealed the dorm where the fighting had started along with the next three dorms down the line. There were bullet holes in the windows, nigger blood was smeared on all the glass that wasn't broken.

That was spring of 1975, but '75 was going to be a long year. Before the summer began, ANS staff officers were busy establishing contacts in prisons in other states and at the same time trying to make street-side contacts. One of the first attempts was a letter to Captain Joe Tommasi. As it happened there was an ANS member that had lived for many years in the El Monte area. He had known the Captain before coming to prison and had exchanged many letters with another past NSWPP member, now with the NSLF. Upon the Captains receipt of the letter from Lt. Dyle Bitner (ANS), the response was positive and sure. The ground work was quickly layed for a meeting inside a prison visiting room between Lt. Bitner and an NSLF representative. Things were looking better than ever for ANS. Then tragedy struck . . . No sooner had the first series of historical meetings between the ANS and NSLF taken place than the news was flashed on television . . . Captain Tommasi had been murdered.

For many days after, one lone Nazi walked the yard in this prison, a dark blue bandana tied in a band neatly around his upper left arm, in the symbol of mourning. A great man had died, a leader of his people, a friend of this convict Nazi.

Under the firm hand of then Lt. David Rust, and with hardly missing a step, the ANS-NSLF negotiations continued. With firm strides and strong dedication toward the goals of alliance and greater white unity, that had only yet been dreamed of, was becoming a reality.

Now with 1976 upon us, the alliance, our alliance, IS a reality. We of the ANS Brotherhood and the ANS Movement as a whole have pledged an un-dieing ALLIANCE with our Brothers of the NSLF based on mutual trust and respect.

We must always remember that there are no easy battles, anything that has worth must be suffered for. Even though this alliance consitutes a giant step forward in the movement for real White Unity, it is but ONE step. We all must strive not merely to maintain our alliance but to strive now for the even greater accomplishment of true Brotherhood.

It has been a long and hard battle and we must never let it be said that our suffering was in vain. We have layed good Comrades to rest, suffered great losses and yet we have accomplished something that has never been done in this nation's history, we have bridged the gap between the White Supremist in prison and our ideological Brothers in the street. Let no man set aside what we have brought together.

Special Note - While the above incident took place in the prison at Susanville, CA, our writer Lt. Dyle Bitner is presently in San Quentin and his stories are written from there. We are also informed that a strong White Power movement exists in Soledad, CA and we extend the hand of friendship to our White Comrades there, one of whom writes: "The difference between an inmate and a convict is that an inmate does whatever's easiest for himself, while a convict does what HE KNOWS is right and FUCK THE C.D.C.!!!!"

AMERICAN REVOLUTION TOMMASI STYLE

by James Mason
NSWWP General Secretary

This summer marks the third anniversary of the death of Joe Tommasi in El Monte, California. I can honestly say that not a day passes in which I don't think of Tommasi.

It's easy to wish for the return of a dead comrade and to imagine how things might be going if he were still with us.

But if I knew Joe correctly, even had he escaped death in August, 1975, he'd have already managed to have gotten himself killed a dozen times over by now.

So how do we look at his death? As a set-back to the Revolution? Or as the incident that got it started off in earnest?

Tommasi was only twenty-four at the time of his death and his work had hardly begun. But he left us something decisive: He made us feel comfortable as radicals.

Radicalism and revolution come easy now whereas before the American Nazis were actually just conservatives.

Things have changed dramatically because of Tommasi. If you're old enough to recall back ten years, the radicals then in the U.S. were all Leftists and Blacks.

I fairly and objectively ask anyone to come up with a group more revolutionary in America today than the Nazis.

This didn't happen by accident either. It took a lot of work and strain. It took, first of all, a revolution of the mind.

What exactly is this revolution of the mind that Tommasi knew so well? It is the single common-denominator possessed by all movements who succeeded at revolution for, without it, all power would be meaningless.

It is more than passion: It is the ability to become larger than the forces around one and thereby the ability to master and control any situation.

It is the freedom to rid oneself of the poisons of doubt and reaction.

It is the strength of mind, character and purpose to view all existing society as the enemy of revolution.

It is the responsibility and challenge accepted of revolution by choice rather than by necessity.

It is the skill and cunning to successfully use every obstacle to one's own advantage.

It is the philosophy of victory.

It is the new morality of that which works is good and that which doesn't work is bad.

It is the new loyalty to that which is correct.

With this revolution of the mind, disillusionment and discouragement are out of the question.

Those with this attitude cannot be used, tricked or misled.

It is the Rockwell concept of the one-man army come full circle.

Without such an inner reinforcement, revolution in this country would be impossible for to play the game the way one is supposed to is to acknowledge and try to deal with hopeless odds.

Like a direct extract from "The Emperor's New Clothes", the "in" crowd must believe that, this time, there's no way out because Big Brother has learned from all his mistakes over the centuries and today has all loopholes plugged.

But the whole Big Brother System trembles when just one fanatic stands up wearing a Swastika and declares he is going to strike the System down!

The tens of millions of those who say it "can't be done" amount to just part of the scenery.

The war is between us and the Big Brother Jews holding power. The war is strictly between those in the know.

I wish Joe were here today not so that we could turn over the job for him to do but so that he could know that he was RIGHT in his ideas!

Big Brother is SCREAMING in his press, radio and television about the fanatical Nazis. Again, it is no accident. Something is being done right!

Instead of the tightest hold over any nation in history, it could be that here it is the biggest bluff in history. Big Brother doesn't panic often or over nothing.

The revolution of the mind succeeded in spite of Joe's untimely death.

Thanks to Joe, it's only a question of a short time before we spot the gaping holes in Big Brother's defences and realize our own strength.

The American Revolution of the Twentieth Century will resemble nothing else in all of history.

Compared with the fight to overcome the pre-programmed defeatism instilled via Big Brother's "Liberal Education System" and the television, the real revolution - the act of disposing physically of Big Brother himself - will be next to nothing at all.

One thing is certain at this point, when it's all over with, Joe Tommasi will be recalled as the man who turned the final tables.

Police May Have Description Of Cleveland Bomber

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police probing the bombing of Martin Luther King Jr. Vocational High School say they may have a description of the man who has planted bombs there and at six other schools in the past 11 months.

The bomb that exploded outside the school, located in a predominantly black area on E. 71st St., early Wednesday was the police said. It was described as a pipe bomb surrounded by dynamite equivalent to 40 to 50 most powerful used so far, scribed as a pipe bomb with an explosive force sticks of dynamite.

Shooting, Bomb Link Suspected

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) — Police say they do not know if there is connection between the May 22 shooting death of an Elyria youth and a bomb found under his brother's truck.

Five sticks of dynamite were found Tuesday wired to the undercarriage of a truck at the home of Al Hershberger.

HERSHBERGER'S brother, James, 18, was found slain two weeks ago in Russia Township.

Elyria police Lt. Anthony Logar, who is heading the investigation, said the bomb was not set to go off. However, he said the device had the potential to destroy the truck and heavily damage nearby homes.

BOMB DAMAGE — Cleveland police sift through the rubble of the Martin Luther King Jr. Vocational High School where a bomb exploded early Wednesday causing extensive damage. The bomb was described as a pipe bomb surrounded by dynamite with an explosive force equivalent to 40 to 50 sticks of dynamite.

BOMBING, Cont.

IT BLEW A door off its hinges, dug a crater in the ground and ripped a two-foot wide hole through a cinderblock wall.

Police said the blast was channeled down the hallway, tearing down sections of ceiling; shattering windows and tossing furniture around.

As in the previous bombings, there were no injuries.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS, already hard-pressed for cash, estimated the loss at $500,000 and said school buildings are not insured.

Residents of the area gave police the description of a husky, white man in his 40s, with gray hair who they said was seen near the school about the time of the explosion.

Investigators declined to discuss the case in detail but said they believe they will be able to identify the man soon. They said they know where the dynamite and pipe used in making the bomb were obtained.

POLICE AND federal agents say they believe the man is responsible for a total of 13 bombings or attempted bombings since last June, including adult movie houses and a Xerox Corp. storage building as well as the seven schools.

In all but one case the bombs were left in plastic gym bags, according to investigators. In some cases the bombs failed to explode, and in other cases the investigators found scraps of materials used.

The bomber has left no notes and has contacted no one. However, police theorize that he is a west side resident who is highly conservative, hates blacks and opposes school busing. Investigators say that profile is based in part on interviews with psychiatrists.

CLASSES WERE canceled at King Vocational Wednesday, but the school was reopened Thursday.

Joseph Broz, acting business manager for the school system, said the schools were "desperately in need of money, and here we have to divert it."

Charles V. Romcea, principal, said the school board "could have used this money to buy textbooks. All the children will suffer."

SHOOTING, Cont.

Police said they do not know a motive for the incident.

HERSHBERGER WAS unavailable for comment, but police say he told them he did not know who might have placed the bomb.

The body of James Hershberger was found in his car on a road west of Oberlin May 22. He had been shot once in the head.

Lorain County sheriff's deputies said there were few clues to the slaying and added that they have no suspects.

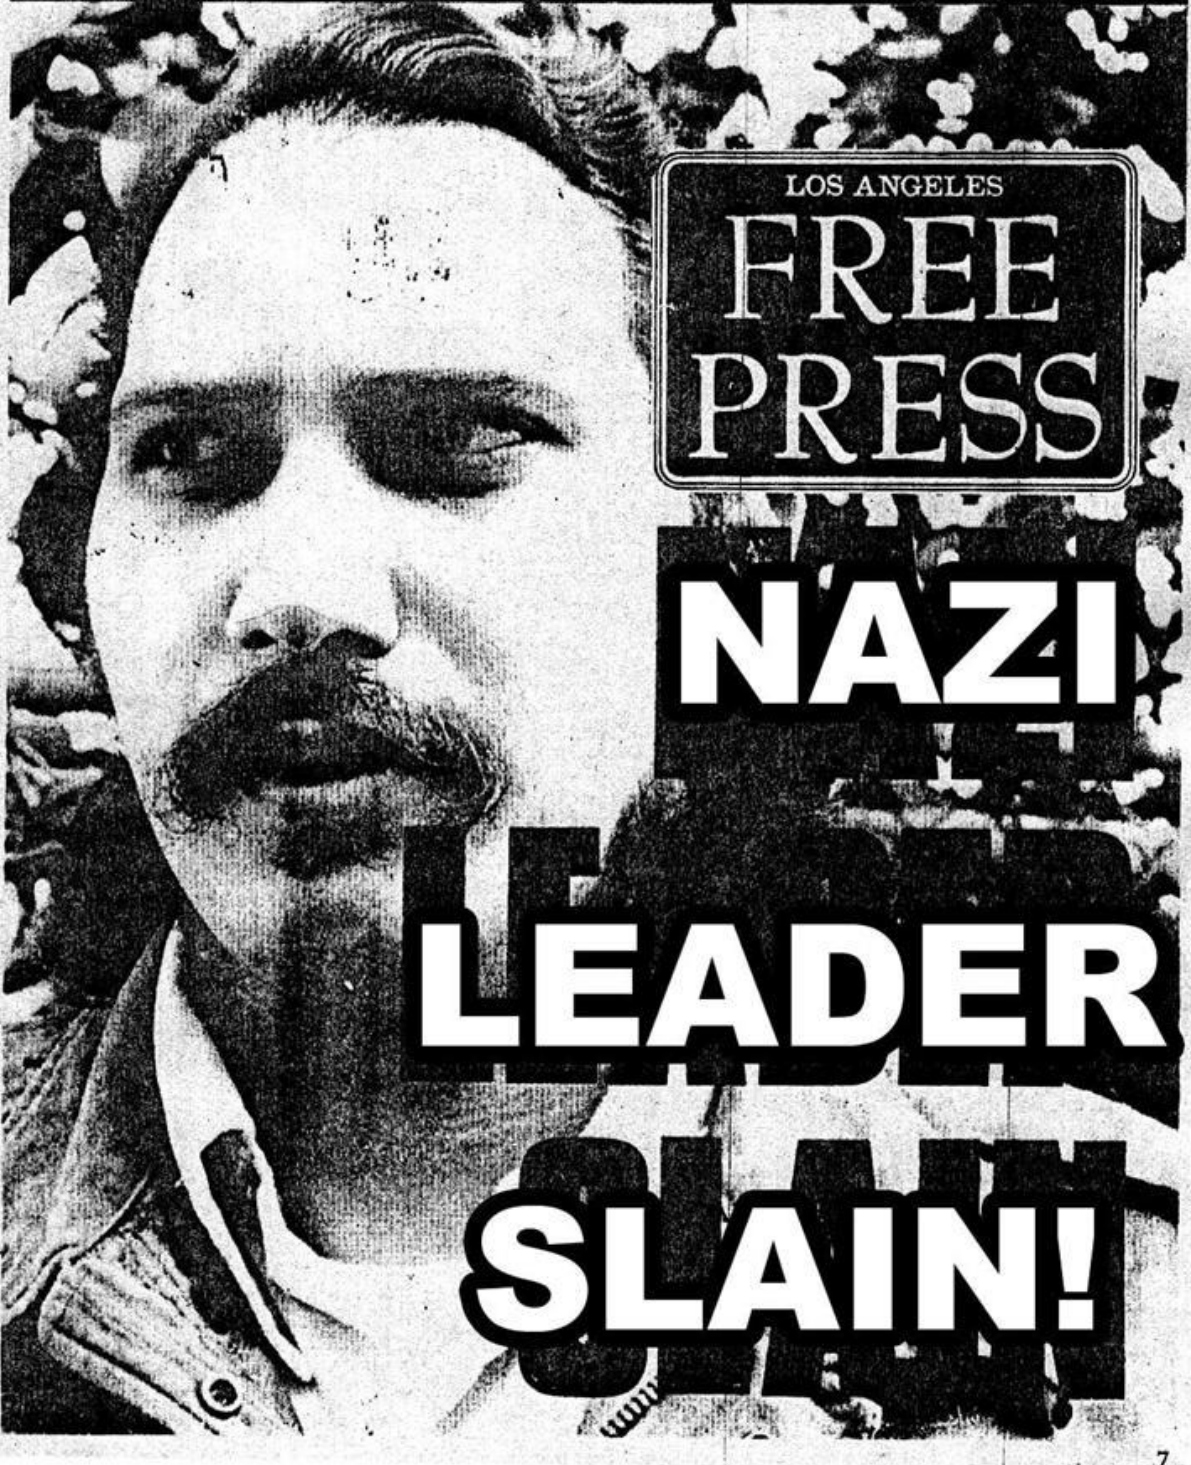

"IT SEEMS LIKE too much to be a coincidence," Logar said.

Police found the bomb after receiving a call, but Logar declined to name the person who called.

Logar said the bomb, made of dynamite, a blasting cap and detonating wires, appeared to be "a fairly professional job."

Cleveland bomb experts disposed of the bomb.

LEADER SLAIN!

'Cops are political soldiers'

JEANNE CORDOVA
In our first exclusive interview (March 21) with Joe Tommasi, the Nazi leader claimed the provisional wing of his group (National Socialist Liberation Front) was responsible for the Feb. 2 teargassing of the Rosenberg rally and the Feb. 4 bombing of the headquarters of the Socialist Worker's Party.

Our second much-delayed interview with Joe Tommasi took place in an innocuous coffeeshop in El Monte. In March Tommasi canceled the second half of a scheduled two-part interview because he was under heavy surveillance by the LAPD and the Criminal Conspiracy Section following the bombings. This time he declined to meet at the Free Press office because he didn't want to "run into any political enemies."

Understandably more cautious, the Nazi leader refused further comment on the SWP and Rosenberg incidents, noting, "You can't be too careful... you know the Grand Jury is in town." (Grand juries can subpoena and force testimony without specific criminal evidence.)

Asked what "projects" his group was currently pursuing, Tommasi referred to the April attempted bombing of the Mid-Night Special Bookstore as "interesting." Speculating that "someone probably just wanted to practice" (bombmaking?), Tommasi quickly moved conversation to our scheduled topic, "The Nazis and the Police."

'Average Cop Digs Up'
Tommasi says the Left's charge that the police don't want to bust him for the February bombings is "bullshit." "They want to bust me like mad," the Nazi laughed, referring specifically to Sgt. Ray Callahan (Criminal Conspiracy Section) who has "hassled" him several times. CCS says it has put "thousands of man hours" on the SWP bombing case but has been unable to uncover any real clues leading to the bombers. Tommasi confirmed, "They (CCS) don't have a thing to go on."

I asked him about his group's general relationship with the police. Tommasi drew distinctions between the cop on the street and the bureaucracy. "The average cop, I think, digs us," he admitted. "The higher-ups, anything above a Lieutenant, especially CCS, wants to nail our ass to the wall. They're political soldiers."

Illustrating the difference, the Nazi leader recounted a recent story of one of his party members being picked up with a shotgun in his car by the Hollenbeck P.D. According to Tommasi, when the Hollenbeck station found the individual belonged to NSLF, they "got friendly and asked, 'How's Joe?'"

Continuing his classification, Tommasi explained, "The average cop who has to do the dirty work feels just like us; he doesn't see himself as part of the system. But you have a government and a power structure, and that power structure has an army, the others (CCS, higher officers) are the generals.

In his high school days Tommasi wanted to be a police officer. He turned from this peace-keeping vocation after politically maturing and realizing, "You can't be against the system and be one of her soldiers."

Conversely, Tommasi described the relationship between his former affiliate, the American Nazi Party, and the police as "very good." Tommasi's group originally split with its mother organization in January of 1974 because of a power struggle between himself and the ANP national leadership.

According to Tommasi, they also disagreed on a number of political points: "They (ANP) feel they can come to power through legal means, so they never do anything illegal, they want the police on their side." Splitting from this philosophy, the NSLF believes an armed revolution is inevitable, and they are not remiss in taking up arms toward that end.

Tommasi says when he was the captain of the El Monte branch of the ANP, they had an "understanding" with the local police force. The agreement was, "I wouldn't provoke trouble in El Monte and they wouldn't go out of their way to look for us."

Tommasi verifies there "probably were" a number of party members who worked for the police. Six weeks ago East Coast news sources reported that Roy Frankhauser, a former associate of ANP founder George Lincoln Rockwell, was an FBI informant. After leaving Rockwell in 1964, Frankhauser joined the Minutemen and later the Ku Klux Klan. His long-time role as an infiltrator in right- and left-wing groups was discovered in June when Frankhauser was arrested for possession of dynamite and attempted to get off by calling upon his employer for help.

According to Tommasi, Frankhauser "had a clearance pass from the Internal Security Commission or some high intelligence operation" to go into Canada and spy on Arab guerrilla groups suspected of plotting assassinations of Zionist leaders in America. Most recently Frankhauser had been infiltrating left-wing groups. Tommasi also blamed Frankhauser for the 1965 murder (officially labeled suicide) of Dan Burros, former Nazi Party member whom the New York Times exposed as a Jew.

Most recently, it was Frankhauser, says Tommasi, who informed the New Jersey police that John Duffy, former ANP national organizer and now member of the NSLF, was carrying weapons out of Delaware into New Jersey. Duffy, who arranged the Free Press's first interview with Tommasi, was arrested in January of this year. The charge has since been reduced. Duffy is out on bail and here working with NSLF.

On the international level, the Nazi leader went on to deny charges that former Gestapo officers are associated with the international police organization, INTERPOL. "I was flabbergasted to hear that," Tommasi spoke incredulously of Senator Joseph Montoya's January 1975 request for congressional hearings on the issue. "If you want to know the truth, we're scared shitless of INTERPOL."

Noting that "ANP's attitude toward the international police was also one of 'continual concern,'" Tommasi maintained INTERPOL has "arrested" and deported party members in Germany for nothing more than wearing swastika pins.

The Nazi leader says INTERPOL backs the controversial United Nations "genocide" proposal which, if passed, would give INTERPOL a mandate to arrest all persons who advocate any kind of genocide. Versions of this bill have been passed in Canada and England. Collin Jordan, head of the Nazi Party in England in the early sixties, was jailed for two years under Britain's race relations act.

Speaking of the grand jury and growing police power in this country, Tommasi analyzed: "We used to have police repression. What we're seeing now is the development of a computerized police state. In the war movies they make a big deal out of Germans asking for identification: 'Your papers, please.' Now we're stopped on the street and asked for two or three pieces of I.D., and we're not even in a war."

"What you're seeing now is a system that is aware that the possibility of revolution exists. The sixties taught them what can happen when people get their shit together, no matter if those people are from the Right or Left. So now the system's taking steps to insure their stability."

Demonstrating cooptative tactics in law-enforcement, Tommasi imitated a "Pancho Gonzalez" sheriff appealing to young Chicano men: "Eh, man, you join with us, help smash all these li-i-i-tle groups in your barrio." Sounding much like the revolutionary he claims he is, the Nazi leader concluded, "You don't have to be a black or Mexican to see what's going on in this country. The system's in big trouble."

Summarizing his relationship with law-enforcement, Tommasi clarified: "I wish INTERPOL was on our side; I wish we were being bought off by the police; we wouldn't be having all these money problems. I hear they pay pretty good."

Money is the big problem for NSLF now. Tommasi was forced to close his El Monte headquarters. The New Order Bookstore, last May because the landlord wouldn't renew the lease when he found out who the lessees were. This closure has made reorganizing and establishing a new home top priority. They are looking to open a national headquarters in El Monte and a second branch in Venice.

Why Venice, home of a thousand leftist labels and groups? "We view Venice as a hardcore red area culturally and politically," Tommasi explained. "It's bound to stir our enemies, but we know there's a lot of sympathy out there hidden within the white female population mostly." Second-In-Command David Rust verified: "The white girls are tired of getting raped."

Asked if they wouldn't be happier moving to Glendale, where they'd be neighbors with the local KKK which makes its base in the redneck suburb, Tommasi pointed out, "We think it better to go into an area where a lot of people hate us and a lot will love us, rather than go where no one gives a shit."

In NSLF's analysis, Glendale doesn't know or care if you're a Communist or a Bircher, just as long as you don't rock the boat and disturb their business community. Evidently the Nazis think they will be busier and more successful recruiting in a town where the boat is rocked so often no one is unshakable. Tommasi pictorialized the Venice Branch: "We'll have a 24-hour armed guard and a half-dozen of us living on the premises."

'Corner Drug Store Gang'
A move to Venice brings the Nazis closer to the Fairfax home of the Jewish Defense League. Tommasi, however, denied the new proximity to their traditional foe had any bearing on NSLF's move. The Nazi likened JDL to a "corner drug store gang" and called them "politically insignificant."

Referring to Meir Kahane's recent more moderate positions

(see JDL story, this issue), Tommasi said, "Even their founder has abandoned them. They wouldn't be alive today if Dylan hadn't given them money."

JDL spokesperson Barry Krugal confirmed that folksinger Bob (Paul Zimmerman) Dylan, "Texas Jew Boy" Kinky Friedman and comedian Don Rickles have all made contributions to his organization. Krugal clarified that Dylan's contribution, made to their New York headquarters, was received several years ago.

But NSLF's move to the beach will wait until next summer. Right now Tommasi is "importing" followers from across the country to El Monte to raise money for a new "very professional" national headquarters. Almost a dozen such imports are working and giving 75 per cent of their salaries to the new building which they hope to open this fall.

(ED. NOTE: The following was originally scheduled to run as Part II of the Joe Tommasi Interview. Due to Tommasi's untimely death, however, we have decided to run the entire interview in this issue.)

Taking their cue from the left, white power groups in Los Angeles and other countries are beginning to actualize the principle of strength in numbers. Joe Tommasi explains how and why he is building alliances among extreme right groups.

On May 17, Tommasi's NSLF and the local KKK formed a "united front" and counter demonstrated against a Boston pro-integration rally held in downtown Los Angeles. Calling themselves "The Boston Revolutionary Union" (the labels are all beginning to sound alike these days), the two groups joined to express "solidarity with the white resistance in Boston."

Asked if this alliance marked an ongoing relationship, Tommasi explained the KKK in Glendale was not a significant political organization (scratch one). "They're just a bunch of guys who know what they like and what they don't like... but not really political," the Nazi said, criticizing the small motorcycle gang that operates out of Bart's Cycle Shop in Glendale. Tommasi described KKK leader Bart West as "a real good friend."

Canadian Racists
Of more significance, perhaps, are NSLF's prospective coalitions with Canadian and Australian white power organizations. The Western Guard Party (WGP) of Canada has invited our locals to join their fall 1975 power clam-bake in Cleveland, Ohio. Trying to form a broad right wing, "White Nationalist Confederacy of Understanding" (now there's a new one), the Canadian racists are trying to promote good vibes among right-wingers, national socialists (Nazis) and independent Fascists.

Although Tommasi questions "some of their reactionary aims" (most right groups love apple pie, the flag and the cops; NSLF doesn't), Tommasi sees a bigger pie and has offered conditional support for the WGP's racist and white power politics. He plans to attend the national conference in Ohio. Our local leader's personal aim is, of course, to build a white state "of some sort."

Meanwhile, he is most concerned about the "tremendous amount of splinter groups" and divisive "ego trips" that now threaten his movement. "We have all the problems of the Left," Tommasi is honest. "Except when the Left has a splinter, that splinter has enough strength to go out and put a newspaper together. A splinter on the Right is lucky if they're strong enough to go to the Post Office and buy a roll of stamps." Humbly, the Nazi admits that NSLF is the only right splinter group in this country that has stood alone and grown stronger.

Trying to right this sad state of internal affairs, the WGP's National Conference will direct itself to "setting up places of asylum, Rhodesia or South Africa, for outlaws, establishing contacts for guns and weaponry, (and) building understanding and coalition among Right and white power groups."

On the international white scene, a second successful splinter from Australia has this month offered Tommasi the hand of a friend. The Australian National Socialist Party, for many years one of the strongest members of the World Union of National Socialists, split from their mother group last year.

Disagreeing, as does Tommasi, with the "stagnation" of the National Socialist White People's Party, Australian Nazi Neil Garland has sent our locals an "invitational letter." Tommasi said he had already responded to the overture of political friendship and expects a "very good" future relationship with the Australians.

The L.A. Nazi also indicated dissatisfaction with the recent "inactive" role of the World Union of National Socialists. "It was supposed to be our answer to the Left's International, but it's not much more than a publication exchange network now." Tommasi would like to rebuild that or another world white-power forum into a "hard

Captain Joseph Charles Tommasi

At 1 p.m. at the National Socialist White People's Party headquarters, Captain Joseph C. Tommasi, leader of the National Socialist Liberation Front, was martyred by a cowardly yes man of NSWPP bureaucracy.

The bullet that martyred our leader was not aimed at the Captain but at the very heart of the revolutionary movement that was his life's work. Words can never replace but only emulate the revolutionary racial idealist dedication that burned inside Joseph Tommasi the man, the fighter and the leader.

The bright flame that flared in the soul of Joseph Tommasi, that shines in the hearts of his adherents, will never be extinguished. A thousand reactionary bullets can never stop the dedication of the NSLF to the coming armed struggle.

Ironically, Captain Tommasi was martyred almost eight years to the day that Commander George Lincoln Rockwell was taken from our midst. Both cut down by "national socialists." Both for their steadfast hatred of the reactionary interference that undermines the national socialist revolution.

Let the fire and power of Captain Tommasi breathe into our souls and find expression in the destruction of his enemies. The bricks and mortar of the movement are the blood and bones of its martyrs. Tragically, this afternoon, another brick was laid. And so we, the living followers of Captain Tommasi, must attempt to pick up the pieces and continue to build on the dreams he harbored within him . . .

Lieutenant David Rust, chosen successor to Captain Tommasi, has taken over command of NSLF operations. We must all at this time give our maximum support to Lt. Rust, to insure the survival of NSLF, and not to allow the Captain to have died in vain. We must all pull together out of love, dedication and respect. He who may have wavered in the past must now rededicate his efforts to the struggle. We will build his organization into a living and breathing incarnation of our fallen Captain.

core" organization which would meet annually and plan international political strategy, weaponry workshops, etc.

Alliance With Cubans
On the home front, NSLF also maintains loose contact with Aldo Rosado's Commandos Libres Nacionalistas. Rosado's El Monte-based right-wing Cuban organization is a splinter from Alpa 66, the national anti-Communist/Castro Cuban organization. The two groups have not yet engaged in joint action, but the alliance is based on what Tommasi described as "a strong white power strain in their (CLN) political posture."

The NSLF is also planning "field trips" to Taft, Calif., this summer (presumably to support white racists of that oil town who earlier this year drove blacks out of their schools) and to Boston when school opens this fall. According to Tommasi, the National Socialist White People's Party (official name of the ANP) "blew" its leadership in the Boston busing riots last year because its members "couldn't identify with the revolutionary (white) youth there."

"You don't tell kids they can't become a Nazi or join us (against busing) until they cut their hair and stop smoking dope," said Tommasi, criticizing the approach of his former organization.

The white, racist, long-haired, dope-smoking youngsters in Boston should have little trouble identifying with the NSLF.

Assimilation Means Cultural Regression
What motivates the 24-year-old boy-leader who (surprisingly to some) fears "I'll never reach my 30th birthday"? What "faith" pushes Catholic-born David Rust who "dabbled in the left" before becoming co-conspirator in white power terror tactics?

Both believe assimilation of the white race will lead to nothing less than "global cultural regression," the Dark Ages revisited. "As whites we should be concerned with the destruction of our culture and race," says David, a voice crying in an apathetic white wilderness. Tommasi reiterates, "The white race is responsible for Western Civilization . . . progress."

Fundamentally, there are only three possible conclusions for the white or any other race: assimilation, separation, genocide. Obviously opposed to assimilation, Tommasi and Rust were asked if they as Nazis would settle for separation of the races, or if they were really calling for eugenic control of all other races.

Tommasi considers the question: "Separation is unrealistic, don't you think? The Third World population is already so large . . ."

It's hard to pin him down. He doesn't want to come right out and say it. Here in liberal America, it's not tactically smart to say that behind the facade of nationalism, Nazism means — as it always has — nothing less than global white control. □

A GRIM PREDICTION: 'I'll never reach my 30th birthday'

JEANNE CORDOVA
Joe Tommasi was supposed to call Friday morning, Aug. 15 to check final details on our interview of Aug. 1. Ironically, he had answered most of my questions in a phone conversation two days before and all I had to ask him was his age.

A 2 p.m. Aug. 15, a friend of Joe's called and told me Joseph Charles Tommasi was 24 and he was dead.

The NSLF leader was gunned down on the front steps of the headquarters of the National Socialist White People's Party, an organization he had built and once led.

(The NSWPP was founded in 1959 by George Lincoln Rockwell, and had been known as The American Nazi Party until its name was changed in 1967.)

Angered By Insult
According to witness David Rust, he and Tommasi were out buying auto parts when the incident occurred. They were driving south on Peck past the NSWPP headquarters when Clyde Bingham, 19-year-old NSWPP member who was standing guard at the door, "flipped Joe the finger." Angered by the insult, Tommasi stopped the car and charged through the gate toward Bingham shouting, "Come and say that to my face you . . ."

Rust had also left the car and approached the NSWPP compound gate steps behind Tommasi but "stopped where I was" when he saw Bingham and Jones (who was also standing guard) draw their guns. (NSWPP spokespersons later confirmed their guards were routinely armed.)

According to Rust, Jones twice told Tommasi to get off the premises. "He (Jones) kept shouting, 'I've got orders to keep you off the property!'" As Tommasi approached and "pushed" Bingham, Bingham returned his gun to his holster and Jones shot Tommasi in the head. Police later confirmed Tommasi was killed with a .45 revolver.

Three youngsters passing on bicycles and "a man across the street" apparently witnessed all or part of the incident. They and Rust were questioned by police. NSWPP Captain Dan Stewart and Gregg Hubbard, another member on duty in the headquarters, were also questioned and later released.

At their Saturday press conference, NSWPP spokesperson Martin Kerr said, "Joe Tommasi got exactly what he deserved . . . his death is the result of two years of effort by Tommasi to destroy the White People's Party." (Tommasi was expelled from the NSWPP in September, 1973). NSWPP national headquarters in Arlington, Va., are claiming Jones and Bingham acted in self-defense. "These two men . . . are guilty of no crime other than the 'crime' of trying to protect their lives and Party property."

Hours after the shooting, Kerr alleged that Tommasi was trying to enter their headquarters, but Rust claims his leader was unarmed and shot before reaching the steps of the building.

Police report finding a large stick next to Tommasi's body; however, NSLF member John Duffy claims the stick "was planted" by NSWPP members to make the shooting look like self-defense. El Monte Police Capt. Wiles said investigators had not yet established whether Tommasi was armed but said that claim seemed "negative." Duffy later maintained he had known and lived with his former leader for several months and had never known Tommasi to carry "any weapon . . . not even a knife."

Duffy likened Tommasi's death to the assassination of George L. Rockwell (Aug. 25, 1967) and accused NSWPP of engineering his leader's death. "We know Joe was on their (national NSWPP) list since he was expelled. We know Dan Stewart had issued orders recently that if Capt. Tommasi showed up within the perimeter of the yard . . . he was to be shot, and shoot to kill."

Death Predicted
That Joseph Charles Tommasi is dead at 24 is probably of little surprise to those who knew him closely. That the Nazi met his death at the gunpoint of the NSWPP is also not surprising. Speaking of his semi-underground life two weeks ago, Tommasi prophesied, "Hell . . . I don't know if I'll reach my 30th birthday." Meeting in a little-known El Monte restaurant, he seemed far more apprehensive than he had been during our February interviews.

Declining to come to the Free Press offices because he feared "political enemies," he directed his innuendos more to seemed to right-wing rather than leftist foes. Although he was seldom specific, constant references to "hassles" with his former organization indicated his continual concern with the long-running feud he alternately fueled and tried to quell.

In February, Tommasi led a NSLF raiding party to the NSWPP headquarters on Peck Rd. and, in Tommasi's words, "beat the shit out of" everyone they found at the location. Since that time members of both groups had clashed on an individual basis, NSWPP was always afraid Tommasi was out to destroy or regain control; Tommasi apparently was unwilling or unable to turn his personal attentions away from his mother organization.

'Politically Dead'
In our interviews, Tommasi never indicated any desire to regain power in NSWPP, but he lost few opportunities to point out their political "errors." Politically and personally, he saw them as a "politically dead . . . paper . . . organization."

Duffy denied Tommasi was looking for a way back into the organization but confirmed his leader was always "very hurt" by the unresolved conflict. "Joe would never have left the NSLF, but we wanted to come to an understanding with them (NSWPP)." He wrote Cmr. Koshi several times . . . I think he really wanted NSLF to be some kind of militant arm to them."

Asked why Tommasi disregarded the drawn guns in his attempt to settle with Bingham, Rust was perplexed. "It (Bingham's insult) seemed to get to Joe personally . . . I don't know . . . Joe never was afraid of guns . . ." Rust explained that a similar incident between Bingham and Tommasi had taken place months before and speculated the antagonism annoyed his former leader personally because it came from "the place Joe built . . . headquarters."

(Tommasi joined the almost defunct El Monte branch when he was 17. He built the organization into national prominence and reportedly even once owned the building he died in front of. Having purchased it for his organization, Tommasi turned the deed over to the national NSWPP during the internal power struggle which led to his expulsion.)

'He Was Nice To Joe'
The shooting seemed even more ironic considering Jones and Tommasi had a "friendly" relationship. In partial shock hours after her husband's death, Rose Tommasi referred to a recent sidewalk conversation between Jones and Tom-

Myth of the "Six Million"

Part Two
by Steven Hansen

"The three or four people chiefly involved in drawing up the plan for total extermination are dead, and no documents survive."

All of this is very convenient for the liberal intellectual establishment perpetrating this legend but it only means that the "plan" and the "three or four people" are nothing but very nebulous assumptions on the part of all these writers and are completely unprovable.

Since the documents which do survive make no mention whatsoever of extermination, the various "experts" perpetuating the myth conveniently assume that such orders were generally verbal.

Otto Ohlendorf, chief of the Einsatzgruppen D unit in southern Russia had originally been "persuaded" to sign a statement to the effect that ninety thousand Jews had been murdered under his command. When Ohlendorf finally came to trial in 1948 he insisted that his earlier statement had been extorted from him by torture.

During his speech in his own behalf at the 1948 trial,

Ohlendorf denounced Mr. Philip Auerbach, the Jewish Attorney-General of the Bavarian State Office for Restitution, for having stated that he was seeking compensation for an alleged "eleven million Jews" who had suffered in concentration camps.

Ohlendorf stated that "not the minutest part" of the people for whom Auerbach was seeking compensation had ever seen a concentration camp.

Eventually Auerbach was convicted for embezzlement and fraud directly related to his attempt to get money for his phantom victims.

Ohlendorf told the Tribunal that his formations often had to take vigorous action to prevent pogroms against Jews organized by various Russian nationalists behind the German front.

Ohlendorf denied that the Einsatzgruppen as a whole inflicted even one quarter of the alleged one million casualties claimed by the prosecution. He stated that the illegal (under international law) partisan warfare in Russia, which the Einsatzgruppen were combating, had taken a far higher toll of German Army lives - at least five hundred thousand German soldiers were killed, a figure confirmed by the Soviet Government.

The brilliant English jurist R.T. Paget, in his book, "Mannstein: His Campaign and his Trial" (London, 1951), concluded that the Allied prosecution at Nuremberg in accepting Soviet figures, had exaggerated the number of casualties inflicted by the Einsatzgruppen by more than one thousand per cent! In addition, the Allied prosecution had distorted much further the actual situation in which these casualties occurred.

This is a very key issue in the whole extermination legend. This is the popular mythology that the physical liquidation of European Jewry began with the action of the Einsatzgruppen against their Soviet adversaries in 1941. The whole extermination legend was built on just such bits and pieces of calculated falsehood.

Nazis shove, punch church leader in their new bookstore

By JOHN NEHMAN
News Staff Writer

The leader of the Detroit Roundtable of Christians and Jews was punched and shoved bodily out of a bookstore opened yesterday by the same neo-Nazi group which was evicted in March from a West Vernor store.

Charles C. Benham, 61, said he was punched in the chest by one of three uniformed men in their 20's who then shoved him out the door of the Nazi group's new bookstore headquarters in a former barbershop at 20807 Fenkell, near Burt on the city's northwest side.

Benham, director of the Detroit branch of the national organization dedicated to improve interracial understanding was apparently unhurt and made a complaint to police of the 16th (Northwest) Precinct. He said later he did not know whether he would prosecute any of the trio for assault.

The bookstore was opened at 8:30 a.m. yesterday by the group led by Bill Russell, 25, who describes himself as the Michigan "captain" of the National Socialist Movement.

It was Russell's group which was ordered evicted March 16 by a Detroit Common Pleas Court judge from its leased West Vernor location, which for four months was the scene of numerous community and group protests.

Within an hour of the reopening on Fenkell, a picket line of neighborhood protesters was organized by Leonard Green,

Cops Guard Nazis As People Protest

National Socialism, the innocuous-sounding disease that spread over Germany, erupted into a world war, and attempted to exterminate an entire race located a small festering sore in Northwest Detroit and nearby residents and businessmen reacted in a predictable manner. Throw them out. A small group of nazis rented a building at 20807 Fenkell rd just east of Burt and opened a book store May 20. The same group had been dispossessed from another location in Detroit a few weeks earlier. Several hundred angry residents and businessmen gathered at Brightmoor Community Center Tuesday night to discuss the neighborhood problem and make plans to have the group evicted. For several days, loudly chanting pickets had walked the block in front of the building with several dozen police standing by to maintain order.

About 17 residents were arrested for what the police termed "unpeaceful protests" at the location, and Five Mile rd was blocked off several times for several hours.

Police from the 16th precinct and Tactical Mobile Section from downtown have arrested or ticketed 54 adults or juveniles May 20 through May 22 in connection with demonstrations opposing the opening of a Nazi bookstore on May 20 at 20807 Fenkell av and Pierson. Minor injuries were inflicted upon four police officers when rocks and bottles were thrown the night of May 20.

Lt. Raleigh Gresham of the 16th precinct estimates that there were approximately 1,000 people on the scene the night of May 21. About 700 were east of the store and 300 people to the west. It was necessary for police to reroute traffic.

In addition to a coalition of protestors, there are independent demonstrators, people from the area, plus individuals and groups from other parts of town adding to the confusion and emotion of the crowd.

The job of the police is to maintain the peace, but it is difficult with so many varied groups being represented. Their biggest problem is onlookers.

Insp. Alf Nelson of the 16th precinct suggests, "Stay out of the area." He added that there is sometimes a fine line between freedom of assembly and riot.

Head of the 16th precinct, Commander Charles Sherrill states, "If you have feelings one way or another, pursue those feelings in a legal way."

Walter Roesler, president of the Brightmoor businessmen's group, said that the city could act in 72 hours under a nuisance ordinance if ten businessmen and 20 residents would sign petitions protesting the operation.

Detroit Councilman Jack Kelly backed the group and said that the Council would take immediate action when the petitions were received.

One spokesman at the Brightmoor meeting claimed that it cost the city $20,000 a week for police security in front of the book store.

The nazis' swastika emblem was hung in the windows, and residents countered by parading in front with American flags.

As this publication went to press the pickets were still marching and a cordon of police guarding the whole melee.

The residents didn't hesitate to state their views at the meeting at the Brightmoor Community Center Tuesday night.

"The main thing is to picket in an orderly way," said Wally Roesler, president of the Brightmoor Community Council. "We will get the Nazis out and we'll try to get rid of the police so we can give Brightmoor back to the community."

"We aim to keep them off of our streets, to keep their poison from our children," he said.

According to Paul Boatín, president of the Inter-faith Council Against the Nazis, which he said represents "over one million people," 75-year-old Guy Scavone, owner of the store, did not realize that he was renting to Nazis. Scavone said he was led to believe that

THE POLICE

Nazi bookstore may have more unpleasant neighbors

- THE NAZI BOOKSTORE on Fenkell may be getting some new neighbors — the Detroit Police. Locals had petitioned for a mini-station before the Nazis arrived, and recently police found a location in a former public library about 700 feet away from the controversial store. If cops get their expected approval from City Council, they could move in by August.

"They tricked us the same way over on West Vernor," Boatín said. According to him the group was able to set up their bookstore on Detroit's Southwest side by claiming they were opening a print shop.

"We got them evicted on West Vernor on the basis of falsifying their lease application," said Boatín.

Some residents who said they had been roughed up by the Nazis talked about bombing or burning the bookstore down.

"Without organization nothing is done," Boatín shouted at the crowd. "Don't say burn. Burn is a Nazi word."

Boatín explained that his group has already accomplished a great deal in convincing the 75-year-old owner not to accept any more rent from the Nazis. According to Boatín, the Nazis paid $150 cash in advance for two months' rent.

"We have contacted the landlord for an injunction to get the Nazis out in 30 days," Roesler said.

"Thirty days is too long," one angered resident shouted.

"Legal action has been sought and the owner has been provided with a free lawyer," Boatín said, "but these things take time."

"People are doing everything legally to get them out," he said. "The only way it can be done is through organized united peaceful pressure."

Pickets are more orderly now but according to police, officers will remain for the protection of all involved.

Nazi signs hanging in the bookstore window read, "Niggers Beware," "Hey Jews There's An Oven In Your Future," "A Nigger Works Standing In Line For A Welfare Check," and "Heil Hitler." In order to enter the store patrons must remove a picket sign. "We wiped you out in Germany - we'll wipe you out here, too."

"Violence is what the Nazis want to see," Boatín said. "We must use a peaceful means to solve our problem."

Council orders team to calm protests at Nazi bookstore

By STEPHEN CAIN
News Staff Writer

The Detroit City Council yesterday ordered a team of city officials be sent to the city's troubled Brightmoor district to try to calm the fears of residents and discourage them from demonstrating against a Nazi bookstore.

There were five more arrests yesterday near the controversial bookstore on Fenkell. Police said they involved curiosity-seekers who tussled with police officers when told to leave the area. They will be charged with assault and battery, said police officer Charles Sherrill, whose 16th (Northwest) Precinct policemen are trying to cope with the nightly disturbances.

The Council discussed the bookstore issue at length, but concluded there was little legally to be done about it.

Councilman Jack Kelley bitterly called the Nazis "dirty pukes" and said he would like to rip off their swastikas.

IN AGREEMENT, Councilman Kenneth Cockrel, the black socialist lawyer who generally is on the opposite end of the political spectrum from Kelley, slapped hands with Kelley, soul-brother style.

But Cockrel and George

Matish, deputy corporation counsel, said it would be illegal and improper to run the Nazis out of business.

Kelley, Councilman David Eberhard and others said the bookstore should be declared a public nuisance under city ordinance and closed down.

"No matter how reprehensible the philosophy of the Nazis is to me, nonetheless they are entitled to express their views," Matish said. "No evidence has been presented to me that they have breached the peace. Thus, we can't move them out on the public nuisance theory."

Eberhard suggested that the city flood the bookstore with inspectors from the Health Department, Buildings and Safety Engineering Department and the Fire Marshal's office to find some code violation to shut them down.

COCKREL SAID — and Matish agreed — that it would be improper selective law enforcement to single out the bookstore. Inspectors should be used against the bookstore, Matish added, only when the city had some specific reason to believe it was in violation of an ordinance.

Council President Erma Henderson suggested that the city's legislative body invite the FBI to investigate the Nazis. That idea died for lack of enthusiasm.

Mrs. Henderson and Kelley also suggested the daily papers, radio and television stations be asked to impose a news blackout on the situation. They said the demonstrators are seeking publicity and that attracts the trouble-seekers.

"We've passed resolutions before saying that we didn't like Nazis," Cockrel said. "We are not political commissars to rule on ideas. It's not our role. I rest my confidence on our ability to combat these ideas."

Councilmen charged the Nazis are racist and anti-Semitic. Cockrel said these prejudices are found in other people, too.

Detroit Nazis punch church leader in attack at bookstore

Michigan department commander of the Jewish War Veterans.

The pickets, some carrying the same signs printed by a coalition of labor and community groups to protest the West Vernor bookstore, grew quickly from two to about 25, mostly young persons.

Six police cars from the precinct and Tactical Mobile Unit were sent to the scene to keep order.

The atmosphere remained tense as the Nazis, to counter the pickets, stationed three helmeted, black-shirted members with swastika armbands in the front entrance of the store, holding Nazi placards. A sporadic series of encounters occurred in which the Nazis at one point knocked an American flag being carried by a protestor to the sidewalk.

Guy Scavone, 74, owner of the building in which the storefront is located, said Russell rented the store from him last Tuesday, paying $150 for two months' rent in advance, and stating that he needed the store to sell some "surplus goods."

Scavone, who said Russell did not tell him he was with the Nazi movement, said he offered Russell a full cash refund of his rent and asked him to leave the store, but Russell refused.

"He said they would stay for two months," Scavone said. "I don't want any Nazis in my building."

Russell claimed he gave Scavone his true name and the name of his party.

Benham, the Detroit Roundtable director, said he entered the store to obtain samples of the literature being offered by the Nazi group.

"I wanted to see whether they were going to disseminate the same kind of literature they did on Vernor," said Benham, who added that he participated in several rallies protesting the Vernor bookstore.

"I had a brief exchange of words, was told to get out, and was then pushed out of the store. As they shoved me, someone came up with a punch."

Asked about the incident, Russell said, "That must be the one who started ranting and raving. He began attacking our literature and went into a mad rave. We had to restrain him and stick him outside."

years at Buchenwald and Dora concentration camps. His work is a very masterful, detailed analysis and refutation of the usual "gas chamber", "mass extermination" claims spewed forth endlessly by our propaganda media since 1945.

To give just one more example of the sort of nonsense very typically put forward by supposedly reputable writers, let no review overlook Olga Lengyel's "Five Chimneys" (London, 1959). Lengyel asserts that at Auschwitz, the ovens cremated no less than seven hundred and twenty per hour, or seventeen-thousand two hundred and eighty corpses per twenty-four hour shift." She also claimed that eight thousand persons were burned every day in the "death pits" and therefore, "in round numbers, about twenty-four thousand corpses were handled every day" (from pages 80 and 81.)

This would have meant a death rate of over twenty-one million Jews: Six million more than the entire world Jewish population. Is any comment necessary?

I myself had an experience which clearly shows that many people have no conception of what is even meant by "gas chambers" and confuse it with crematoriums. Cremation is an old and widely accepted method of disposal of the dead in Germany and much of Europe. Naturally in a concentration camp which contained several thousand or several hundred thousand persons, there would necessarily have to be some efficient, practical method of the disposal of the deceased.

Due to the Allied bombing raids, the overcrowding, and the declining economic situation in Central Europe the last two years (particularly the last six months) of the War, there occurred a far higher than normal mortality. This would be reflected in any honest statistics on the Nazi concentration camps.

I was telling this to a rather prominent conservative author of English origin, who had served with the RAF during the War. This gentleman was at first quite insistent that there were "gas chambers" at Buchenwald. He had even "seen them with his own eyes", etc. I pointed out that Rassinier thoroughly exploded the Buchenwald "gas chamber" fallacy in David Rousset's work, "The Other Kingdom", and that even the Jewish Agency in Tel Aviv flatly stated several years ago that there were no "gas chambers" in Buchenwald, Dachau or any other camps in Germany proper. This individual was somewhat taken aback by this information and then he conceded that he saw crematoriums and not "gas chambers". I honestly think that he did not believe there was a difference until it was pointed out to him.

Although according to popular mythology, anywhere from three to five million persons were supposed to have been exterminated at Auschwitz alone (these figures make up the bulk of the "six million" myth), Reitlinger admits that only three hundred and sixty-three thousand persons were registered at Auschwitz from January 1940 to February 1945. Of course a large percentage were not Jews either. It is thus claimed by the proponents of the myth that many people were not registered. But this has in no manner been proved. Even if we give these people the undeserved benefit of the doubt and assume there were as many unregistered as registered it would still be only seven hundred and fifty-thousand persons - nowhere near the three or five million "exterminated"!

Also, over eighty thousand prisoners at Auschwitz were evacuated westward in January 1945 before the Soviet advance. Large numbers of the Auschwitz camp population were released or transported elsewhere during the War years. At least one hundred and fifty thousand were still alive in Auschwitz at the time of the Russian "liberation".

At Auschwitz today, visitors are shown small furnaces which are claimed to be "faithful replicas" of the same type where "millions were exterminated".

To have transported the alleged "six million Jews" and countless other nationalities to internment camps would simply have paralyzed the German military operations. A transportation of a reasonable number of prisoners such as the three hundred and sixty-three thousand at Auschwitz, would make sense in terms of the compulsory labor they supplied the vast industrial complex at Auschwitz.

PARIS — Hundreds of white survivors from the war in Zaire flooded refugee centers in France and Belgium today, relating stories of pillage and massacre both by rebels high on drugs and by Zairean government troops.

"The rebels came at 4 in the morning," Mrs. Daniel Nortier said. "We heard shots. The rebels were kids, just 13 and 14, like my boys," gesturing to her two sons.

Nortier's family were among 86 French nationals who arrived in Paris today, rescued by French paratroopers from rebels who invaded Zaire's southern Shaba province almost two weeks ago.

Her voice rose and she talked faster: "They threw grenades into houses of whites. I saw people dead on the sidewalk with bayonets sticking out of their stomachs."

She broke into sobs and started babbling. Red Cross nurses put her into a wheelchair and held her hands. "I am afraid . . . I am afraid," she gasped. Then she screamed.

In Brussels, three other planes arrived from Kinshasa late yesterday carrying 500 refugees. In all, 2,500 whites were evacuated.

Many told UPI reporter Michael Dennigan of anti-white savagery by both the invading rebels and the Zairean government troops supposedly defending the town.

on marijuana — not the rebels — massacred 34 whites in one house.

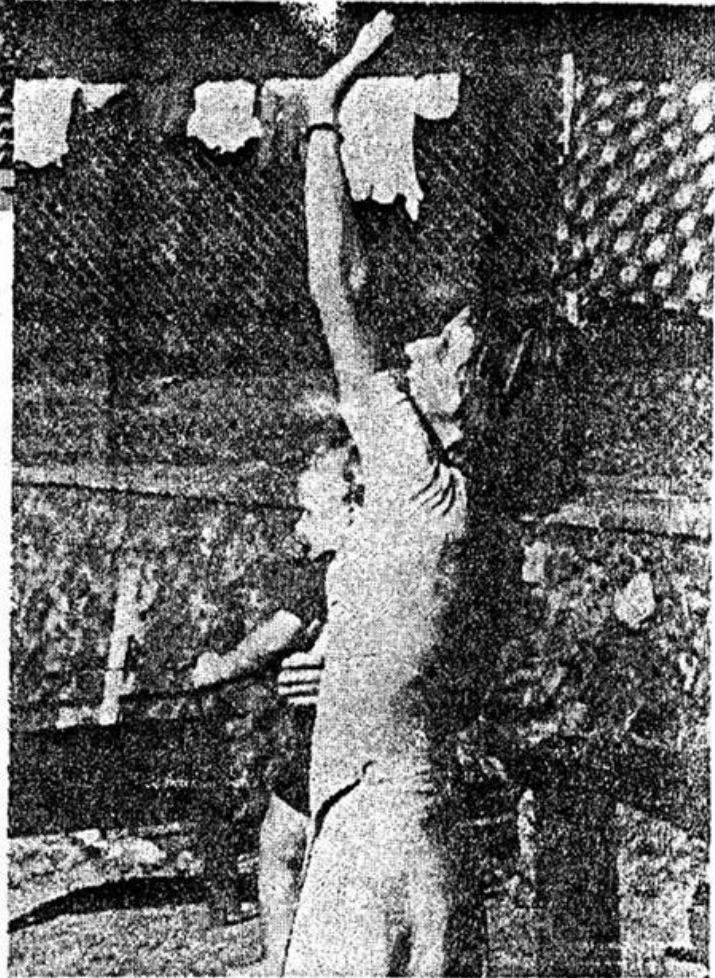

Almost all told of rebels coming to their homes again and again, stealing everything at gunpoint. They often preferred to shoot their way in and, refugees said. Their looting techniques were copied by government soldiers and the local civilian population.

"The rebels went into Motoshi hospital and knifed every patient, black or white," said Jean-Marie Lallemand, 31. "I saw 40 dead whites heaped in one spot, 25 bodies in a house, a guy who fell dead against a wall.

"I saw entire families shot and dogs eating them. When I saw those kids dead . . ."

Tears filled his blue eyes and his voice cracked.

"They held peoples' courts to try white people. They looted five stores near my home and killed the European owners. Some of my pals were taken hostage back to Angola. They came to my house and asked for my watch, I gave it to them — if you didn't give things you were shot."

DOWN BELOW, A YOUNG WOMAN WAVED TO PARATROOPERS. And a few minutes later she and her son were rescued.

WHY COULDN'T IT HAPPEN HERE??

No amount of brotherhood, integration, welfare, sweetness or light is going to save you and your family from swarms of black, rampaging niggers!!

When the race war starts, not even Jimmy Carter himself will help you!

Only White Men with GUNS like those pictured above can put a stop - once and for all - to these blood-thirsty, gibbering black gorillas!

Paratroops rescue 2,500

"Thursday, we had a narrow escape," Amstutz said. "The Katangese came looking for us, shouting 'Missionary, missionary, where are you'. They were looking for me but they went to the wrong house."

"Last night at four o'clock the planes began to fly over and paratroopers billowed out. It was a wonderful sight. They dropped wave after wave of white parachutes."

"More Hercules came over today and more paratroopers dropped on the town."

"Then we saw troops moving through the streets. My wife thought they were Katangese and moaned, 'Here they come. We're in for it now.'"

"Their faces had been blackened. But I saw their hands under their uniforms and said 'They're white. We're saved.'"

We've seen identical faces in countless "niggertowns" all over America!

the distinct impression that were I to attend, I would surely find for myself a pearl among the swine. Vincent invariably made it sound like a Nazi version of "The Dating Game."

Vincent soon arranged for me to interview the San Jose Unit Leader, much to the distress of the local NSWWP leader. He made his displeasure quite plain to me when he telephoned me to set up the time and place, grouching that he would never grant me an interview on his own, but that "his Commander had insisted" that he cooperate with me. So, the stage was set for the first face-to-face, one-on-one meeting with the local Nazi bigwig, who was making it clear that he was very unhappy about the entire situation. I was rapidly developing a bad case of nerves.

Our meeting place, a restaurant in east San Jose, had been predetermined by the local leader. When I had asked him how I would identify him, he said that he would probably be the "only man in the place who was clean-cut, and had short hair." I dutifully described myself, and hoped that there wouldn't be too many short-haired men in that restaurant that particular day.

The meeting with Larry Stevens, local NSWWP unit leader, lasted three hours, and Stevens talked candidly about his group's activities. Stevens told me that his local membership ran from Palo Alto to Gilroy, with the card-carrying members "somewhere in the high hundreds." Stevens became interested in the Nazi party when still in high school, and continued his interest when a student at Foothill College. He was appointed unit leader of San Jose by Vincent in 1974, and was a "leader" with no followers. He began to do door-to-door canvassing on the east side of San Jose, leaving leaflets on doorknobs. Stevens noted that he generally received more inquiries for information when the leaflets did not show the swastika or other Nazi-related symbols on them.

Stevens said that he had about "10 students at Stanford" and others at unnamed schools and colleges canvassing and performing other work for the "party." He expressed interest in West Valley College, and wanted to know "the racial make-up" of the student population. Stevens expressed special interest in today's youth, explaining that the NSWWP and its Youth Corps membership were of particular interest to him. He said that "reaching the minds of the young was a job that he hoped to be able to spend more time on in the future." At the present time, Stevens said, party members occasionally take Youth Corps members to the mountains for "orientation" periods. Older party members take trips to the desert "somewhere near Arnold, California," for maneuvers and encampments. "We get out and drill with weapons," Stevens said. Party members must drill regularly, using National Rifle Association targets. The targets are scored, and members must practice at distances of "15, 20, 25 yards with hand weapons, shooting about 50 rounds," Stevens said. Party members are always armed with standard 45's and rifles during these maneuvers, and outfit themselves in their stormtrooper uniforms.

Stevens refused to allow me to attend a San Jose NSWWP meeting, so the meeting with Allen Vincent in San Francisco was becoming inevitable.

I had been informed that some of the Nazi members would be armed at the March 4 meeting, and that there would be protesters gathered outside the Wawona clubhouse. Vincent had called the TV and print media, and alerted the S.F. police of possible violence. If Vincent accomplished anything by this maneuver, it was only to gain more personal press coverage for himself. The press greatly outnumbered party members, supporters, or sympathizers, and the police outnumbered everyone by about three to one. Four mounted policemen lined up their horses four abreast just inside the gate leading to the entrance of the clubhouse.

More than 20 police cruised leisurely up and down the street, while several plainclothes police sat in unmarked cars silently observing the outside activities.

Some of the uniformed stormtroopers, greatly emboldened by the presence of so many police, ventured outside the clubhouse and taunted the protesters on the other side of the mesh fence by shouting "Heil Hitler" and giving the extended arm salute.

Inside the clubhouse, chaos reigned as TV cameramen continually panned the faces of the group gathered inside. At one point, I stepped inside the clubhouse only to be met by the glare of TV camera lights directed at me. I quickly stepped aside, and busied myself with my tape recorder, waiting for Vincent to begin his meeting. When he was satisfied that all cameras were pointing to him, and all tape recorders open and recording, he began his speech. Vincent railed on about the "Jew-controlled media; shipping Blacks back to Africa; closing down the borders to keep out all aliens," and the continual use of the phrase "WHITE POWER."

believe. Their hatred is genuine. Their fear is real. Sources have told me that their numbers are indeed increasing.

I cannot forget what one stormtrooper told me. "If we continue to grow in members as I hope we will, we will almost surely be outlawed, and then we will be forced to defend ourselves at any cost." This man was not kidding. He is actively recruiting at schools and colleges right now.

The NSWWP is opening its membership to the KKK and to the Hell's Angels. It is only to attend a Nazi meeting, see the fusion of these three groups, and experience a stomach-grinding presentiment of fear that refuses to go away.

When Vincent conducts his meetings he is flanked by armed and uniformed stormtroopers, standing stiffly, legs apart, arms behind their backs. It is a frightening and unnerving spectacle to be amid a group of swastika armbanded, booted, gun-carrying men saluting and pledging allegiance to Adolf Hitler.

These men are not just playing dress-up on the weekends. They are for real. The ruthless rhetoric they spout is truly what they

100,000 WHITE MEN OF OHIO

2—Chillicothe O. Gazette Wednesday, June 7, 1978

Voters set stage

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes easily won renomination in Ohio's Tuesday primary while Democratic Lt. Gov. Richard F. Celeste sailed into his party's November gubernatorial spot over token opposition.

The 68-year-old governor, after an almost nonexistent campaign, solidly defeated his only challenger, House Minority Leader Charles F. Kurfess, 391,801 to 187,882, based on complete but unofficial returns from the unusually low turnout primary.

Celeste, 40, moved into an early lead and swept every county in defeating Ku Klux Klansman Dale Reusch of Lodi, 490,563 to 91,146.

Celeste, who ignored Reusch, the imperial wizard of the Knights of the KKK, mostly campaigned against Rhodes in the primary, charging him, among other things, with failure to provide leadership in Ohio's school funding crisis and in numerous other areas.

The turnout apparently fell significantly below the 1.62 million which had been predicted. As of early Wednesday, about 1.2 million votes had been cast in the races for governor, which led tickets. Lack of interesting issues and contested candidate races were cited as the reason. About 1.6 million voted in the 1974 primary.

Reusch, a 38-year-old engine tester at a Cleveland auto plant, could not be reached for comment. His running mate was Robert Strittmatter, a print shop employee at Lakemore in Summit County. They based their meagerly financed and almost invisible campaign on anti-busing and anti-gun registration.

Celeste said earlier he wanted to raise about $1.5 million. He had spent $343,431 as of May 25, pre-primary expense reports showed, but had debts as of then of $15,708. The Democrat purchased $65,000 worth of television spots in mid-May, but they were intended to help keep his name before the public, and not out of concern about Reusch's campaign.

movement!). Myself who has always since my very awakening urged others I met to the SIEGE publications found in James Mason's "Siege" came to realize that I was quite alone in knowing who Joseph Tommasi was.

Fast forward to 2017 when I began the Lincoln Rockwell Archive briefly after I made contact with (and met) James Mason in person, the information that you'll find throughout the archives he personally gave to me and assigned the task of publishing it on the internet, this was not only a huge honor, but also an outlet to at least ensure that Tommasi's legacy will not be forgotten, and he can be a hero to inspire younger generations to pick up where he left off.

Some acknowledgements I have to make before we draw this journey through history to an end are first and foremost to James Mason who provided me with the files and information necessary for this publication. Second towards the American Italian White Separatist Front who has the Joseph Tommasi Tribute hosted on their website. The last, an Atomwaffen Division member, Ryan, living outside of Denver, CO who made meeting James Mason so that this project could be organized possible.

Now that this book is complete, I leave it in the hands of history and our youth to do what they will with Tommasi's legacy, and I wager that he will be remembered as I and many others feels he should be.

We will close this off with a prominent passage from James Mason's Siege. Thank you for reading, and don't forget to spread this publication wherever you can.

The NSLF One-Man Army

Once you have geared yourself up to think in purely revolutionary terms, things don't seem so one-way anymore. If you view yourself as among the last of a dying breed and then proceed to act accordingly, then that's exactly what you've become! If you view the fact that you're broke on account of having "little or no faith in capitalism", and yet believe that it is worth infinitely more to be a noble revolutionary being than to exist as a "consumer", then that is your sterling badge of honor. If you seek to defend a capitalist system and still find yourself broke and struggling, that is the mark of a fool. If you seek to take refuge from an encroaching System, then you are like a fox on the run. If you are determined instead to place the System under siege, then you have become truly revolutionary.

Money is filthy stuff. The means by which sneaks, cowards, weaklings, capitalists, bureaucrats, and Jews conduct every affair. It is the very means by which they are measured and judged. And as the money continues to grow more and more rotten with each passing day, so too is their individual worth eroded. Take away their money and you have nothing. They are not men. And neither are we the moment we imagine we can or even should fight them and their System on their own ground, by their rules. The dawn of day will break through the moment their foul money system either collapses under its own rotten weight or is blown to pieces by us. When they can't pay off their minions any longer, when they can't appease the hordes of savages in their cities— that's when we, who have endured their worst while being penniless, will become the immediate new masters because in the meantime we have grown incredibly tough and resourceful!

And why must the Right Wing always fall into the trap of basing each and every decision and move on the WISH that things were somehow other than what they actually are? Why can't they base their actions on things as they exist? Why in the world struggle to get ourselves all bottled up when the enemy is ALREADY bottled up for us?? The Jews, the Blacks, the bureaucracy— every source of filth and decadence emanates from the major cities of the U.S. How would a total breakdown, a general strike, a civil war, a total revolution, effect these manmade hell holes? They would in short order die the death they so richly deserve. That very thing is well within the capabilities of a small band of fanatics, each member a one-man army.

Let's have none of their effeminate money-games and let's have none of this garbage of withdrawing from the field where we presently are and confining ourselves within restricted, defensive boundaries.

Let us instead fully enjoy the concept of the One-Man Army and bring the struggle to the Enemy. Wherever you may be at this moment, let the revolution be there also. Spread a little revolution wherever you go! Never gripe about the System; project the Revolution! Get the people around you thinking in terms of TOTALITY, and not in terms of inches and degrees. Point out the real Enemy and not just the noisy, obnoxious symptoms– tell everyone it is the System itself that must go! Convey the feeling that it will be good to have all true White Men and Women as Comrades-in-Arms in the Revolution! Don't try to promulgate a "faith"– there's already too much of that. Be a spark for revolution.

DON'T BE A HARBINGER OF DOOM, BE A CARRIER OF REVOLUTION!
