Example - 1939: “Nazi published plan to annihilate six million Jews”

[Editor’s Note - Jews in East and Central Europe are Talmudic Khazars, not biblical Israelites (nor are they Semites). Also, there were 3.2 million such “Jews” in Europe - not 6 million. The number “six million” appears to originate in Talmudic gematria, or mysticism of numbers.]

East and Central Europe. Other warnings of the same dire character have been uttered by Nazi officials and publications for the past several years.

Today, two-thirds of the Jewish population in Poland is under Nazi occupation. Even the infrequent dispatches from the war front indicate that the Jews were the twofold victim of Nazi hatred and retaliation, first as citizens of Poland, and secondly, as Jews. The Nazi propaganda machinery is feverishly at work in an effort to drive a wedge between the Jews and the Poles. In line with its set policy, pursued before the hostilities commenced, Nazi propaganda attempts to convince the Poles that their enemy is the Jew and not the Nazi aggressor. At the same time, an effort is made to portray the Polish civilian resistance as stemming mainly from Jews, in order to justify wanton retaliation and goad the German soldiers and civilian population to more frightful acts. Frequent bombardments of Polish towns have been directed in many cases at the Jewish quarters. Polish Jews know that their very existence is at stake in this war. For the part of Poland, occupied by the Nazis, there may be a puppet government, Slovak style, pending a change in fortune. For Jews there is but death, exile and persecution. Nor is there any escape for them. If the pattern established by the U. S. S. R. will be followed in the regions occupied by the Russian forces, Jews in these localities will face persecution for their religious beliefs, Zionist activities and democratic sympathies.

As was not the case in the last war, in which the Jews of Germany shed blood for the glory of the grateful " Vaterland," they are held today as hostages to become again the scapegoats in the event of the defeat of the Nazi forces.

The problem of Palestine has attained a new complexion against the background of the new world situation. It continued to loom large until the outbreak of hostilities. It was evident from the utterances and actions of the Colonial Minister, Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, that the British Government was determined to put into effect the measures outlined in the White Paper, and to break the resistance of the Jewish community. This was reflected in the suspension of Jewish immigration into Palestine during the six months beginning October 1, 1939, as a retaliation for the continuous stream of "illegal" immigration of German and other refugees. Jews were heartened by the publication of the report of the League of Nations Permanent Mandates Commission, four of whose seven members declared the White Paper an unmistakable violation of the terms of the Mandate. In the meantime, attention was shifted to Geneva where the Twenty-First Biennial World Zionist Congress was opened on August 16.

The Congress met under the threatening clouds of war, a circumstance which influenced both the procedure and the tenor of the addresses and discussions. Because of the emergency situation in Zionism, elections were not held in a number of countries. The labor group was strongly represented as usual, and its coalition with the liberal General Zionists (Group A) still dominated the scene in spite of minor disagreements. The major differences which transcended all group lines ranged about the type of resistance to be undertaken against the British policy. While the Congress went on, a unanimously opposed to any compromise in Palestine as well as against Jewish emigra-

These past few months are memorable ones in the light of world history. But the era of constant change in which we live makes necessary now and then the summarizing of what actually has taken place during a given period. By special arrangements with the editors of the Contemporary Jewish Record, The Southern Israelite brings you this timely resume of Jewish world events.

Great Britain in defense of their common interests, notwithstanding the differences regarding the Palestine policy of the Government. The Prime Minister expressed his gratitude upon his acceptance of this offer. Thus an avenue for renewed cooperation between the Mandatory and the Jews was reopened. The initiation of a movement for the organization of a Jewish Legion in Palestine for the protection of the country was the first step in the new rapprochement. This recalled the experiences during the last war. Influential British public opinion urged a modification of Government policy. The result was the abandonment of the closed door policy. It is reported that in the second week after the war began, the doors of Palestine were reopened with an eye to its military defense. The Arabs, too, declared their readiness to cooperate with the democracies. With this a new phase opened in the history of Palestine, the full consequences of which cannot as yet be appraised.

The refugee problem as it had existed in the past six years has undergone a fundamental change. Many Polish Jews and non-Jews have attempted to flee into Hungary, Rumania, Lithuania and Latvia. In most cases refugees are kept out. The war situation has almost made it impossible for Jews to leave Germany. Able-bodied men and women have been conscripted in the army's labor battalions or given other work.

I believe the Hans Ziegler mentioned in the article is Dr. Hans Severus Ziegler, arrowed in the above photos.

He (Ziegler) was involved in the “Degenerate Music exhibition” in Düsseldorf in 1938.

In fact his name appears on this infamous poster:

[The poster coincidentally correctly credits African Israelites for their outstanding varied contributions to modern music – “degenerate” or not.]

This is his wikipedia page (in German).

The German National Library List lists 23 articles by, or about Dr. Hans Severus Ziegler;

[but] a book entitled Juden und der Weltkrieg (Jews and the World War) is not amongst them.

Link - Deutsche National Bibliothek

There is [however] a book called Die Juden und der Weltkrieg (The Jews and the World War), which was written in 1916 by a German named Felix A. Theilhaber [not by Zeigler], who served as a doctor in the German army during World War I.

Theilhaber also wrote Jüdische Flieger im Kriege (Jewish Flyers in the War) in 1918, in which he gave accounts of over one hundred Jewish soldiers who flew for Germany. Theilhaber writings were in the defense of Jews, to counter accusations that Jews had been a traitorous element in Germany during World War I.

Theilhader was the founder and chairman of Gesex (The Society of Sexual Reform). For his involvement with this group, he and fifty other physicians were arrested by the Gestapo in May 1933. After his release two months later, he emigrated to Palestine, where he co-founded the Maccabi Health Care Service. He died in 1956 in Tel Aviv. Links - source - source - source

Conclusion:

·

Dr. Hans Severus Ziegler never wrote a book called Juden und der Weltkrieg, about a new World War and the annihilation of 6,000,000 Jews. [It was actually written in 1916 by a German named Felix A. Theilhaber (a Jew?), who moved to Israel.]

·

The author of the article [about the “Nazi annihilation plan”], which appeared in at least three Jewish publications, lied.

·

[This fabrication, like many many others, entered the media “echo chamber”, and was repeated again and again as “fact”. These fabricated “facts”, retrospectively become erroneous “historical record.” This is a typical example of how Khazar anti-German propaganda, Russian anti-German propaganda, and Holocaust mythology propaganda were repeated unquestioned, until eventually becoming regarded as being true.]

As regards the use of copyrighted material within the European Union. The European Directive 2001/29/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 May 2001 on the harmonisation of certain aspects of copyright and related rights in the information society provides in its art. 5 an exhaustive list of exemptions that can be implemented by the Member States.

Amongst that list, the exemption(s) invoked must cover the reproduction and communication to the public (since the publication on the Internet implies those two acts). Generally, exemptions will be based on the purpose of the intended use. For instance, the Directive provides for an exemption to the exclusive right of reproduction and communication to the public when it is made for the sole purpose of illustration for teaching or scientific research, as long as the source, including the author's name, is indicated, unless this turns out to be impossible and to the extent justified by the non-commercial purpose to be achieved.

Another exemption is "reproduction by the press, communication to the public or making available of published articles on current economic, political or religious topics or of broadcast works or other subject-matter of the same character, in cases where such use is not expressly reserved, and as long as the source, including the author's name, is indicated, or use of works or other subject-matter in connection with the reporting of current events, to the extent justified by the informatory purpose and as long as the source, including the author's name, is indicated, unless this turns out to be impossible".

All the exceptions must comply with the three step test which imply that exemptions must only apply in certain special cases (1) which do not conflict with a normal exploitation of the work or other subject-matter (2) and do not unreasonably prejudice the legitimate interests of the rightholder (3).
